

Adams Earl M Saunders Louise marriage 6 Jul 1935 pg 8

Miss Louise Saunders
Marries New England Man
In a very pretty garden wedding at Readfield, Maine, Sunday, June 23, Miss Louise Saunders became the bride of Earl Marshall Adams of Manchester, N. H. Mrs. Adams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Saunders, former residents of Kalspell. Mr. Adams is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams of Manchester, N. H.
The garden of the Saunders home was very beautifully decorated with seasonal flowers and potter greens. The ceremony took place in the garden on a shaded knoll which was banked with potted ferns and palms. Colored umbrellas dotted the lawn where the guests were assembled. The bride's gown was of white mouseline de soie; she wore a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bridal bouquet of white roses and lily-of-the-valley. Mrs. Abbot Smith, III, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore blue mouseline de soie and carried cinnamon colored gladioli. Miss Anna Van Stinson was bridesmaid and wore pink mouseline de soie and carried gladioli. Little Miss Gloria Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cole of Lewiston, acted as flower girl and wore pink taffeta. The bridegroom was attended by Lieut. Willard Saunders, a brother of the bride.

Albert I. Oliver, Jr. of Lewiston played the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin and the double ring service was performed by Mr. Oliver's father, Rev. A. I. Oliver, D. D.
Miss Inez Ramsdell of Lewiston had charge of the guest book and her sister, Miss Alice Ramsdell, of the gift room.
A reception followed immediately after the ceremony with about 100 guests present. The bride's gifts to the matron of honor and the bridesmaid were white gold vanity cases. The color scheme in the dining room was green and white, the colors of the Kappa Delta society, of which the bride is a member.
Mrs. Adams attended both the grade schools and Falstead county high school in Kalspell. She is a graduate of New Hampshire State university. Mr. Adams is a graduate of Manchester high school and also of New Hampshire State university. He is a member of the Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity and an honorary member of Delta Chi.
The bride's going-away costume was a pink knitted suit with white accessories.
After a "short" wedding trip, at which time they will visit Annapolis, the young couple will return to spend the summer with Mrs. Adams' family at Readfield and will be at home in the fall in Manchester, where the groom is teacher of chemistry and mathematics in the Manchester high school.

Busch Ray W Johnson Leonia marriage 8 Aug 1935 pg 9

THREE MARRIAGES BY DECLARATION IN THIS COUNTY

To date three marriages by declaration have been filed with Clerk of the Court Voss.

The first was on July 24, when Ella Buchman and Gustaf Schmidt declared their intention of becoming man and wife before A. D. Stillman, who prepared the contract, and affixed his seal to the document.

The next marriage occurred August 2, Leonia Johnson and Ray W. Busch being the principals. C. S. Baldwin took their acknowledgments and sent them on their way rejoicing.

The third was yesterday when Mr. Stillman again performed the necessary legal services for Florence Little and Edwin Murdo.

The contract merely gives the names and addresses of the principals, and contains a statement that they accept all the obligations of the marriage contract. This is certified to before a notary public, and filed with the clerk of court.

There may have been other contract marriages in this county, but if so, they have not yet been recorded at the court house.

Curtis Marlin Novak Dorothy shower 23 Nov 1935 pg 8

Bride and Groom Honored
Seventy-five friends and neighbors assembled at the Fenberg Hall Friday evening in honor of the newly married Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Curtis. The hostesses were Misses Gayle and Carmel Martin and Janet Parsons.
A buffet luncheon in charge of Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Hammoth, was served. All those present attested to the quality and appealing variety of the wonderfully well planned lunch, and showered unstinted praise on the ladies in charge.
The display of many beautiful and useful gifts gave evidence of the popularity of these young people.
The bride, formerly Dorothy Novak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Novak, has always lived here—attending high school in Kallispell and Columbia Falls. Marlin Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Curtis, is a graduate of Kallispell high school with the class of '32.
Cards and dancing with vocal and instrumental music made the evening a very pleasant one. And the hearty congratulations and many good wishes expressed revealed the esteem in which these two young people are held.
Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Curtis are making their home in the new residence recently built for them at the new Curtis Tourist Park.

Donaldson Frank Thomas MacDonald Margaret Nell marriage 9 Jan 1935 pg 8

Margaret MacDonald Weds
Friends of the T. H. MacDonald family in this city have received details of the wedding of Miss Margaret MacDonald, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. T. H. MacDonald former well known Kallispell residents, now of Helena.
One of the Helena papers carried the following account of the wedding, which occurred on December 29:
With St. Peter's pro-cathedral softly lighted with red candles and decorated with Christmas foliage, the marriage of Miss Margaret Nell MacDonald and Frank Thomas Donaldson was solemnized this afternoon at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Dean Henry H. Danald.
As the guests assembled, Miss Helen McClatchey, organist, played "Campane Nuptiale," by DalBois; "Canzone Amoreosa" by Nevin; "At Dawning" by Colman, and "Liebestraum" by Liszt, followed by the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, as the bridal party, led by Huss and John MacDonald, brother of the bride, and ushers, entered the church. Little Mary Lou MacDonald, sister of the bride, in a quaint long dress and bonnet of green organdy, was a flower girl. She was followed by Mrs. Henry Secret of Whitehall, matron of honor. Entering with her father, the bride was a lovely picture in her gown of ivory satin, worn with a tulle veil and a cap of real lace. Her shower bouquet was of white roses and lilies of-the-valley. William Mills was Mr. Donaldson's best man. After the ceremony a reception for more than 100 guests was held at the bride's home on North Heaton avenue. A simple arrangement of white calla lilies in a silver bowl, with tall white candles in silver holders, decorated the bride's table.

Mrs. Donaldson, who has made a wide circle of friends since coming to Helena six years ago from Kallispell, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. MacDonald. She graduated from Flathead county high school in 1927, and attended the University of Montana, where she affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She later went to the Chicago Medical College for voca study.
Mr. Donaldson, who is a well known Helena young man, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donaldson of Kewwood. He is a graduate of Montana State College at Bozeman and took post-graduate work at the University of Minnesota. He is a research chemist, and at present is assistant professor of experimental chemistry at Montana State College. He and Mrs. Donaldson will make their home on south Sixth street in Bozeman.

Gregg Percy Fenner Roberta marriage 15 Jul 1935 pg 8

Fenner-Gregg
A pretty wedding ceremony was performed at the Christian church yesterday at 1 o'clock when Miss Roberta Fenner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fenner of this city became the bride of Percy Gregg, also of this city. Miss Elsmor Munter and Melvin Hansman were the attendants.
Before the ceremony, John Hanger sang "I Love You Truly." As Mrs. Laura Carr played Wagner's wedding march from "Lohengrin" the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom and best man. The ring was carried by little Tommy Fenner in a rose bud. The wedding party stood in front of the altar, which was flanked with baskets of flowers and ferns. The wedding vows were read by Rev. Walter Sardy. Miss Marian Howison and Lois Wheeland were the ushers. They carried arm bouquets of mixed flowers.

The bride's wedding dress was of white moire made in fitted lines and flared at the bottom, with large sleeves which fitted tightly at the wrist. She wore a coronet of pink sweet peas and carried a bridal bouquet of pink rose buds and sweet peas. Miss Munter was gowned in a simple dress of green organdie and wore a flower corsage at her waist.
After the ceremony an informal wedding dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Munter. The couple left afterwards for a trip to Waterton Lake.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Gregg attended the public schools of Kalamazoo. Mr. Gregg is employed at the Hoover-Gregg service station on North Main. After their wedding trip, they will be at home in the Sausser apartments on Main Street.

Hammer Louie Woodcock Elizabeth marriage 28 May 1935 pg 3

MARRIAGE LICENSE SECURED IN 4988 USED LAST WEEK
That securing a marriage license does not constitute marriage was found out by Louie Hammer and Elizabeth Woodcock, two Indians from near Alee. In 1928 the couple appeared at the office of the clerk of court here and secured a license to wed, thinking that was all of the requirements in the matter of becoming man and wife. Last week, officers at the agency, in checking up, found that no ceremony had ever been performed and the couple were brought to the city and the marriage ceremony was performed by Mayor Cline. The fact that it was belated marriage, the mayor refused the usual fee for his services, saying he needed the practice.—Flathead Cour., etc.

Hockley Oliver Close Mildred marriage 30 Nov 1935 pg 8

Close-Hockley

At a beautiful Thanksgiving ceremony performed in the chapel of the Sisters of Mercy hospital at 9 o'clock a. m., Miss Mildred Close became the bride of Oliver Hockley. The Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by close friends of the couple.

During the nuptial mass, appropriate music was rendered, including Mendelssohn's Wedding March, Ave Maria and O Cor Amoris.

The bride was lovely in her Renaissance gown of white crepe normale, the skirt of which formed a train. She wore a gold mesh cap and gold mesh belt. Her bridal bouquet was of rosebuds and forget-me-nots.

Miss Helen Hart, as maid of honor, was attired in a frock of black velvet, trimmed with silver metallic, with which she wore a silver hula hat and a wrist corsage of roses and sweet peas.

The groom was attended by Franz Robbehou.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the hospital dining room, after which the young couple left for a wedding trip to the coast.

The bride wore a brown travelling suit for going away.

Mrs. Hockley, the step-daughter of Sam Hillborn, attended the University of California and later took post-graduate work in New York. For the past six years she has been anesthesiologist in the offices of Drs. Conway, Cookrell and Moore.

Mr. Hockley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hockley of Cathay, North Dakota. He attended school at Jamestown, North Dakota and took an engineering course in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hockley will make their home in Kallispell, where Mr. Hockley is associated with radio station KGGZ.

Announce Engagement Of Daughter, And Coming Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Marken announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Irene, to John W. Leslie of this city. The wedding will take place June 21 at the home of the bride.
Miss Marken has just returned from Seattle, where she was employed on the teaching staff of the city schools. Several social affairs were held in her honor by teachers of the Bryant school where she taught, and also by her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sorrent, who entertained for her.

Marken-Leslie
A lovely summer wedding was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock last evening when Miss Irene Marken, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Marken, became the bride of John W. Leslie, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie of Missoula.
The Rev. Lawrence Field of the Bethlehem Lutheran church officiated at the ceremony. An altar had been made, and it was decked with huge baskets of pink peonies and white daisies and the same color scheme was used throughout the rooms in the decorations. The attendants were Miss Doris Marbon, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, and D. W. Neffert, the best man.
The Mendocino Wedding March was played by Mrs. D. W. Neffert, and Mrs. George Glenshaw sang "I Love You Truly" just before the bride entered the room. She was given in marriage by her father.
The bride was a most attractive picture in her wedding gown of white net over tulle with short train. She wore a little esp, which was decorated with the traditional orange blossoms, and her veil was knee-length. She carried a colonial nosegay of roses, sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley. Her sister carried a bouquet of pink gladiolus and stocks.
After the wedding, light refreshments were served to the 36 out-of-town relatives and close friends who were present. The refreshment table was beautifully covered with a large decorated wedding cloth and tall pink tapers. The couple left on a short wedding trip, and after June 24, will be at home to their friends at 241 Third avenue east. They were the recipients of many lovely wedding gifts.

Relatives and guests from a distance who attended the wedding, were, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Leslie of Missoula, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. McKenzie and daughters, Jean and Carlisle of Missoula, and Leonard Maxey and George Scott, both of Missoula.
Mrs. Leslie was born and reared in Kalispell, and graduated from Flathead county high school in 1929. She recently returned from Seattle, where she taught at the Bryant grade school, and where she made many friends during her stay there. She was formerly a member of the Somers school staff, and taught there for three and a half years, teaching music as a specialty. She is a graduate of Cheney Normal school, Cheney, Wash. of the class of 1931. She also attended a summer session of the University of Minnesota. The groom is a Missoula boy, and has made many friends since coming to Kalispell. He has charge of the wholesale Shell Oil plant for the Wallace-McKenzie company. He attended the University of Montana where he was affiliated with Kappa Sigma social fraternity.
