C. W. JENNISON OF ROCKY BAR-O RANCH
DIES AFTER ILLNESS

Charles Wesley Jennison of the Rocky Bar-O ranch passed away in Kalispell last evening. Mr. Jennison was 77 years of age and retired from active business about 19 years ago.

He formerly engaged in the flour-milling business in North Dakota, where he pioneered. He had made his home in Minneapolis and Portland and came to the Flathead five years ago to live on the east shore of Flathead lake.

The body is at the Waggener & Campbell funeral home and service arrangements are incomplete.

JENNISON RITES TO BE TOMORROW

Funeral rites for C. W. Jennison will be held at the Episcopal church in Kalispell tomorrow, July 20, at 6 o'clock in the evening.

Funeral rites for C. W. Jennison were held Saturday at the Episcopal church in Kalispell. Mr. Jennison passed away July 17 after a short illness. He had always led an active life and the end came as he would have wished without any long period of helplessness or lingering illness. The community regrets the loss of a respected citizen and extends sincere sympathy to his widow and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jennison and sons, Jack and King, of Portland Oregon, arrived at Rocky Bar last week. They were called here by the illness of their father and grandfather, C. W. Jennison.

Alfred Jennison of Williston, North Dakota, came over to attend the funeral services for his father, C. W. Jennison. He returned home Sunday evening. Other Williston people who were present at the services were Mrs. Sid Creasor, Mrs. W. S. Davidson and son, Tom, and William Overson.
