9 Jun 1916 p5- marriage

The wedding of Miss Henry and A. P. Bartholomew will take place in June.

One of the prettiest of spring weddings was that of Miss Angeline Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Henry, to A. F. Bartholomew, at 8:30 on Thursday evening. Amid a wealth of apple blossoms the marriage service was spoken by Rev. E. S. Williamson of the M. E. church. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Cornelison and Miss Hilda Kassen. The best man was Lewis Henry. They left on the evening train for a short wedding trip to Spokane. Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew are two of Somers' popular young people and their host of friends extend best wishes.

Bassford Yale Katheryn

1 Feb 1916 p5- marriage

YOUNG COUPLE ELOPE.

An elopement from the Flathead school occurred yesterday afternoon shortly after school had taken up. The principals in the affair were Harry Bassford and Katheryn Yale, the former a student and the latter until lately a student at the school. Bassford appeared in a car and drove off with his bride-to-be. The marriage was quickly secured and Justice Kallen tied the knot. Both of the young people had barely passed their birthdays, the girl by only a few days. It is understood that their marriage is without the consent of either family. Bassford has accepted a position at the Kalspell hotel.

DEAN—BONDURANT.
Heber Leroy Bondurant and Greta Maxine Dean were married last evening shortly after six o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 904 Second Avenue east. The Rev. Melvin Putnam of the Christian church performed an especially written ring ceremony in the presence of about fifty guests, comprising relatives and very near friends of the young people. The nuptial service was a simple, home affair, in keeping with the nature of both bride and groom. The attendants were Lowell Miller, of Eureka, and Miss Vines Peedan, of Mason City, Iowa, cousins respectively of the bridal couple. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Egbert sang "Oh Promise Me!" and Miss Hodgson played the wedding march from Tauscher. The bride was charmingly gowned in white chiffon over satin, with silver trimmings, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The bridesmaid wore peach bloom taffeta, trimmed in gold lace. The ceremony was performed beneath a canopy of evergreen.
Mr. and Mrs. Bondurant have a wide circle of friends, especially among the younger set. Both are former students of Flathead high school, the groom a graduate, and it was within these classic halls that the courtship began which has ripened into marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo J. Dean, and came to Kalspell about two years ago from Kemmer, Wyoming. Her father is manager of the Golden Rule store and one of the leading business men of the city. The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Bondurant, residents of Kalspell for the past eighteen years and prominent in church and social circles. The groom is a young man of sterling business qualities and his bride one of the most charming young women in the world. They will make their home in Kalspell, amidst very felicitous surroundings and innumerable good friends.

They will spend a few days at Whitefish, Mont. after which they will be at home to their friends at Hubbard, Mont.

JAQUETH-CHARNHOLM WEDDING SURPRISE

Al Charnholm and Edna Jaqueth were quietly married yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jaqueth, on Third avenue east. The exact time had been kept with the greatest secrecy, and beside the immediate family only the Misses Fruin, Bullock and McAfee, Mr. M. E. Hampton and Rev. and Mrs. T. A. Stancliffe were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Stancliffe, who came all the way from Miles City for the occasion. The bride was given away by her father, and looked most charming in a beautiful gown of crepe de chine, overdraped with embroidered chiffon. She carried a shower bouquet of roses and was attended by her little sisters, Gertrude and Marie, as ring bearers. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The newly-weds evaded their many friends and slipped out of town in a car to be absent the remainder of the week on their honeymoon.

Edna and Al are two of the best known and most popular young people in the city. The former has lived here all of her life, is a graduate of the county high school, and one of the most charming and lovable of Kallispell girls. She has been prominent in church and social activities and is a universal favorite among her acquaintances. Mr. Charnholm came to Kallispell about six years ago from North Dakota. He was born and raised in Wisconsin. Since coming to the city he has been constantly employed in the hardware department of the Kallispell Mercantile, and in both a business and social way has made many warm friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Charnholm will be home after the fifteenth of the month at Libby, where Mr. Charnholm will engage in the hardware and sporting goods business. Their Kallispell friends regret to see them leave the city and commend them most highly to the people of Libby.

Carlo P. Christianson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Christianson is receiving congratulations from his many friends. He has recently been married to Miss Blanche Perkins of Albuquerque, N. M. The bride is a graduate of Ann Arbor College, Mich., and the groom finished high school here and then went to Stanford university.

MARRIED IN HASTE.

Twentieth century methods certainly were in vogue yesterday when one of Kallispell's charming stenographers got married during the noon hour and informed her boss upon his return that she had resigned. The nuptial event was performed in a hurry. The Troy local brought the groom to the city and took him and his bride back to their home. Just two hours—but plenty of time to get married.

The contracting parties were William Christenson, of Whitefish, and Miss Katherine Miller of this city. They were married by Justice E. E. Day. Mr. Christenson formerly worked at the Flathead Commercial store and it was during that time that he met Miss Miller. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Miller, who reside at 195 Third Avenue east north. The young people have many friends who offer congratulations. Mr. Christenson is employed in the McLean store at Whitefish.

Coe Clifford V Tobias Frances Wilmi 27 Jun 1916 p8- marriage

TOBIAS-COE.

At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. James Grist of Columbia Falls occurred the wedding of Miss Frances Wilmi Tobias, of Kellogg, Minnesota, and Mr. Clifford V. Coe of Whitefish, Montana, at seven o'clock Saturday evening, June 24th. The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was used, Rev. Arthur N. Sanford, of Whitefish, officiating.

The bride was most charming in a dainty gown of white net, and carried white roses. After the congratulations and good wishes had been showered upon the happy couple, all sat down to a bountiful dinner.

Aside from Mr. and Mrs. Grist, an uncle and aunt of the groom, the wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Matthews, Rev. and Mrs. A. N. Sanford, and Mrs. C. C. Cooke of Whitefish, and Dwight Grist of Columbia Falls.

The wedding comes as a surprise to the many friends of the couple as it was supposed that the bride, for some time a popular teacher in the Whitefish schools, had gone to her home in Minnesota at the end of the school year; but instead she has been a guest at the Grist home.

Mr. Coe is a popular and well known member of the office force of the Great Northern at Whitefish. The young couple will be at home to their friends later in the summer at their new home on central avenue.

ALICE CUSICK WEDS.
Kalispell friends were agreeably surprised this week to receive word of the recent marriage of Alice M. Cusick, at Madera, California. Miss Cusick is the youngest sister of P. A. and William Cusick, and resided for a number of years in Helena, Mont. The young lady went to California about a year ago.
The following account of the wedding is taken from the Madera Mercury:
A quiet wedding occurred Wednesday evening at 8:30 when Rev. Father Kink of the Catholic church married two well known local young people.
The contracting parties were Miss Alice M. Cusick and John H. Fisher. The wedding, while anticipated by many was not known even to the bride's sisters until after the ceremony had actually taken place.
The bride is a sister of Mrs. L. J. Eshanks and also Mrs. Halson of this city, and has been here for several months. Her people reside in Montana. She has made many close friends since she has been making Madera her home and is a very attractive, pretty girl.
The groom is the manager of the local Western Union office, which position he has held for almost a year. He is a successful young man in a business way and is steady and ambitious. He has a large acquaintance in this community.
Their plans for the future have not been fully completed but for the time being at least they expect to continue their residence in Madera. They have the good wishes of a large circle of friends and acquaintances.
