Mosley Ray Stanley Fox Florence May marriage 27 Jun 1935 pg 12

Miss Florence Fox Weds
 A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tucker at Polson, on Saturday morning, June 22, at 9 o'clock, when Miss Florence May Fox became the bride of Ray Stanley Mosley. The ceremony took place under an arch of mock orange blossoms and the simple but impressive service was given by the Rev. L. N. Field of the Bethlehem Lutheran church of Kalispell, in the presence of only the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tucker, sister and brother-in-law of the groom, A. P. Fox, brother of the bride, and Mrs. Elsie Langdon. The bride wore a floor-length gown of peach colored crepe with a cape of raffia silk organza of a matching shade, and carried an arrangement of white roses, mock orange blossoms and peach colored columbine, tied with a huge yellow bow. The matrons of honor wore blue crepe and tiered crepe and had shoulder bouquets of flowers of harmonizing colors. Immediately following the ceremony, refreshments were served to about 25 guests, after which the bride and groom left for Townsend, Montana, where Mr. Mosley is employed with Lobnitz Bros., contractors. Mrs. Mosley is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fox, absent residents of the Flathead, and she graduated from Flathead county high school with the class of 1925. For the past several years, she has been employed in the office of Dr. L. A. Harris. Mr. Mosley received his education at Polson and has been engaged in road construction work since 1923. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mosley wish them a long and happy married life.

Murdo Edwin Little Florence marriage 8 Aug 1935 pg 9

THREE MARRIAGES BY DECLARATION IN THIS COUNTY

To date three marriages by declaration have been filed with Clerk of the Court here.

The first was on July 24, when Ella Buchman and Gustaf Schmidt declared their intention of becoming man and wife before A. D. Stillman, who prepared the contract, and affixed his seal to the document.

The next marriage occurred August 2, Leonia Johnson and Ray W. Busch being the principals. C. S. Baldwin took their acknowledgement and sent them on their way rejoicing.

The third was yesterday when Mr. Stillman again performed the necessary legal services for Florence Little and Edwin Murdo.

The contract merely gives the names and addresses of the principals, and contains a statement that they accept all the obligations of the marriage contract. This is certified to before a notary public, and filed with the clerk of court.

There may have been other contract marriages in this county, but if so, they have not yet been recorded at the court house.

Nixon Donald Donaldson Mae Belle marriage 24 Dec 1935 pg 8

Donaldson-Nixon

At an impressive holiday wedding ceremony performed at 10 o'clock this morning at the J. W. Donaldson home, Miss Mae Belle Donaldson only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Donaldson, became the bride of Donald Nixon, son of E. B. Nixon.

An improvised altar, banked with greenery and lighted by tall red supports in candleabra, formed the setting before which the marriage vows were taken. The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold C. Stark of the First Presbyterian church.

Preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Jean Elliot, the bride descended the stairway as Mrs. H. E. Robbins played the Wedding March from the organ. The groom was attended by Alton Pearce.

The bride made a charming picture in a white satin gown, designed with a coral neckline and long train. She wore a short veil and carried a bouquet of white lilies combined with bits of Scottish heather.

The maid of honor was gowned in a periwinkle blue georgette with iver jacket. She carried a bouquet of red roses. Little Louise Wilkes, niece of the groom, wore white, as in train bearer.

After the ceremony Mrs. Robbins,

After the ceremony, Mrs. Robbins, pianist, and Mrs. H. A. Thon, violinist, furnished a background of music for the reception which was attended by the relatives and close friends of the bride and groom. The bride cut the tall wedding cake for her friends.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nixon attended Flathead county high school. Mrs. Nixon is a graduate of the University of Idaho, where she was affiliated with Pi Delta Phi, social society. For the past two years she has been a member of the faculty of the Kalispell grade schools.

They left this afternoon on a wedding trip to the west coast and after their return, will make their home at 226 Third avenue east.

Caroline Wilkes, niece of the groom, received the guests, who included relatives and classmates of the young couple. Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hoyt, Mary Hove and Mr. and Mrs. F. S. McClintock of Whitefish; Mrs. Laura Kluss of Sumner and Miss May Falkner of San Diego, California.

Norden Roy Picha Alla Mae marriage 23 Oct 1935 pg 8

Picha-Norden

One of the prettiest home weddings of the fall season was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Picha at 6:30 Tuesday evening, when their daughter, Alla Mae, became the bride of Ray Norden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Norden.

Rev. H. W. Hanson of the West Side M. E. church read the impressive ring ceremony.

Miss Eva Picha, sister of the bride, and Elmer Norden, brother of the groom, attended the couple.

The bride was beautifully gowned in royal blue tulle, velvet, ankle length, with which she wore silver accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses, lilies of the valley and fern, and she wore a wrist watch, the gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid was attired in an ankle length frock of blue crepe and wore a corsage of pink baby's breath.

After the ceremony, a beautifully appointed wedding dinner was served with the bride's cake centering the table and white candles in silver candelabra, completing the details. Items were used in decorating the rooms of the Picha home.

The young couple left by motor for a wedding trip to Missoula and will return to Kalspell to make their home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Norden were educated in the best grade and high schools. Since her graduation from high school, Mrs. Norden has been employed in the office of the Kalspell Flour Mill. Mr. Norden is engaged as a contractor with his father.

Those who attended the wedding and dinner were: the bride's and groom's parents; two attendants; Mrs. John Seiden, grandmother of the groom; Miss Margaret Picha, sister of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Hanson, Rev. H. W. Hanson, and Mr. and Mrs. Gracie D. Baker and son, Gracioso J.

Nordtome Rueben Rustuen Anna marriage 16 Jul 1935 pg 8

Rustuen-Nordtome

Rueben Nordtome and Miss Anna Rustuen, both young people of the city, were married Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the home of the Rev. Lawrence N. Field.

The simple but impressive service was read by Rev. Field. The attendants were Mrs. Arne Groen, sister of the bride, and Melvin Nordtome, brother of the groom.

The bride looked charming in a mustard colored crepe ensemble and she carried a bridal bouquet of salmon roses. The matron of honor wore a white crepe gown with a shoulder bouquet. Following the nuptial ceremony, the wedding party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brazier where a delicious wedding breakfast was served. After a two weeks trip which will take them to Idaho and Yellowstone National park, they will make their home in Kalspell.

Norgard George O'Neil Margaret marriage 9 Nov 1935 pg 8

Norgard-O'Neil Nuptials

A wedding of charm and beauty was solemnized this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church when Miss Margaret O'Neil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. O'Neil of this city, became the bride of George Norgard, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Norgard of San Francisco.

Against a tiered background of fern and greenery, large baskets of yellow chrysanthemums had been placed, making the altar an artistic setting before which the marriage vows were taken. Two rows of candles, blue and white, flanked the altar.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold G. Stark of the First Presbyterian church.

A program of nuptial music was played by Miss Louise Hanger at the organ, and Mrs. D. A. Thon, violinist. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Hanger played "I Love You Truly" (Carrie Jacobs Bond), and Mrs. Thon played "Oh, Promise Me" (DeKoven), accompanied by Miss Hanger. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. G. Monroe Smith sang "Al Dwaning" (Cushman).

To the strains of Wagner's wedding march from Lohengrin, the bridal party entered the church, preceded by little Kathryn O'Neil, niece of the bride, as flower girl, who was dressed in a quaint yellow taffeta dress floor length. She wore a coronet of flowers and carried a gold basket of yellow flower petals, which she strewed along the aisle.

Miss Helen Bonde, who was maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of gold crepe and carried an arm bouquet of bronze chrysanthemums. She also wore a coronet of flowers. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was beautiful in her close-fitting gown of ivory satin, with princess lace yoke and skirt which formed a train. Her neckline lace cap extended in a point over the forehead, was edged with seedling pearls and had a coronet of beaded illusion. Her long veil of illusion, edged with lace, was attached to the cap by tiny orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of white chrysanthemums. Her only accessories were a set of rock crystals, a gift of the groom.

Master Ivan O'Neil, nephew of the bride, was the train bearer.

The groom was attended by Lloyd Jorgensen of Park Headquarters, DeWitt and Charles O'Neil, her cousins, were the ushers.

Mendelsohn's wedding march was played as the recessional.

A wedding luncheon honoring Mr. and Mrs. Norgard was served at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony for members of the bridal party, relatives and close friends. Yellow chrysanthemums placed effectively, a large wedding cake and lighted

O'Connell-Hollensteiner
A pronounced social event of the pre-Christmas season was the wedding of Miss Jean Hollensteiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hollensteiner, and Charles O'Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louie O'Connell of Marada, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Sunday at 12 o'clock noon.
Blue and silver predominated in the decorations used for the Christmas tree and for the fireplace, before which the vows were taken. Lighted tapers in candelabra flanking the artistic arrangement, completing the artistic arrangement.
The Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell of St. Matthew's church performed the marriage service, using the impressive ring ceremony.
To the strains of the Wedding March from Lehengrin, played by Miss Daisy DuBois, the bride descended the stairway, attended by her sister, Miss Ruth Hollensteiner, as maid of honor.
The groom, attended by his brother, Rodrick O'Connell, awaited them at the fireplace.

The bride was today in a white blue matelasse crepe gown which formed a slight train. She wore silver accessories and carried a shower bouquet of poinsettias. The maid of honor was attired in a frill of potentilla flower-petal crepe, with which she wore a harmonizing corsage.
Following the ceremony, a buffet luncheon was served to members of the bridal party, relatives and the few close friends who attended the ceremony.
Immediately after the luncheon the young couple left on a short wedding trip. They will return before Christmas to make their home in Kalspell.
For going away, Mrs. O'Connell wore a rust colored crepe ensemble with gold accessories.
Mrs. O'Connell, a prominent member of Kalspell's younger set, graduated from the local high school in 1928, after which she attended Montana State college for one year, where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority. She graduated from Cheney Normal in 1933 and has since been teaching at the Northside school in the city.
Mr. O'Connell graduated from Flathead county high school in 1928 and attended the University of Montana, where he was affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity.
Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Miss Ruth Stahl of Spokane, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Williams, Walter Williams and Russell Williams, of Polson, cousin of the bride, and Dr. and Mrs. Rodrick Henston of Lake McDonald, uncle and aunt of the groom.

yellow tapers in candelabra flanking the table ornaments. Mrs. C. D. O'Neil, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. C. W. Pomeroy presided at the luncheon. During the hour, Miss Frigg Lasek, accompanied by Miss Madeline Donaldson, entertained with appropriate songs. Miss Margaret Amshel cut and served the bride's cake.
Mr. and Mrs. Norgard left by motor for Missoula after the luncheon, from where they will go to San Francisco to make their home.

MARRIAGE LICENSES HAVE BEEN ISSUED TO Richard S. Greik of Rathbun and Katherine A. Marshall of Valier, Montana, and to Vern S. Peters of Havre and Alice K. Fournier of Kalispell.

Fournier-Peters

A lovely lawn wedding was solemnized yesterday at 11:30 at the Joe Hewitson home when Miss Alice Fournier, daughter of Mrs. Mary Wheeler of this city, became the bride of Vern Peters of Havre. Bruce Akins, Miss Eusey Bergstrom and Miss Marian Hewitson were the attendants.

The wedding vows were read under an arch built in the large shade tree. Flower baskets and flowers were bunched in front of the arch. Before the ceremony, John Hanger sang "I Love You Truly." As Miss Louise Hanger played Wagner's wedding march from "Lohengrin" the bride came out on the arm of her brother, Louis, who gave her in marriage. She was met in front of the arch by the groom and best man. She was followed by the two bridesmaids. Rev. Stark read the wedding ceremony.

The bride wore a white moire gown made on princess lines with a train. She wore a long white net veil with a fitted cap and she carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Bergstrom's gown was a peach silk crepe with white hat, gloves and slippers. She carried an arm bouquet of two-toned roses. Miss Hewitson was covered in a pale blue dress of silk crepe, white turban hat, gloves and slippers. She carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to sixteen relatives and close friends. The bridal party was seated at a table in the center of the room and other guests were seated at two small tables. A three tiered wedding cake was the equal decoration on the large table. Streamers were carried from the center of the room where three wedding bells were hung to pink and white nut cups. The breakfast was served by Dorothy Hewitson and Marian Wiley.

The couple left immediately after the breakfast on a wedding trip to the coast. The going away costume of the bride was a green swagger suit with brown accessories.

Mrs. Peters was graduated from the Deaconess hospital of Havre in 1922. She is also a graduate of Flathead high school. Mr. Peters attended the Havre high school and later operated the Pioneer Radio Shop in Havre.

The out of town guests to the wedding were: Mrs. Maude Peters, mother of the groom; Bruce Akins of Glacier Park; Eusey Bergstrom of Glasgow; Edmund Furlong and Miles Furlong of Chester and Marian Wiley of Rollins.

Saling Henry Reed Aimee engagement marriage 25 Nov 1935 pg 8
29 Nov 1935 pg 8

Engagement Announced
 One of the most important social events of the past week was the evening bridge given by Miss Aimee Reed on Friday evening at the E. G. Carlson home, when she announced her engagement to Henry Saling of Kalispell and Polson.

Bouquets of gold and white mums were arranged about the room. The same color theme was used in the luncheon which was served following the games. During the tushoon hour, the guests found cards at their places, announcing November 28 as the date set for the wedding.

Those who attended the delightful affair were: Mrs. Bert Saling, Sr., Mrs. Bert Saling, Jr., Mrs. E. G. Carlson, Mrs. Ida Marsh, Mrs. Eleanor Glynn, Mrs. Harry Keith, Mrs. D. W. Kottert, Mrs. Harry Dunham, Mrs. A. Paulsen, Mrs. Gregory Hebert, Mrs. Arthur Montgomery, Mrs. Walter Klabo, Mrs. Everett Swenson, Mr. Richard Baranum, Mrs. Kate Miller, Mrs. J. Bossey, Mrs. Jack Hebert, Mrs. C. D. Conrad, Mrs. Glen Berry, Mrs. Larry Barrow, Mrs. Carl Anderson, Miss Evelyn Ellis, Miss Margaret O'Connell, Miss Virginia Braunschweig, Miss Lucille Turk, Miss Linda Jane Brueckhauser, Miss Jean Holtenstein and the hostess.

Mrs. Dunham and Miss Holtenstein received some favors for the evening.

Reed-Saling Nuptials
 White and yellow chrysanthemums combined with mums, arranged against a background of greenery, adorned the fireplace in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert D. Saling, Sr., 38 Fifth avenue east, where Miss Aimee Reed, daughter of C. P. Reed, was married to Henry D. Saling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert D. Saling, Sr., Thursday evening, November 28, at 7 o'clock, Candelabra holding yellow lighted tapers flanked the baskets of flowers, forming the candlelight by which the vows were taken.

The Rev. Harold C. Stark of the First Presbyterian church read the service, at which the ring ceremony was used. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Bert D. Saling, Jr. sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harold C. Stark.

The bride was beautiful in her floor-length gown of sage-blue crepe mitchamse. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums, Miss Evelyn Ellis, who was maid of honor, was attired in a dress of raspberry lovely-baby crepe and wore a corsage of roses and sweet peas.

As the bride descended the stairway, preceded by her maid of honor, Mrs. Stark played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The guests, attended by his brother, Bert D. Saling, Jr., awaited them at the foot of the stairway from where the bridal party proceeded to the fireplace.

The rooms of the Saling home were beautifully decorated with bouquets and standards of white and yellow mums and chrysanthemums for the ceremony and buffet-supper which followed. The bride's table, at which the wedding party was seated, was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of yellow mums which was flanked by four lighted yellow tapers in crystal holders. A wedding cake graced the end of the table at which the bride was seated.

Thirty-five guests attended the wedding and supper, included among them being Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Saling of Eureka, uncle and aunt of the groom.

Mrs. Saling is one of Kalispell's most charming young women, having graduated from the local high school in 1928, after which she taught for some time before accepting her position with the Anderson Style Shop.

Mr. Saling, also a graduate of the local high school with the class of 1928, attended the University of Minnesota where he was affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa, social fraternity.

The fianquishing ceremony, which united the two prominent young people, was the culmination of a high school romance.

After a short wedding trip, they will make their home in Polson where Mr. Saling is with the sales department of the Campbell Chevrolet company.

For going away, Mrs. Saling wore a green ensemble with matching accessories.

Schmidt Gustaf Buehman Ella marriage 8 Aug 1935 pg 9

THREE MARRIAGES
BY DECLARATION
IN THIS COUNTY

To date three marriages by declaration have been filed with Clerk of the Court Voss.

The first was on July 24, when Ella Buehman and Gustaf Schmidt declared their intention of becoming man and wife before A. D. Stillman, who prepared the contract, and affixed his seal to the document.

The next marriage occurred August 2, Leonia Johnson and Ray W. Duseh being the principals. C. S. Baldwin took their acknowledgments and sent them on their way rejoicing.

The third was yesterday when Mr. Stillman again performed the necessary legal services for Florence Little and Edwia Murdo.

The contract merely gives the names and addresses of the principals, and contains a statement that they accept all the obligations of the marriage contract. This is certified to before a notary public, and filed with the clerk of court.

There may have been other contract marriages in this county, but if so, they have not yet been recorded at the court house.

Strassburg-Lyford.
Miss Catherine Lyford of Kalspell and Rudolph Strassburg of Kalspell were quietly married at the Bethlehem Lutheran parsonage, Sunday afternoon, October 29, by Rev. L. N. Field.
The bride wore a lovely gown of dark brown velvet, with a shoulder bouquet of pink rosebuds and sweet peas. The house had been prettily decorated for the event with autumn leaves and flowers. The impressive ring ceremony was used.
Mr. and Mrs. Strassburg left immediately on a honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast. Upon their return they will be at home to their many friends on First avenue west in Kalspell.

Struckman Robert Tod Bonde Helen M marriage 27 Dec 1935 pg 8

Struckman-Bonde
 At a beautiful ceremony performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bonde at 3 o'clock this afternoon, their daughter, Helen M., became the bride of Robert Tod Struckman of White Sulphur Springs, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Struckman of Valier.
 The Rev. Harold C. Stark of the First Presbyterian church read the impressive ring service.
 A background of cedar boughs, holly and poinsettias was arranged between two silvery Christmas trees, with tall lighted tapers forming the candlelight by which the vows were taken.
 Miss Carol Bonde, younger sister of the bride as maid of honor, preceded the bride down the aisleway to the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March played by Mrs. W. K. Heaman. Following the ceremony, Mrs. Arthur Overly sang, "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Heaman.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white satin, with which she wore a long veil. She carried an arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums.
 The maid of honor was attired in blue crepe and wore a corsage of Christmas cactus. Lewis Stoenland of Big Timber attended the groom.
 Congratulations were extended the young couple preceding their serving of tea. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of poinsettias, flanked by lighted red tapers. Miss Mary Louise Gaudier posed and Miss Eriye Ellis cut the bride's cake. Mrs. G. Monroe Smith, the bride's sister, sang "God Save the King," accompanied by Mrs. Doaman.
 Mrs. Struckman, one of Kallispell's lovely young women, attended Flathead county high school and graduated from the North Dakota State Teachers' college. She has been teaching in the Kallispell grade schools for over two years.
 Mr. Struckman is a graduate of the University of Montana and is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon social fraternity. He is a writer of short stories and has contributed to Esquire, Fiction Parade, Household and other magazines.
 Mr. and Mrs. Struckman will make their home in White Sulphur Springs, where Mr. Struckman has a position in the high school.

Weldin Nathaniel Raymond Bates Dorothy marriage 12 Sep 1935 pg 12

Dorothy Bates Marries
The following is taken from an Ellenburg, Washington, paper, telling of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Bates, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. B. Scott Bates, former residents of Kalispell;
"In the Presbyterian church, in the presence of about 75 guests, the marriage of Miss Dorothy Bates, to Hazmond Weldin of Idaho, was solemnized Saturday, August 31st, at 3 o'clock with the bride's father, the Rev. B. Scott Bates, reading the single ring service.
The bride was lovely in a white princess crepe, floor length gown with a high collar and puffed sleeves and white elbow length gloves. On her head she wore a matching turban and she carried a shower bouquet of white rose buds, wax-rosas and fern tied with satin streamers. The maid of honor, Miss J. Mae Chambers of Tacoma, wore ecru chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink snapdragons and larkspur. The bride's bridesmaid, Miss Marie Weldin of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Richard Bates, were room chiffon and pale pink lace and carried bouquets of pink snapdragons and larkspur. The best man was Richard Bates, brother of the bride, and ushers were W. M. Brown and K. O. Boleh.

"The ceremony was read before an altar and rostrum, which were flanked with evergreen and bouquets of white, pink and orchid gladioli, flanked on either side by tall candles.
"The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Mrs. E. A. Anderson, and Mrs. Claude Catlin sang "Bless This Home."
"Little Richard Bates, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.
"Following the marriage service a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, for about 20 guests, including immediate relatives and close friends.
"About the rooms, cosmos, sweet-peas, and gladioli in a color scheme of pink, lavender and white were arranged. The bride's table was lovely with a lace cloth and a center piece of pink and white gladioli and at either end slender lighted pink tapers.
"Mrs. E. O. Boleh presided at the coffee urn, Mrs. W. M. Brown cut the bride's cake and Miss Sidney Davis and Miss Tonia Johanson served the guests.
"Mrs. Claude Catlin sang, accompanied by Mrs. E. A. Anderson.
"Immediately after the reception Mr. and Mrs. Weldin left for a short wedding trip to the coast. They will return here September 3 and expect to make their home near Malin September 4. For going away Mrs. Weldin was charming in a brown crepe dress with matching accessories and a tan travel coat. She wore a shoulder corsage of brown roses and fern.
"Mrs. Weldin is a graduate of the Flathead county high school, at Kalispell, Mont., and later received her A. B. degree in English from the University of Montana. She has taught in the Ellenburg high school for the past six years. Mr. Weldin is a graduate of the State College at Pullman, and operates a wheat farm near Malin, Wash."
