

16 Jan 1925

1 May 1925

MRS. A. M. THORNBURGH
DIES IN MISSOULA

Mrs. Albert M. Thornburgh, sister by marriage of Mrs. W. C. Whipps and Mrs. Henry Bose, died at her home in Missoula Thursday afternoon at 4 p. m. of heart trouble following the flu. Mrs. Thornburgh is survived by one son, Frank Osterhout of Seattle, and one brother, Frank W. Hamilton of Portland and four grand-children. At the request of the deceased her remains will be brought to Kalispell for interment in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery. The body will arrive in Kalispell Sunday afternoon and the funeral will take place from the Whipps residence at 10:30 Monday morning. Mrs. Thornburgh was an old time resident of Deadwood and later of Helena, being quite prominent and well known among the old timers of the latter place. Still later she with her husband was a pioneer of Dawson City, Alaska, from which place they returned to Montana and have since lived in Ronan, Stevensville and for three or four years past, Missoula. Mrs. Thornburgh has visited in Kalispell many times and on her first view of the Conrad Cemetery she expressed a desire to be buried there.

HENRY TRINKAUS' FUNERAL HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

Funeral services for Henry Trinkaus were held Thursday afternoon at Sherman and Son's chapel, Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating.

The Misses Walchli and Lockhart sang "Nearer My God to Thee," "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," favorite hymns of the family. Miss DuBois was accompanist. Members of the Rebekahs and Lady Owl lodges attended the funeral, as members of the family belong to these organizations. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Mr. Trinkaus was 80 years of age, and an old timer in the Flathead, having lived here for over 30 years. His home in recent years was at Swan lake, but his death occurred in Kalispell Monday evening last, April 27.

His only child, Miss Birtha Trinkaus, arrived in the city Tuesday from Detroit, Michigan, to take charge of the funeral arrangements. Besides his daughter, he leaves to mourn his loss a brother, Albert, at Plymouth, Michigan; two sisters, Mrs. H. Slemmer, Los Angeles, California and Mrs. Orr Hager, Charlotte, Michigan; and a nephew, E. H. Slemmer of this city, besides other relatives and friends.

A rugged pioneer, Mr. Trinkaus will be remembered for his sterling worth and his courage in meeting the hardships of the early days.

1 May 1925

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation and thanks to the many friends for their help, kindness and sympathy extended: the Sisters' hospital and nurses, Reverend Bates, Miss Walchli and all who furnished cars and the beautiful flowers during the recent illness and loss of our father and uncle.

Miss Birtha L. Trinkaus
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Slemmer

10 Jul 1925

WELL KNOWN POLSON MAN PASSES AWAY

(Polson Courier)

J. A. Trow, a resident of Polson for fifteen years, passed away very suddenly at his home Wednesday night a few minutes before midnight. He had been down town earlier in the evening in his usual health. He was walking along the street near Lampe's store when he began to feel somewhat faint. He crossed the street to the paint store and sat down on the steps to rest, but became steadily weaker. A passerby stopped to assist him and a short time later his son, W. D. Trow, arrived. Mr. Trow was helped into a car and hurried to his home. A physician was called but he did not rally and died a few minutes before twelve o'clock.

Mr. Trow was past 73 years of age and had not been in good health for some time although he was actively engaged in business. Arrangements for the funeral services had not been completed today but will probably be held Monday.

Mr. Trow is survived by his wife and three children: Mrs. John A. Denovan of Detroit; Mrs. G. H. Coulthard of Long Beach, Calif., and Waldo D. Trow of Polson. He is also survived by a brother, E. C. Trow of Wisdom, Nebraska.

Mr. Trow came to Polson in 1909 from Madison, Lake county, North Dakota. Since his residence here he has been engaged in the abstract and insurance business and has taken an active part in the development of the community. He was city treasurer, a member of the Kiwanis-club and also a member of the Knights of Pythias fraternity. He took a particularly active part in the campaign to create Lake county. During his residence in Madison, North Dakota, he was register of deeds of that county for a number of years and was mayor of the city for several terms. He was born in Wisconsin where he received his education but had the pioneer spirit and moved west with the western frontier.