Driscoll Maurice Kelly Mary Frances marriage 18 Aug 1936 pg 8

Kelly-Driscoll

The great cathedral of the outdoors was the scene today of the marriage of Miss Mary Frances Kelly and Maurice Driscoll. The vows were exchanged before an altar set amid the towering pines on the lawn of the summer home of the bride's family with the shimmering waters of Swan Lake for a background.

Shadows cast by the noon sun through the trees enhanced the dignity of the nuptial mass celebrated by the Rev. Father Venus of Butte assisted by Rev. Father O'Farrell of Kalispell.

The wedding marked the high point of the season at the Swan Lake summer colony and was preceded by many delightful affairs given in honor of the popular young couple.

The bride, a beautiful and talented young woman, was given in marriage by her brother, Charles J. Kelly, Jr., of Minneapolis. She wore a gown of ice-green satin cut in flowing lines with a long train and a veil of pale green tulle, which contrasted with her auburn hair.

She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles J. Kelly, Jr., as maid of honor, and her cousin, Miss Kathryn Frazer of Butte, as maid of honor. The bridesmaids were the Misses Marie Driscoll of Washington, D. C., and Helen Driscoll of Kalispell, sisters of the groom. Master Charles J. Kelly, III, was train bearer.

The attendants were attired in striking costumes of varying tones of green, shading from the deep woods green of the bridesmaids' gowns to the pale green of the bridal gown. Mrs. Kelly, mother of the bride, wore white crepe with black accessories. The groom's mother, Mrs. Driscoll, wore blue and white chiffon and blue accessories.

Mr. Driscoll had for his best man his brother, Arthur Driscoll of Long Beach, California. The ushers were Clifford Carroddy of Kalispell, Robert D. Corlette of Butte and Lewis N. Evans of St. Paul.

After the ceremony a reception was held on the grounds of the Kelly home which was attended by over three hundred guests, relatives and friends of the young couple from Kalispell, Butte, and elsewhere.

The bridal couple are both members of prominent old Montana families. Mrs. Driscoll is the daughter of the late Charles J. Kelly and Mrs. Kelly of Butte. She was born and reared in Butte and was graduated from the Georgetown Visitation convent in Washington, D. C. Mr. Driscoll is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Driscoll of Kalispell. He graduated from the Flathead county high school and from the University of Montana at Missoula. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta and the honorary fraternity, Alpha Kappa Psi.

Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll departed for a trip through the Canadian Rockies and upon their return will make their home in Kalispell.

Lighthall-Gardiner

Amid the charm of autumn flowers and candlelight, Miss Katherine Lighthall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lighthall, became the bride of Earl W. Gardiner, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Gardiner, at noon today, the Rev. Milton Cookson officiating.

While guests were assembling at the Lighthall home Mrs. Marion Ford played a program of nuptial music, singing "I Love You Truly" just before the strains of the wedding music from "Lohengrin" announced the entrance of the wedding party, which progressed down the stairway and through an aisle in the living room marked with baskets of gladioli of pastel shades.

The vows were exchanged before an improvised altar in front of the fireplace where the decorative theme was a row of white candles banked on either side with clusters of white asters. The mellow light enhanced the loveliness of the bridal scene as little Miss Barbara Jean Bangeman, niece of the bride, led the procession as flower girl.

Miss Lighthall entered on the arm of her father. Her gown was a tunic afternoon dress in British tan trimmed in gold braid. She wore a corsage of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. Dan Bangeman, of Somers, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Earl Hanchett was best man.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the following relatives and friends of the couple: Messrs and Mesdames E. V. Gardiner, Henry Nollar, Marion Ford, George Rath, J. A. Bangeman, Fred Bangeman, and Dan Bangeman of Somers, C. B. Lighthall, and Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Cookson, Misses Irene Gardiner, Lorraine Bond, Barbara Jean Bangeman and Earl Hanchett.

White-Good

A lovely wedding of much interest to Kallispell friends was solemnized at the First Presbyterian church in Spokane Saturday, June 20, at 4 o'clock when Miss Nellie White became the bride of Chester Good, the ceremony being performed by Dr. Henry Barontic.

The bride was charming in a tunic suit of white crepe and lace with green accessories, and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and sweet-smilla.

Mrs. Robert Beam of Kallispell attended the wedding, attired in a suit of tangerine crepe with tan accessories. Her flowers were roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Good is the daughter of Mrs. Mada White of Kallispell, and a graduate of the Flathead county high school.

Mr. Good is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Good of Kallispell. He attended school at Sidney and is a graduate of the Bowman State college, and since then has taken advanced work in both California and Colorado.

For the past six years Mr. Good has been instructor at the Flathead county high school.

The bride's travelling suit was of gray, with gray and green accessories.

After a short honeymoon trip to Banff and Lake Louise, the happy young couple will return to Kallispell to make their home.

Gorton M Dale Nelson Altona license marriage 4 Jun 1936 pg 11
6 Jun 1936 pg 8

A marriage license has been issued to M. Dale Gorton of Kallepell and Miss Altona Nelson of Saskatoon, Alta.

Nelson-Gorton

The marriage of Miss Altona Lucila Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Nelson to M. Dale Gorton, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gorton was solemnized at high noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, 4 Woodland avenue, in the presence of about 40 relatives and close friends, Rev. H. B. Stark of the Presbyterian church officiating.

Miss Janet Nelson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Cecil Thorvilson, classmate of the groom, acted as best man, and the flower girl was Miss Lois, younger sister of the bride. Ed Pruthner received guests.

The ceremony was performed before an arch of greenery in the living room. Tall standards of white flowers lent charm to the arrangement where the vows were taken. Miss Louise Hanger provided at the piano and fortheprofessional played "The Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin." Miss Geraldine Gaswell sang "Oh Promise Me" by deKorva and "I Love You Truly," by Bond.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long, white satin gown cut on simple lines, the skirt extending in a short train. A crop of fine shirtings and long herald tail completed the costume. Her slippers were white and she carried a shower basket of gardenias, anemones, roses and maidenhair fern.

The maid of honor wore a floor-length white organza dress with matching accessories and a white corsage of somebody and forget-me-nots. The flower girl wore pink organza. Mrs. Nelson, mother of the bride, was attired in a navy blue chiffon dress with a corsage of roses. Mrs. Gorton, mother of the groom was becomingly attired in a rose-hedge afternoon dress with a corsage of bougainville worn at the high neckline. Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Gorton, grandmothers of the newly weds wore street dresses and corsages of sweet peas and roses.

The ceremony was followed by an informal reception at the home of the groom's parents, 169 Second avenue east north. Covered with a blue cloth the bride's table was centered with a large crystal bowl of pink roses flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. A buffet luncheon was served in the dining room from a table beautifully centered with pink and white sweet peas and tall pink vases. On a side table was a huge wedding cake with white icing and miniature bride and groom. The bride cut the cake and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Smith, aunt of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Gorton both attend at the Fairhead County high school and graduated with the Class of 1931. Mrs. Gorton attended Montana State college at Bozeman and joined Alpha Gamma Delta. Mr. Gorton holds a responsible position in the offices of the Kallepell Lumber company.

Following a short wedding trip to Seattle and other points Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Gorton will be in their new home at 392 Third avenue east north which they have recently furnished completely.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a blue woolen suit with white accessories.

Invited guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith and daughters, Phyllis and Marguerite from Corral, Montana; Al Reed, North Dakota; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bee and daughter, Shirley, and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hoe from Galtbank.

Koppang Jerome E Supple Mary Winifred marriage 2 Jan 1936 pg 3

Koppang-Supple

At the country home of Mrs. Anna L. Haines on New Year's day at 2 o'clock, her niece, Miss Mary Winifred Supple of Pacific Junction, Iowa, became the bride of Jerome E. Koppang of Katispoll.

The Rev. L. N. Wick of the Bethlehem Lutheran church read the impressive ring service.

The bay window of the living room had been converted into a bower, with hickories and alder buds in the background over which was a silver archway decorated with silver bells. Two large baskets of white and pink chrysanthemums were arranged in the foreground, with candelabra holding tall white tapers completing the setting. The vows were exchanged by candlelight.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her cousin, Clarence Haines, was lovely in a Normandy blue, floor-length, tulle-crepe gown. She wore silver accessories and carried an arm bouquet of Tallahassee roses.

As Miss Janice Moe played the Wedding March from Lohengrin, the bride, preceded by her attendant, Miss Florence Haines, her cousin, and Miss Esther Koppang, the groom's sister, descended the stairway.

Miss Haines was attired in a black metal-cloth gown trimmed with rose chiffon velvet and wore a wrist corsage of pink rose buds and sweet peas. Miss Koppang wore rust-color taffeta with a yellow wrist corsage.

The groom was attended by Bert Saling, Jr., and Harry Henriksen. Immediately following the service, Mrs. Minnie Koppang, mother of the groom, sang "A Prayer," written by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Mrs. Hoyt Saling, Jr., sang, "I Love You Truly." Both were accompanied by Miss Moe.

After the congratulations, a buffet luncheon was served to members of the bridal party. The beautiful wedding cake was cut by the bride.

Mrs. Koppang has been raised in Pacific Junction, Iowa, where she graduated from high school. She later attended business college at Council Bluffs. She has spent many summers visiting in the Flathead, and has expressed her happiness to claim it as her home.

Mr. Koppang graduated from the Flathead county high school in 1930 and has since been employed by the Eagle Shoe company.

Mr. and Mrs. Koppang left on a short wedding trip and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 527 Second street east.

Lee Ole Jr Flynn Patricia marriage 11 Jun 1936 pg 8

Flynn-Lee
Culminating a romance which began in their high school days, Miss Patricia Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Flynn of Kalispell, and Ole Lee, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Lee of Somers, were united in marriage at a very pretty wedding at the Flynn home Sunday afternoon.
Presiding the ceremony Miss Geraldine Caswell sang "O Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Lois Voss at the piano.
To the strains of the Mendelssohn wedding march played by the bride's sister, Mrs. J. G. Van Amburgh, the bride, beautiful in her mother's wedding gown of ivory satin and lace and wearing a long veil, entered the living room on the arm of her father. She carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas and roses.
Miss Wilma Jordan, lovely in punch colored organza, and carrying an arm bouquet of carnations and sweet peas, acted as bridesmaid.
The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. C. Stark, before an arch centered with a pretty white wedding bell and flanked with boughs and standards of peonies and columbine. Vases of spring flowers were tastefully arranged about the room.

The groom in conventional black with white boutonniere was attended by Elmer Holmquist as best man.
After the ceremony a delightful buffet supper was served to about 30 guests, relatives and friends of the young couple.
The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school, class of 1924, and for the past year has been employed in the office of the county agent.
The groom graduated from Flathead county high school in 1922, and has a position in the office of the Somers Lumber company at Somers.
After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Lee will be at home to their friends at Somers, where Mr. Lee has purchased and remodelled a lovely little home for his bride.

Linsley Emory Burton Swenson Gladys Thompson marriage 24 Jun 1936 pg 8

Swenson-Linsley

A lovely wedding of interest to Kalspell people took place on June 24 when Mrs. Gladys Thompson-Swenson was united in marriage to Emory Burton Linsley of Aberdeen, Washington.

The wedding was held at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barkley, at Hicks Lake, near Olympia, with Rev. McDowell of the Episcopal church of Aberdeen reading the services.

The rustic lodge with its beamed ceiling and French windows overlooking the lake, was transformed into a haven of flowers and ferns. The nuptials were read before a huge fireplace, banked by ferns and blue lupin. White candles in candelabra placed on both sides of the mantle furnished soft light during the ceremony.

The bride was attractively gowned in a powder blue crepe afternoon dress with pink picture hat and pink accessories. Her maid of honor, Miss Florence Montgomery of Kalspell, wore a pink afternoon dress with white accessories. Mr. Barkley, who has been a close friend of Mrs. Linsley's for many years, was best man.

Table decorations for the wedding supper were carried out in blue, pink and white, with pink and blue candles at both ends of the long table and a bowl of pink and white water lilies in the center. Mrs. Barkley was a charming hostess and wore a pink and blue dress.

For her going away outfit Mrs. Linsley wore a peach sharkskin suit with diamond accessories.

Mrs. Linsley was born and reared in the Flathead and has been employed as a buyer at a large department store in Aberdeen. Mr. Linsley is a native of Minnesota. He is manager of commercial printing for the Aberdeen World and is prominent in municipal and state affairs, recently completing a term as state president of the Elks club.

Mr. and Mrs. Linsley left for California for a honeymoon trip and will be at home in Aberdeen about July 16.

McFarland-Slack

Marriage rites uniting Miss Veneta Slack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Slack and Thomas N. McFarland, son of Mrs. B. M. McFarland, of Lawrence, Kansas, were solemnized this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, the Rev. Harold C. Stark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, reading the service.

Miss Helen Elliot attended the bride as maid of honor. Raymond A. Kibble of Missoula was best man, and the flower girl was little Lorraine Burch. Mrs. Jennie Proctor Meyers and Mrs. Walter Klabo received the guests.

A background of interwoven anilax was arranged in the living room. Tall standards of Easter lilies lent charm to the arrangement; where lighted white tapers in candlebram formed light by which the vows were taken. Mrs. Burt Carr presided at the organ and as the processionals played the bridal choruses from Lohengrin. Mrs. Gregory Hebert sang "I Love You Truly," "Oh Promise Me", and "At Dawning."

The bride was given in marriage

by her father. She wore a long tea rose chiffon gown, cut on simple lines and trimmed with shirtings at the high neckline. The gown extended in a short train. A cap of lace shirtings completed the costume. She carried a Battenberg handkerchief that had been carried by her mother at her wedding. Her flowers were gardenias.

The maid of honor wore a floor-length pale blue dress with matching accessories and carried Briar Cliffs roses. The flower girl wore pink and white. Mrs. Slack, mother of the bride was becomingly attired in a lace dress of old blue and corsage of roses.

The ceremony was followed by an informal reception. Covered with a fine lace cloth, the table was centered with a large crystal bowl of Calla lilies flanked by white tapers in crystal holders.

Small wedding cakes were wrapped in silver paper, tied with white ribbon and presented to each guest. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Frank Winter, Missoula; Miss Patricia Welberg, Augusta; Miss Melinda Rolfe, Miss Helena Rolfe and Miss Virginia Braunberger.

Mr. and Mrs. McFarland left on a short wedding trip and will be at home in Butte after April 1.

Under an archway of cedar boughs before which were placed large baskets of white chrysanthemums, the vows were taken by candlelight, Candelabra, holding white napers, completed the lovely setting.

Preceding the ceremony, Tom Hamilton, accompanied by Mrs. Larry Waring, sang "I Love You Truly."

Descending the stairway on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. Waring, the bride was preceded by Miss Pauline Nommensen, niece of the groom, as the flower girl and Miss Mildred Wood, sister of the bride, the maid of honor.

The bride was beautiful in her gown of silver satin with which she wore silver accessories. Her long tulle veil was hitched to her tulle cap with its trimming of lace. She carried in firm bouquet of sweet-heart roses and sweet peas.

The maid of honor was attired in a pink chiffon and net gown and carried pink and white chrysanthemums. The flower girl wore a quaint ankle-length dress of blue crepe trimmed with pink and carried baby's breath.

The groom was attended by Tom Hamilton.

Following the ceremony, a buffet supper was served to the relative and close friends of the young couple, who had attended the wedding. The large tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride.

During the congratulatory hour Mrs. Waring played appropriate musical music.
