Marsh Robert Beoley Dorothy engagement marriage 8 Aug 1934 pg 8 24 Aug 1934 pg 8

Robert Marsh to Marry Miss Dorothy Beoley in September
The following clipping from the Pasadena (California) Star-News carries the information of the engagement of Robert Marsh, well-known Kallispell boy, and Miss Dorothy Beoley of Alhambra, California.
"Of much interest in local social and social circles here and in the east is the formal announcement made today of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Beoley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leon Gage Beoley, of 1915 Meadowbrook road, Alhambra, formerly of Lawrence, Mass., and Robert Marsh, son of Mrs. F. E. Marsh of Kallispell, Mead.
The bride-to-be is an accomplished musician, having studied violin in New York and in Europe. She has lived in Pasadena only two years but has made a host of friends. She is a member of the intermediate group of the Pasadena Hospital Auxiliary, and was graduated from Albert Academy, Andover, Mass., and from Smith college.
Mr. Marsh, who is the grandson of Henry Rowan, prominent local iron man and founder of Mountain, has attended the California Institute of Technology and is at present doing chemical research at the Pottinger Sanitorium in Merwin. Although no definite plans have been made, the wedding will probably be an event of early September."

Beoley-Marsh
The following article concerning the wedding of Robert Marsh and Miss Dorothy Beoley, in California last week, is taken from "The Los Angeles Times" and will prove of especial interest to Kallispell friends.
"Miss Dorothy Beoley, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leon Gage Beoley of Alhambra, became the bride of Robert Marsh, son of Mrs. F. E. Marsh of Kallispell, Montana, Thursday afternoon, August 16. The ceremony was performed by Dr. James Leichman of the Pasadena Presbyterian church in Ashley Square at 4:30 o'clock.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an afternoon gown of mousseline de sole and a wide hat of white horsehair, with a knot of duchesse lace, taken from the wedding gown of her mother. A bouquet of gardenias, lilacs-of-the-valley and hyacinths was carried. Miss Virginia Beoley acted her sister as maid of honor and wore a frock of white embroidered organza, with large picture hat of white horsehair. She carried an arm bouquet of Shasta lilies. Little Miss Evelyn Crilly of Alhambra was the flower girl and also wore white. Jan Schaefer of Hemlock, close friend of Mr. Marsh, served as best man, and Edward Beoley, the bride's brother, and Laurence O'Neil, of Pomona, cousin of the groom, ushered.
Fifty guests were invited to attend the ceremony and the reception which followed at the home of the bride's parents. After a boat trip to Seattle and a motor trip to Kallispell and Glacier Park, Mr. and Mrs. Marsh will reside in Pasadena.
The bride is a graduate of Smith college, and has studied violin in Europe and New York. Mr. Marsh is studying at the California Institute of Technology, where he will be a student next year. This summer he has been doing chemical research work at the Pottinger Sanitorium in Merwin."

Copley-Owens
On Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Copley, 843 Second avenue west, was celebrated the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Alice, to Robert D. Owens, son of E. B. Owens of this city. The Rev. Harold H. Mark of the Presbyterian church read the ring service in the presence of immediate relatives.
The bride in the living room has a nosegay of peonies, columbines and other seasonal flowers, in large baskets, and across the mantel-draped Virginia creeper. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. H. C. Mark, the bride entered the arm of her father. She was attended by Miss Betty King as bridesmaid, and they were met by the groom by the groomsmen, and the best man, Charles Jensen.
The bride was lovely in a formal gown of white embroidered net. She wore a wide crown tiara, falling from a cap bordered with grey tulle, and she carried a bouquet of white, forget-me-nots, sweet alicium and fern, with rosebuds caught in the long white ribbons. The bridesmaid's gown was of green tulle, with a wide non-colored sash of the crepe. Her shoulder bouquet was of pink roses and proteasias tied with rose ribbons.
Following the ceremony, a delicious four-course dinner was served by the Misses Helen Switzer and Gladis Hollingsworth.
Mr. and Mrs. Owens left for a short wedding trip, and on their return will be at home at the Copley residence.
Both the young people are well-known in Kallispell, having graduated from Flathead county high school. Mrs. Owens received her early education in Conrad, Montana, the family moving to this city four years ago. Mr. Owens was reared and educated here and for the past few years, has been employed at the Copley family.

Pearce Alton Barnum Jean marriage 7 Jun 1934 pg 12

Barnum-Pearce
Numbered among the charming weddings of the past week was that of Miss Jean Barnum, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. G. William Barnum of Rossmore, and Alton Pearce, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Pearce of Missoula, which occurred yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. The ceremony was given in the presence of about 150 friends, who filled the church auditorium. The wedding service was said by the father of the bride, Rev. G. William Barnum; the wedding of his daughter, Jean, was the third wedding ceremony in his family which he had performed. Before the entrance of the bridal party, Mrs. J. M. Ford sang, "I Love Thee," by Grev, and "Iverson," by Guy d'Hindolot, and Clyde Carr sang, "Thou Art Like a Lovely Flower." They were accompanied by Mrs. Laura Carr at the piano. As the bride and her attendants entered from the back of the church, Mrs. Carr played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Proceeding the bride wore the three little flower girls, Shirley Nolan, Betty Opp and Dorothy Barnum, attractively dressed, who carried flowers which they scattered in the bride's path. The matron-of-honor was Mrs. George Robbin and the three bridesmaids were Miss Vera Beuthing, Miss Janet Hobbs and Miss Margaret Praron, a sister of the groom. The youngest brother of the bride, Johnnie Barnum, was the train-bearer. The church was beautifully decorated with many baskets of huge bouquets in shades of rose, pink and white, and across the entire rearview of the church, Virginia creper was artistically arranged. The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Robbin, wore a peach-colored creper gown of mouseline de soie and a small turban of the same color with a small white veil, and carried a long sheaf of roses of the same color. Miss Beuthing wore yellow organza, with a matching turban with tiny white veil, and carried yellow roses; Miss Margaret Pearce wore a gown of cream mouseline de soie, with matching turban and white veil, and the youngest bridesmaid, Dorothy Barnum, wore a gown of light blue mouseline de soie, with matching turban and carried a lovely sheaf of roses in pink shades. The bride was most attractive in a white satin formal jacket dress and she carried a beautiful bouquet of lavender orchids and small white flowers, tied with white tulle and long silver ribbons. Her cap was of white lace and trimmed with orange blossoms, and her long veil was of silk.

The bride was met by Mr. Pearce at the altar, where the wedding service was given by her father. It was assisted in officiating by the Rev. H. C. Stark, present pastor of the church. The best man was Donald Nixon, and ushers were H. P. Flaherty of Missoula, George Robbin and W. J. Keefe. The bride's brother, William, gave her in marriage. After the ceremony, and at about 11 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Pearce left for Seattle in their new car. They will be gone about two weeks, and upon their return will be at home to their friends at their apartment over the Anderson Style Shop. Out-of-town guests who were present at the wedding included the parents of the bride, and family, Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Barnum of Rossmore, and Julia, Mary, Dorothy, William and Johnnie; the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Pearce of Missoula, and Mrs. Pearce's sister, Mrs. J. Jeffries of Missoula, and Mr. Jeffries; and H. P. Flaherty of Missoula. Both Mr. and Mrs. Pearce are well known in Kallispell. Mrs. Pearce has taught in the city grade school system for the past two or three years, and Mr. Pearce is the proprietor of Pearce's Drug store. Mrs. Pearce came here a number of years ago with her family from Idaho, where she had previously made her home, and where she had graduated from the University of Idaho at Moscow.

Reception for Brides

Six young women of the Presbyterian church who were married this past year, or who are to be married in the coming months, were guests of honor yesterday afternoon at a delightful reception and tea given by the Women's society of the Presbyterian church in the Pioneer room at 4 o'clock. These young women who were honored were Mrs. Don Glendinning, nee Miss Grace Hage; Mrs. Schutter of Marion, nee Miss Viola Smith, and the Misses Wilda May O'Neil, Agnes Oatback, Mary Alice Copley and Jean Bennett.
An attractive program had been arranged, and featured first, a waltzing march with six young girls in lovely picture costumes, carrying a wedding march played by Miss Nancy Elliot, at the piano, Edmond King, on the cello and Charles Dornsey, on the violin. The young girls presented each guest of honor with a lovely card, and then took their places behind the chair of each guest. The young girls in the wedding march were: Sidney Houtz, Dorothy Orser, Cleora Thorn, Maryjane Thompson, Betty Hall and Joyce Keiffman.

Miss Cleo First, accompanied by Miss Irene Marston at the piano, rendered two lovely vocal solos which were very much appreciated by everyone. The following number was a fairy ballet with Helen Hixon, Barbara Edwards, Daisy Barrows, Lois Dye, Donna Brinsonell, Kathryn Kore and Mary Rita Rose. Mrs. Layla Rose accompanying at the piano. After their dance, the little girls gave a clever poem and pantomime, then presented each of the brides and brides-to-be with a handsome gift.
After the program, the brides received their friends and an informal social time was held, and tea enjoyed. Those who presided at the table, which was attractively appointed and centered with pink and yellow arrangements, were Mrs. Eugene Poole and Mrs. Charles Dickson. Many bouquets of spring garden flowers decorated the Pioneer room. A large crowd of friends attended this enjoyable function.

Announcement Party
Mr. and Mrs. George Harder announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Dorothy, to Lorrain Waring of Bigfork. The marriage is to take place in the near future.

An announcement dinner was given for them on Sunday at 6 o'clock at the Young Tea Room, with nine of the closest friends of the couple present. The table where the dinner was served was beautiful in its appointments and was laid with a lovely hand-made opera lace cloth. Tall pink tapers and a centerpiece of pink tulips graced the table and at each corner were individual pink favors. Announcement of the marriage was made in a clever way, for at each guest's place was a miniature book, and in it the photographs of the young couple. Lovely in its setting of glass, and with little pink bouquets trimming it, the cake was the center of attraction. Miss Harder cut the cake and served each of her guests.

After the dinner, which was served by Mrs. Edna Bernard, the group enjoyed a theater party.

Harder-Waring Wedding
The wedding of Miss Dorothy Harder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Harder of Kootenai, and Lorrain Waring, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Waring of Bigfork, took place Sunday afternoon, March 4, at 2:30 o'clock at the Harder home on Sixth avenue east.

At the appointed hour, Miss Hazel Yopic sang "Love Comes Calling," then in the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Thelma Waring, sister of the groom, the bridal party entered, led by the Rev. Charles Wilson, who took his place under the bower of smiles, which was banked with rubber trees and ferns.

At either side of the bower were end-tables, on which were placed tall pink tapers in crystal candle holders. Huge bundles of Laidle carnations and plumerias were banked at either side of the bower and in front of the bower was a white satin kneeling cushion.

The bride and groom, and the bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Marsh and the best man, Robert Robinson, knelt before the bower. The ring service was read and at the close of the Episcopal wedding ceremony, Miss Hazel Yopic sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride was most attractive in a gown of white crepe and a veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Drier Cliff roses and maiden hair ferns, tied with a maline bow. The bridesmaid's dress was of blue chafon and she wore silver slippers with H. Her flowers were a lot of pink sweet peas and forget-me-nots.

Following the ceremony, a delightful wedding luncheon was served to the 56 invited guests. On the dining room table covered with a lace cloth was a wedding cake, decorated with ruscias and forget-me-nots. The background for the cake was a huge cut-glass bowl of Laidle carnations and plumerias.

The young couple left by auto for a short trip. The traveling dress of the bride was a blue wool crepe. The bride and groom wore the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Waring are both seniors in Flathead County high school and are respectively, president and secretary of the student council. Mr. Waring was also captain of the 1934 basketball team, and has been prominent in athletic activities.
