KRAUTZ-JOHNSON

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson in Smith valley, on June 24, at 6 p. m., when their daughter, Julia, was married to Harman Kratz of Camas, Montana. The witnesses were Misses Mable and Olga Johnson, sisters of the bride; Carl Johnson and P. O. Krantz. Rev. R. B. Langness officiated. The house was beautifully decorated in blue and white. Only the near relatives attended. Supper was served at 7 p. m. and consisted of three courses. Mr. and Mrs. Kratz will leave for Camas, where they will make their future home.

Kuhl Herman C Goodrich Clara Davis

4 Sep 1914 p8- marriage

GOODRICH-KUHL

One of the most charming of early autumn weddings was solemnized at Christ church Wednesday afternoon, when Miss Clara Davis Goodrich became the bride of Mr. Herman C. Kuhl. The church was most beautiful in its floral decorations. The chancel was decorated with white asters and sweet peas intermingled with soft green and wedding bells of white sweet peas tied with bows of tulle were suspended above the altar rail.

Miss Josephine Hunt and Miss Cleora Logan played several musical selections just before the advent of the wedding party. As the strains of the wedding march began, the bridal procession proceeded slowly up the aisle, the ushers, Mr. H. V. Alward and Mr. Philip Jacoby, leading. The ribbon bearers, carrying broad streamers of white satin ribbon formed a pathway for the bride. They were Misses May Grant, Nina Drink, Jessie Macdonald, Fannie Whiteside, Carrol Whipples and Marcy Angell. They made a pretty picture with their simple white dresses, and bouquets of white, lavender and pink sweet peas. The matrons of honor were Mrs. Floyd Reinking and Mrs. Gilbert Heyfron, of Missoula. They were gowned in beautiful pink chiffon dresses with headress to match and carried bouquets of pink sweet peas. The maid of honor, an intimate friend of the bride, was Miss Anne Larson of Marysville. She was becomingly attired in a lavender gown with lavender chiffon in her hair and carried the same colored sweet peas.

The bride was preceded by the two dainty flower girls, Anna Loretta Mead and Henrietta Steinke. They wore little white satin dresses and trimmed with pink rose buds, and carried long handled baskets filled with pink sweet peas.

Never was a bride more charming in her bridal robes. Her gown was white crepe meteor, made with a court train, a plaited skirt and the basque of beautiful lace with pearl trimmings. A veil covered her face and fell to the hem of the train. The veil was held in place by a crown outlined in pearl trimming and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. She was accompanied by her grandfather D. J. Plume, who gave the bride away.

Mr. Roy Williams of Polson was the best man.

Rev. C. A. Lindley read the first part of the marriage service, and when the bridal pair stood before the altar, they were married by Rev. Henry S. Gatlery, Episcopal minister of Missoula.

As soon as the ceremony had been completed, Mrs. John Thompson sang "Spring Song" in her usual delightful manner, and as the music continued the wedding party turned and left the church, the little flower girls scattering sweet peas in their pathway.

A reception was held immediately after the wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Plume at Ashley. The girls who were the ribbon bearers at the wedding assisted in serving the guests. Mesdames Cade, Steinke, Alward and Schnell presided at the table which was spread upon the lawn.

The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Will Cave, of Missoula, was formerly a KallsPELL girl, having spent most of her childhood here. She was graduated from Brunot hall and also from the Dillon normal school and several years were spent in successful teaching.

Mr. Kuhl is the civil engineer in charge of the construction of the dam on Sun river. He is a young man who has made his mark in his chosen profession upon true merit. The home is all ready for the bridal pair, and they have gone to Marshall, Montana, where they will at once begin house-keeping. They were the recipients of many beautiful wedding gifts, which will help to beautify their home and be constant reminders of sterling friendships.

Among the out of town guests besides those in the wedding party, were Mr. and Mrs. Richmond Mead of Missoula, Mr. Mrs. Judson Warner of Ronan, Mr. Reinking and Miss Mattie Reinking and Miss Inez Reinking of Whitefish, Mrs. Webster Ranson of Libby, Mrs. Walker Dayton, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Cave of Missoula.

TORKELSON-LONG
A wedding of special interest to the people of Kalspell took place on Tuesday evening, April 14, the contracting parties being Miss Josephine Torkelson and Hon. Thomas D. Long.
The ceremony was performed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Coram, by Rev. Clarence Mitchell. The Episcopal ring service was used. Only the very immediate relatives of the bride and groom attended the wedding, which occurred at 8 o'clock in the evening. After the service, a perfectly appointed wedding dinner was served by the groom's sister, Mrs. Coram. The table was beautiful with its floral decorations.
The bride was attired in a simple white wedding gown, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. Her traveling gown was a suit of blue. Mr. and Mrs. Long departed on the 10 o'clock train for Seattle, where they will spend their honeymoon at the home of the bride's brother.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Long are widely known in this city, and have hosts of friends who will rejoice with them in their happiness. The bride has been a resident of Kalspell for about twelve years, during which time she has held a number of responsible positions. She is a woman of culture and refinement and by her sweet manner and disposition has won a world of friends. For a number of years she has been the efficient organist at Christ's church and her efforts in this direction have been untiring. Mr. Long is one of the leading attorneys of Kalspell, as well as of the state of Montana. He was an able representative of Flathead county in the senate, and has always taken an active part in the welfare of this city.
After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Long will return to Kalspell, where they will be at home to their many friends.

ROSENCRANS-WENG WEDDING

(From Post-Intelliger)

Miss Florence Rosencrans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucian T. Rosencrans, and John Weng were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the bride, 6212 Twelfth avenue northeast. Rev. Wallace H. Lee, of Tacoma, performed the ceremony in the presence of sixty friends and relatives.

A canopy of Oregon grape was erected in the drawing room and an improvised altar was fashioned from Shasta daisies. Masses of the daisies were grouped about the room and in the library. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Maude Des Derochere sang "O Promise Me," and immediately after, "Calm as the Night." Mrs. Harold Osum played Mendelssohn's wedding march to announce the approach of the bride. Little Harold Osum, jr., the ring bearer, was dressed in white, and carried the rings for the double ring service in the heart of a white rose. Miss Ida Rosencrans, sister of the bride was her only attendant. She wore a gown of heliotrope crepe meteor, and carried a shower bouquet of lavender sweet peas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a robe of ivory crepe meteor adorned with Duchesse lace and made with a court train. Her tulle veil was caught up in a Juliet esp and elaborated with Duchesse lace which had been on her grandmother's wedding gown, with a rosette of orange blossoms at each side. Her shower bouquet was of Bride roses and maidenhair ferns. Mr. Harold Osum acted as best man for Mr. Weng.

A buffet supper was served in the dining room. The table was decorated with a low mound of sweet peas in rainbow shades of pink, lavender and white, and trailing vines were used everywhere. The porch was screened in with Japanese clematis and vines, and Miss Helen Spaulding and Miss Millie Brace presided here at the punch bowl.

Mr. and Mrs. Weng left for a trip to Mount Rainier, and after August 1 will be at home to their friends at their new bungalow on Greenwood avenue.
