

MANY ASSEMBLE FOR THE FUNERAL OF LOREE DALE

Funeral services for Loree Dale were held at the Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, Rev. B. Scott Bates officiating. As Miss Dale was a member of the Senior class of the Normal Training department of the High school, both the senior and junior classes of that department attended the services in a body, together with their teachers. Miss Bessie Parrick, teacher at La Salle, where Loree had been engaged in practice teaching, and five senior normal girls: Ardys Buehholz, Edith Hinman, Phloris Hollinberger, Montana Colby, and Dorothy Riebe acted as honorary pall-bearers.

The active pall-bearers were Melvin McPheeters, Harold Kent, Arthur and Floyd Buck, Loyal Smith, and Earl Case, friends of Loree.

A mixed quartet, accompanied by Miss Daisy DuBois, sang, "Come Ye Disconsolate," "Sometime We'll Understand," and "No Night There." The quartet were Miss Chester, Miss Watchli, and Messrs. Dunsire and Bruce.

Loree Dale was born at Palouse, Washington, June 20, 1910, the eldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Dale. The next year her parents moved to the reservation, where Loree grew up, attending the Flat-head County high school the past four years. The many beautiful floral tributes and the large attendance of both old and young testified to the high esteem in which she was held. She was a member of the local Presbyterian church and a much beloved officer and teacher in the Sunday school.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deep appreciation to Dr. Bates for his loving and comforting sermon; to the choir for its beautiful music and to the many friends and school mates for their loving-kindness and beautiful floral offerings.

Harry T. Dale and Family.

FRIENDS PAY TRIBUTE TO DANIEL W. DURALL

Friends thronged to the Baptist church at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon when funeral services in memory of Daniel W. Durall were held. Rev. G. M. Fisher, preaching the sermon. Many beautiful floral tributes had been brought and were banked about the casket. Mrs. M. A. Tiffany and Miss Velma LaRue sang several hymns, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles Hooper.

The pall bearers were W. H. Hally, Henry Bierman, S. J. Purcell, F. S. Calbick, B. B. Gilliland and E. J. Rollinson. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of Waggoner and Campbell. The Masonic lodge conducted its services at the grave.

Daniel W. Durall, who was one of the early pioneers of the Flathead, was born at Albia, Iowa January 23, 1858 and came to Butte and Anaconda, Montana, as early as 1880. After two years in the west he returned to Missouri, and was married to Miss Margaret Baker who passed away 18 months later.

Mr. Durall then came back to the west, this time going to California, Washington and Idaho. In 1889, when fences were hard to know in the Flathead, he located a homestead seven miles northwest of Ashley postoffice. A short time afterwards he became manager of a store at Ashley for G. H. Adams and continued with Mr. Adams when the Ashley store was moved to Kalispell in 1891. About the year 1903 he established a shoe business here in partnership with J. Karcher remaining in that business for 23 years. He was married to Mrs. Margaret J. Edge in 1891, his wife passing away in February of last year.

Mr. Durall is survived by a stepson, Charles M. Durall, Missoula; a brother, Benjamin F. Durall, New Port, Oregon; and three sisters, Mrs. Cora E. Peckinpugh, Eldorado Springs, Missouri; Mrs. Salina Lindsey, of Missouri, and Mrs. Mollie E. Dunbar of Guthrie, Oklahoma.

Mr. Durall, better known to his friends and acquaintances as "Dan" was a citizen of the best type, unassuming and quiet in manner, loyal to his friends and conscientious in his everyday life and dealings. His friends will not soon forget the many good qualities that endeared him to them as a friend and neighbor.

He was a member of the Baptist church and the Masonic lodge.
