Barnett Clyde H Stoner Zelia Romona 27 Jul 1915 p6- marriage

MISS STONER BECOMES BRIDE OF C. H. BARNETT.

The marriage of Miss Zelia Stoner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stoner, formerly of Flathead county, was solemnized at Palm Beach Florida, July 14. The Palm Beach News of July 16, gives the following account.

Characterized by the simplicity of manner that is one of the distinguished traits of the bride, as well as the beauty and good taste which are expressive of her nature, was the wedding of Miss Zelia Ramona Stoner and Mr Clyde H. Barnett, which was solemnized at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. P. C. Gates, in Palm Beach Heights.

Suggestive of the happy event to take place, the veranda was prettily decorated with grape vines and hibiscus.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Encell sang "All For You." As the last notes died away Miss Stoner and Mr. Barnett took their places before an improvised altar and Rev. W. P. Buhrman of the Methodist Church pronounced the words which made them man and wife. Mrs. Encell then sang "I Love You Truly," and her beautiful voice was never heard to better advantage than on this occasion.

After the ceremony a wedding lunch was served by Mrs. Gates and Miss Myrtle Miller, after which the guests repaired to the new home of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnett are both popular with a wide circle of friends not only in the West Palm Beach, but throughout South Florida and they were the recipients of many handsome gifts.

Former Kalispell Boy Married.

Regarding the wedding last week of John W. Jones, of Gunnison, Utah, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones, the Herald-Republican of Salt Lake, has the following to say:

"A beautiful wedding and reception took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Winder, 676 Third avenue, when their daughter Jean became the bride of J. W. Jones. Levi Edgar Young officiated at the ceremony at 7 o'clock, in the presence of members of the families and intimate friends of the young couple. The Hawaiian Troubadors played the wedding march as the bridal party entered the room and took their places under an arch in the alcove of the living room. A background consisted of banks of palms and ferns and the arch was twined with plumosus, with hanging baskets of white chrysanthemums and ferns suspended from the center and either end.

The bride was charming in her gown, a Lucile model of ivory satin made with a long train and trimmed with real lace and roses veiled in delicate silver lace on the bodice with bands of the same on the overdress. She wore a filmy tulle veil which extended to the bottom of the train, caught in cap effect with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses with showers of lilies of the valley.

Miss Florence Winder, who attended her sister as maid of honor, wore a French model of changeable blue taffeta embroidered in silver flowers with silver slippers and stockings. Miss Mary Shepherd Horne wore a pretty bridesmaid's gown of sea foam changeable green taffeta, with bodice of silver, with silver slippers and stockings. Both of the gowns were made in panier effect and each of the attendants carried clusters of pink rosebuds.

Dr. J. H. Peek, of Gunnison, Utah, assisted the bridegroom as best man. The parlors and reception hall were effectively decorated with white roses and quantities of English ivy.

About 150 relatives and friends were present at the reception which followed the ceremony, and the Troubadors orchestra, stationed in the reception hall, furnished the musical program of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Winder were assisted in receiving by J. T. Jones, father of the bridegroom, and Mrs. L. A. Copeland, aunt of the bride.

A basket of Cecil Brunner roses and violets combined with pink tulle, formed the central decoration on the table in the dining room, which was covered with Venetian lace and Mederia embroidery over pink satin, streamers of pink tulle extending from the chandelier to the corners. Miss Erma Cahoon presided in the dining room, where the Misses Lisle and Beth Bradford and Miss Ivy Speneer poured coffee, assisted by Miss Maud Carruth and Miss Talula Metcalf. Punch was served by Miss Helen Copeland and the Misses Clara and Bertha Cahoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones have gone to spend their honeymoon in California before going to their home in Gunnison, where Mr. Jones is cashier of the Gunnison Valley bank.

Nick Julian, of Pueblo, Colorado, and Miss Rosa Julian of Kalispell, were granted a marriage license today. Application was made July 3, but the groom was not 21 until July 4, and could not secure a license without the consent of his parents. SHORT ORDER MARRIAGES
EATON'S LATEST SPECIALTY.

R. N. Eaton, deputy clerk of the court enjoys the distinction of being first assistant to Dan Cupid. Of all his official duties there are none he enjoys so much as the issuing of marriage licenses. He has a grouch for a week if a fair young bride of 16 appears for a license without her parents consent, or if there is any other reason why the law prevents him from issuing a license. He is always ready to give good fatherly advice in overcoming all obstacles, and is always ready to get up at any time of the night to render assistance. He made a record along this line last Saturday night, when he got up about midnight to issue a license, but also furnished witnesses, and had the pleasure of seeing the knot tied then and there. The happy couple were John V. Larson and Miss Anna Jacobson, both of Eureka. They appeared before Judge Rognlie at a late hour armed with a Lincoln county license. The Judge explained that this would not comply with the requirements, but was ready to help the good cause along. He 'phoned Mr. Eaton, explaining the exigencies of the situation. Mr. Eaton was not only willing but anxious, so he hurried to the court house, bringing along Mrs. Eaton and Mr. and Mrs. John Hebert as witnesses. The license was issued in short order, the ceremony was performed by the Judge in his best manner, and the couple sent on their way rejoicing.

Mr. Eaton is now having a large sign prepared, which reads; "Marriage Performed While You Wait." which he will place over the door.

LAVELLE MARRIED GIRL
WITHOUT GUARDIANS CONSENT

The case of Paddy Lavelle, who is wanted by Polson officials on an abduction charge, has many angles. It appears that the grandparents of the girl, Eva Therriault, refused to give their consent to her marriage to Lavelle, as she is but 13 years old. Thereupon he decided to play Lochinvar and take the girl anyway. Last Saturday he appeared at the office of the county clerk and asked for a marriage license, stating that the bride was 17. As it was explained that the young lady had not attained her majority and would have to have the consent of her parents or guardians, a paper purporting to be the written consent of her grandparents was produced, but lacking in evidence of genuineness the license was refused. The couple thereupon went to Sand Point, Idaho, procured a license and were duly married. When they returned to Kalispell last Tuesday, Lavelle heard that a warrant was out for his arrest, and he consulted the county attorney. James K. Lang, investigated the matter and learned that a license had been duly granted at Sand Point, and the couple were married. When the license was secured she gave her age as 18, the discrepancy in age doubtless being due to the difference in time between Kalispell and Sand Point.

The couple returned to Polson, and as nothing has been heard since it is presumed that the charge was withdrawn.
