Obituary

Doshie C. Smith was born in Highland county, Ohio, on the 5th of January 1862. While a young child, her parents moved to Fayette county, Ohio, where she was educated in the public schools. On July 27, 1882, she was married to Fremont N. Haines. At this time they established their home at Upland, Indiana. There their six children were born. In the year 1901, the family moved to Kalispell, where Mr. Haines entered upon his duties as Supervisor of the National Forest which had just been established and the family have made their home here ever since.

Mrs. Haines passed away at her home at Kila, on May 9th, 1935, at the age of 73 years. She had been married almost 53 years. Two of her children preceded her in death—a daughter, Laura, who died at Upland, Indiana, October 4th, 1894, at the age of 5 years; and a son, Charles M. Haines, who died at Oakland, California, on November 16, 1933, at the age of 49 years.

She is survived by her husband and four children, Roscoe H. Haines, of Bonner, Mrs. Blanche Walchli of Kalispell, Mrs. Leta Wells of Whitefish, and Fred S. Haines, of San Marino, California, and five grandchildren.

Those who knew her best loved her most for her motherly qualities, and the kindness and gentleness with which she at all times treated her friends and the members of her family.

JOHN HALL

Funeral services for John Hall, Sr., were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. William F. Koehler of the Methodist church.

Officers and members of the Columbia Falls Masonic lodge attended in a body and conducted services at the grave in Conrad Memorial cemetery, led by Past Master Sam Brock. During the chapel service, Henry Lokensgard and Burt Carr each sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Laura Carr. The chapel was filled by the many friends and there was an abundance of beautiful flowers banked high about the casket. Friends acting as pall bearers were Archie Peterson, Earl Hollister, Calvin Robinson, John McKain, A. Dunsire and Edward Neitzling.

Obituary

John Hall, son of Robert and Elizabeth Hall, was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, June 21, 1860.

In 1882 Mr. Hall came to America and at first settled in Duluth, Minnesota, where he worked at his trade as a carpenter. He later settled on a homestead near Valley, N. D. Seven years later he returned to Scotland and on February 2, 1890, was married to Miss Julian Leithhead. To them were born four children, three sons, and a daughter who died in infancy.

Mr. Hall brought his bride to Helena, Montana, where they resided for a time, moving in the spring of 1890 to Columbia Falls, which at that time, previous to the coming of the railroad, was mostly a city of tents. Mr. Hall, as a master carpenter, built and assisted in the building of many permanent homes and business houses, including the Gaylord hotel and the Talbot home.

From 1900 to 1904 Mr. Hall was associated with Pat McCarty in operating a sawmill. In 1906 the family moved to the farm home five miles south of Columbia Falls, where he had since resided.

Mr. Hall was very active in Masonry. He became a member of Columbia Falls lodge No. 89, A. F. & A. M., in 1914 and was worshipful master of that order in 1923, being always a faithful and enthusiastic member.

He passed away at his home on July 8, 1935, at the age of 75 years.

Mr. Hall is survived by his wife and two sons, John W., and Oliver C., living near Columbia Falls. The eldest son, Robert E., passed away in May, 1919, just after having returned from active service in France during the World war.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to sincerely thank our friends for the many acts of kindness extended to us in our recent bereavement. We are especially thankful for the music, the cars and the flowers, and for the services of Rev. Koehler and the Masonic lodge.

Signed: Mrs. Julian Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Hall, Mrs. Lizzie Yorbo.

MRS. JULLIAN L. HALL

Funeral services for Mrs. Jullian L. Hall were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Walter H. Sandy of Central Christian church. During the services Henry K. Lokensgard and Earl Carr each sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Earl Carr. Members of Estella Pomeroy Chapter, Order of Eastern Star of Columbia Falls, attended in a body and conducted services at the grave side in Contra Memorial cemetery. Friends acting as pall bearers were Cal Robinson, Earl Hollister, James Burne, Robert Sturey, A. Dunsmire and P. Sheerran.

Obituary

Jullian Leithhead was born at Jedburg, Scotland, June 30, 1861. On February 6, 1890, she was married to John Hall, at Jedburg. In May they came to America, first making their home in Helena. In the spring of 1891 they moved to Columbia Falls, where they resided until 1906. They then moved to the ranch home five miles south of Columbia Falls, where they have since made their home.

Mrs. Hall was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, and of Estella Pomeroy Chapter No. 68, Order of Eastern Star, of Columbia Falls.

Mrs. Hall had been in failing health for the past five years. On September 10, she fell, being so severely injured that she failed rapidly and passed away Thursday, September 19, at 11:30 p. m., at the age of 74 years.

Mrs. Hall is survived by two sons, John W., and Oliver C., living near Columbia Falls, and a niece, Mrs.

Elizabeth Yarbo, of Spokane, who made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Hall for many years. Her eldest son, Robert E., passed away in May, 1919, just after having returned from France, where he was in active service during the World war. Mr. Hall passed away July 8, 1935.

She was a Gold Star Mother.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all who were so kind during our recent bereavement. Especially do we thank Rev. W. H. Sandy, the Order of Eastern Star, the Legion Auxiliary, all who sent flowers and furnished cars, and those who furnished the music at the service.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Hall, Mrs. Elizabeth Yarbo.

NORMAN HANSON

Memorial services for Norma Hanson were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the American Lutheran church in Whitefish by the pastor, Rev. Oliver Bergeland. During the services, Mrs. M. Sydness sang two selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. F. F. Larson. Many floral tributes were placed about the altar of the church and sorrowing friends filled the auditorium. The body was brought from Missoula Monday and taken to the Whitefish cemetery where committal services were held following the church service. Interment was under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Norman Maynard Hanson was born at Havre, Montana, April 25, 1912. He came to Whitefish as a lad with his parents and graduated from the high school there with the class of 1931. He was then employed by the Division Grocery and will be remembered by many as a member of Pete Miller's orchestra. Last fall he entered the State University at Missoula and was taken ill with scarlet fever a little over a week before his passing, which occurred December 21, 1936, at Missoula. He was 25 years of age. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hanson, and two brothers, Arnold and Donald, all of Whitefish.

Obituary

Wellington Harris Hardy was born February 22, 1866 in Sedalia, Missouri and passed away July 17, 1935 at the local hospital, after an illness of almost a year. He was 69 years of age.

Mr. Hardy was married in Broken Bow, Nebraska, to Ida Anna Paine, April 29, 1889. Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Geo. Arnett, of Marion; two sons, Carter G. Hardy, Marion and W. Claude Hardy of Glendive, Montana; a brother, William H. Hardy of Grant City, Missouri.

Mr. Hardy had resided at Marion for the past three years. He was a devoted Christian and member of the Methodist church, a kind husband and good father and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Wellington H. Hardy

The Pleasant Valley and Lost Prairie communities were saddened Wednesday morning on hearing that Wellington H. Hardy had passed away at the Sisters' hospital in Kalispell where he had been a patient for a week. Many know Mr. Hardy's condition was serious, the end came as a shock as he was apparently improving. He had been under a doctor's care several months with a heart ailment and until a week ago had lived in Los Prairie.

Mr. Hardy was born in Sedalia, Missouri, February 22, 1866, the youngest of six children. His mother died when he was nine years of age, where the family was living in Kansas. On reaching his 21st birthday he took up government land, in Western Nebraska and on April 29, 1889 was married to Miss Ida A. Paine at Broken Bow, Neb.

He came to Montana in 1891 and in 1894 took up a homestead near Forsyth, where he lived with his family for 35 years. In 1923 he and Mrs. Hardy moved to California and located in Sunnyside where he lived until failing health made it seem best to be near his children in Montana. He was very active up until the last three months when his health failed rapidly and he passed away July 17, 1935 at the age of 69 years.

Although Mr. Hardy had only lived here about three years he had made many friends who will miss him and long remember his unusually cheerful and kindly disposition as well as his ambitious nature in trying to be always helpful to others, always a faithful bible student, he took keen interest in the Sunday school here and will be missed by all with whom he came in contact.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his widow, Mrs. Ida A. Hardy, and three children, a daughter, Mrs. George Arnett of Marion, Mont., and Wellington C. of Glendive; three grandchildren and one brother, Wallace H. Hardy of Grant City Mo.

Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all those who so kindly helped us in our recent bereavement, the illness and death of our beloved father, Wellington H. Hardy.

We wish especially to thank the minister and those who sang, those who sent the beautiful flowers, and furnished cars and who helped in any way.

Signed: Mrs. Ida A. Hardy, Mr. and Mrs. George Arnett, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Hardy and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Claude Hardy and children.
