Twenty-three years ago they became acquainted when both were residing in Butte, and the friendship begun at that time has existed over the score of years that has intervened. After a brief residence in Butte, Mrs. Webber came to this city. Mr. Wendell went to Helena, where he resided until four years ago, when he came to Kalispell, and the friendship was renewed, which resulted in the wedding on New Year's eve.

The ceremony was performed at the Baptist parsonage at 8 o'clock in the evening in the presence of a few intimate friends, Rev. Clark officiating. The couple have taken apartments in the Whipps block, where they will be at home to their friends.

YOST—JENKINS.

Clyde L. Yost and Mildred M. Jenkins were married Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Stannard, the Rev. Geo. M. Fisher pronouncing the ceremony.

Mrs. Stannard had invited about twenty guests and at eight thirty she called up the Gamma Phi girls who were assembled at the Holt home. She told them to be at her home promptly at nine for a surprise which she had planned for Mildred and Bill. A few of the young men were called up and the crowd proceeded to the Stannard home. The party was assembled in the spacious home when at nine o'clock the lights were turned on and the strains of a wedding march pealed forth. The appearance of the bridal couple was the first intimation of the real surprise. The home was beautifully decorated in Christmas greens, silver tinsel and red smilax. The ceremony was performed beneath a canopy of silver tinsel and colored lights, little Beth Ellis bearing the ring in a huge pink chrysanthemum. The bride wore a gown previously worn by four brides, three of whom are relatives. Her veil also is a family heirloom, and was supported by orange blossoms ordered from California by W. H. Griffin. Following the ceremony the orchestra played the Venetian boat song and the party went into the dining room, where the bride cut the wedding cake and the bride's cake with a knife which was a part of her own silver set, presented as a Christmas gift.

It is doubtful if there has ever been a prettier wedding in Kalispell. That Mrs. Stannard could have made such elaborate plans and yet kept the event entirely a secret until the appearance of the bridal couple was the marvel of everyone. The bride was the most surprised of all at the lovely preparations. To Mrs. Stannard she said: "I think this is the prettiest wedding I ever have attended. Why, I wouldn't have missed it for anything."

The newlyweds have lived in Kalispell for several years and are favorites with a wide circle of friends. The groom is connected with the First National Bank and a director in the Building and Loan Association. He is held in high esteem by his business associates who predict for him a successful future. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mrs. T. J. D... Jenkins, and universally popular because of her sweet, womanly qualities. For the past four years she has acted as bookkeeper for the Robinson Furniture Company. Hosts of friends extend best wishes for a successful and happy married life. Mr. and Mrs. Yost will be at home in the Kelley Annex, corner Fifth avenue east and First street.
