CLOYD J. CROSSLEY

Funeral services for Cloyd J. Crossley were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel, by Rev. Harold C. Stark, of the Presbyterian church.

During the services Mrs. Gratia Roe, Mrs. W. E. Beaman, A. Dunsire and John A. Coons sang two selections, accompanied at the piano by Thomas Sanford. Friends acting as pall bearers were: Arthur Papendick, H. C. Cornellinson, Thomas Kuhns, Edward Rodgers, James Bain, and Harry Wendt. Interment was made in the family lot in Spring Creek cemetery.

Obituary

Cloyd J. Crossley was born March 7, 1855 at Lima, Ohio, and died September 8, 1935 at his home in Kalispell. He was 80 years of age at the time of death.

In 1875 Mr. Crossley was married to Miss Caroline Bechtol. Five children were born, of whom the eldest and the youngest are deceased.

Between 1886 and 1889 the family lived in Cadillac, Michigan, where Mrs. Crossley owned and conducted a retail meat market. They then moved to Dillon, Montana, and in 1891 came to the Flathead valley. They settled at Demersville, and Mr. Crossley assisted in moving the buildings of the town to the Kalispell townsite. He was also present at the ceremony of the Great Northern railway's coming to the valley, when Mrs. Kimmerly drove the silver spike.

It was after the family had moved to California in 1903 that Mrs. Caroline B. Crossley died. Soon after Mr. Crossley returned to his Flathead valley ranch northwest of Kalispell. In 1908 he was married to Miss Phebe E. Lyman of this city. They lived on the home ranch until 1927 and have since lived at their home in the city.

Mr. Crossley leaves to mourn his death his widow and three children: Mrs. Fred L. Null, R. B. Crossley, both of Kalispell; and Harry E. Crossley of Missoula. There are also 10 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.
