CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to all those who were so kind and assisted me in any way during the illness and at the time of the death of my beloved husband. Especially Rev. H. C. Stark for his comforting services, those who sang, the pall bearers, those who furnished eggs and for the beautiful flowers that were sent.

Signed: Mrs. E. A. Louis.

A TRIBUTE

Laura E. Luke, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ernie Luke, old-time residents of the Sparks district, passed away early Sunday morning at the family home. Eleven months ago she was the victim of several body burns sustained when a sudden blast of flame from a stove ignited her clothing. The accident occurred at the home of her sister, Mrs. Cecile Cloud, whose heroic efforts in extinguishing the flames spared her life at the time.

Laura was brought quickly to Kalispell where first-aid was promptly given, and for several weeks little hope was held out for her recovery, but, through her indomitable will and the medical skill of attending physicians, with constant attention of her devoted parents she rallied, and exhibiting cheerfulness and bravery, rare under such circumstances for one so young, Laura steeled herself to the ordeal of assisting the helping hands which tried so hard to alleviate her suffering.

Throughout the months her condition gradually improved and all who knew her were happy in the thought that complete recovery was at last in sight, but unforeseen complications developed late last Saturday night and she passed suddenly and peacefully to a well deserved relief from almost a year of continual pain.

Seemingly having more than her full share of suffering, Laura was not without thoughtfulness for others. An outstanding example of this virtue was expressed last November, when from her sick bed she heard over the radio the first call for assistance in behalf of the earthquake sufferers at Helena. She had accumulated a hundred pennies, received from her many visitors and immediately sent them to help that worthy cause.

Much more might be said of Laura's many other beautiful traits of character, all well developed in the short span of life allotted her, but to one who had the opportunity to observe her daily struggle to "win the fight" there is the consoling thought, that, although her loved ones have been bereft of a precious heritage, Heaven has welcomed a courageous recruit—a "good little soldier."

—A Friend,

G. B. B.
