

MRS. MYRTLE M. GARBER

Funeral services for Mrs. Myrtle M. Garber were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by the Rev. Harold Stark. Mrs. George Flint sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. J. W. Lesslie. Friends acting as bearers were Fred Nelson, O. Newgard, H. Linerude, Roby Nelson, Harry Conant and Henry Thompson. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

The death of Myrtle M. Garber occurred April 2, 1936 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John M. Nelson. She was born at McPherson, Kansas, April 2, 1880 where she spent her early childhood. When about eight years of age her parents moved to States Center, Iowa where she grew to womanhood and was married on September 10, 1896 to Alfred Fisher. Three years later she lost her husband and she moved to Knox, North Dakota with her year-old son, Frank and took a homestead. On July 8, 1903 she was married to John L. Garber at Minnewaukon, North Dakota. After her second marriage Mrs. Garber lived in North Dakota until the last few months when she came with her husband to Kalispell in hopes of regaining her health. Besides her husband Mrs. Garber leaves two daughters, Mrs. William G. Nelson of Libby, Mrs. John M. Nelson of Kalispell and three sons, Frank F. Fisher of Chicago, Richard E. Garber of Kalispell, and Everett G. Garber of White Earth, North Dakota. Also one brother, R. C. Russell of Spokane and her mother Mrs. Christian Russell of Post Falls, Idaho. Mrs. Garber was always known as a good, kind wife and mother and leaves many friends. Death was due to apoplexy.

WILLIAM S. GRAVES

Funeral services for William S. Graves were held Thursday afternoon at 3:30 at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. H. B. Hillis. Many floral tributes were banked about the casket. During the services, Don Shepard sang two selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall bearers were: George Coan, S. H. Webber, Fred Parker, Otto Fehlberg, Thomas Corbett and D. C. Fuller. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

William S. Graves was born in Leola, Wisconsin, Jan. 10, 1875 and passed away at his home in Coram, Montana, Jan. 7, 1936 after an extended illness. He spent his boyhood in Wisconsin where in 1898 he was married to Bertha Bonnell. To this union were born two daughters, Lila Beth and Viola L. His wife passed away in 1904. Later he married Bertha Alverson, to them were born one daughter, Vivian, and one son, Donald. He came to the Flathead valley in 1907, locating at Columbia Falls, where he conducted several business operations including a restaurant and a meat market. In 1916 he homesteaded at Coram, Montana, at that time, marrying Anna M. Ely, who passed away in 1931. Since coming to Coram he has been engaged in timber work and later in the mercantile business. He leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss who knew him as an energetic, upright citizen and truly a man of his word in every respect. Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Viola Cook of Coram, Mont., Mrs. Jack Wacynski of Fond du Lac, Wis., one son, Dallas Graves of Wis., one sister, Mrs. Harry Humphrey of Hancock, Wis., five brothers, Fred L. of Whitefish, Ben F. and Chas. A. of Hancock, Wis., James F. of Everett, Wash., and Gus. A. of San Francisco, Calif., also two grandchildren in Fond du Lac, Wis.

SIDNEY A. GILBERTSON

Funeral services for Sidney Arthur Gilbertson were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Oliver Bergeland of Whitefish. The chapel was filled by the many friends and there were many beautiful flowers banked about the casket. During the services Don Shepard sang two solo selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pallbearers were Charlie Keller, Henry Keller, Iver Tollefson, Reuben Nordtome, James Hanson and Henry O'Boyle. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Sidney Arthur Gilbertson was born January 30, 1908, at Kalispell and was a graduate from Flathead county high school. On August 30, 1930, he was married to Miss Hazel Colbey. He was employed by the Somers Lumber company store as bookkeeper, but in 1931 was forced to retire on account of ill health. He passed away at his home on Third avenue east north, July 28, 1936, at the age of 28 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Hazel Gilbertson, and one son, Sidney, Jr.; also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Gilbertson of Kalispell; four brothers, Conrad and Clarence of Kalispell; Oscar of Chicago, and Lawrence of Sand Point; and four sisters, Mrs. A. H. Prestbye, Mrs. Louis Jensen, Mrs. Milton Mercord and Miss Ida Gilbertson, all of Kalispell.

2 Aug 1936 pg 8

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank Rev. Bergeland for his comforting words, Don Shepard, who sang, and all those who assisted us in any way during our recent bereavement.

Signed: Mrs. Sidney Gilbertson and son, and the Gilbertson families.

MRS. MARY GREIG

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Greig were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel, Rev. H. B. Ricketts of the Methodist church officiating. The chapel was filled by the many sympathizing friends, and beautiful flowers were banked in abundance about the casket. Mrs. Gratia Roe and G. A. Blachley sang two hymns, and A. Dunsire sang a solo during the service. Thomas Sanford accompanied at the piano. Those acting as pallbearers were George Bliss, E. G. Copley, A. J. Suaw, E. L. Kelly, Wallace Bull and Ed. F. Dickinson. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Mary Saunders Greig was born December 25, 1879 at Skidmore, Nodaway count, Missouri, and passed away at Kalispell, December 22, 1936, at the age of 56 years.

Mrs. Greig grew to womanhood in Missouri and came to the Flathead in 1908. Here she was married to Richard Greig of Kalispell and they have since made their home west of Kalispell. Mrs. Greig was a life-long member and an active worker of the Methodist church.

She is survived by her husband, Richard Greig, of Kalispell; a daughter, Mrs. Arminta Johnson, now of Fort Peck; and one son, Richard Greig, Jr., of Kalispell. She is also survived by seven brothers and sisters; one brother and three of the sisters living in Missouri; J. C. Saunders and A. S. Saunders of Bigfork, and Mrs. J. E. Claypool of Kalispell.

GEORGE F. GROTE

Funeral services for George F. Grote, who died at Blackfoot, Montana, on January 1, of bronchial pneumonia, were held at the Kendrick & Moore chapel in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Interment was in the Hillside cemetery at Minneapolis.

George F. Grote was born March 7, 1886 at Viroqua, Wisconsin, moving the same year with his parents to Sparta, Wisconsin. He resided there until 1908 when he removed to Wibaux, Montana, and some time later secured a position at Fallon as telegraph operator for the Northern Pacific railway.

On January 25, 1911, he was married to Miss Agnes B. Davis of Arcadia, Wisconsin. In November, 1916 he removed to Havre where he was employed as telegraph operator for the Great Northern railroad. He had been an operator for the Great Northern at Blackfoot for eight years when he passed away, January 1, 1936.

Besides his widow, he is survived by his mother, Mrs. H. S. Grote of Kallispell; two brothers, C. H. Grote of Kallispell, and H. G. Grote of Spokane, and other relatives.

GEORGE W. GRUBB

Funeral services for George W. Grubb were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Ernest Powlesland. During the services, R. S. Snyder sang a solo and Alvina Grossman and George Chonchuck sang a hymn selection, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hazel Holland.

Friends acting as pall-bearers were S. C. Brock, Frank Nolan, A. A. Fox, Ed Patton, James Murphy and L. Arthurs. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

George W. Grubb was born Oct. 8 1858 at Bonham, Texas, and came to Miles City Montana in 1885. He later homesteaded in the North Fork of the Flathead, where he remained for 29 years. Ill health caused him to retire and for the past month he had made his home with Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Fox on Fifth avenue west, where he passed away July 31 at the age of 77 years. He leaves no known relatives.