Agathar Alfons Kienitz Isabel marriage 2 Jul 1937 pg 8

Kienitz-Agathar
Of interest to KallsPELL friends of Alfons Agathar will be the news of his marriage, in Miss Isabel Kienitz of Libby. The ceremony took place in the Lutheran church in Libby on Wednesday at 1 o'clock with the Rev. A. Jordan, of KallsPELL performing the ring ceremony and delivering a brief wedding address.
The setting was one of charm and beauty, with rows of pink and white peonies banking the aisle to the altar and candlelight was provided by two tall candelabra on the altar stairs where the couple knelt to exchange their vows. Soft strains of organ music played by George Nells were heard as the guests were ushered to their places by Robert and Edward Nells. Following the beautiful solo, "Until" sung by Mrs. Walter Nells George Nells played the Lohengrin wedding march for the entrance of the bride.
The bride's maid-of-honor was her sister, Miss Ellen Kienitz. She was revealed in a blue chiffon, wearing a coronet of pink rosebuds on her hair and a bouquet of roses and snapdragons of a coral hue. The bride entered on the arm of her father, William Kienitz, and was met at the altar by the groom and his cousin Arthur Nells of Portland, who was best man. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white lace over tulle which was fashioned on Princess lines with a train. She wore a finger-length veil which was caught with a coronet of orange, blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Martha Agathar, mother of the groom, entered on the arm of her son, Max. She wore a lace and net gown over tulle, in a pale shade of roses shade, with a picture hat and accessories to match. She carried an arm corsage of pink roses and orchid sweet peas. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Walter Nells sang, "God and There", and the ceremony was concluded with the playing of Mendelssohn's wedding march. Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Martha Agathar presided over eating of the wedding cake, and assisting in the serving were Mrs. Bear and Mrs. August Wickman. Out-of-town guests who were present for the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Sitter of Somers, Mrs. Henry Schoknecht and daughter, Dorothy, and son, Mark of KallsPELL.
The bride is a graduate of the Libby schools and attended Washington State college at Pullman. Mr. Agathar graduated from Plathood County high school in 1935, and attended the University at Valparaiso, Ind., and the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis, and also Harvard University. After a wedding trip to Danf and Lake Louise, the young couple will be at home in Libby, where the groom is employed in the office of the Julius Nells Lumber company.

Dickerman Charles E Darnell Lora Pauline marriage 5 Oct 1937 pg 8

Darnell-Dickerman

A beautiful fall wedding was culminated in Judson Hall of the Baptist church Sunday, October 3, when Miss Lora Pauline Darnell became the bride of Charles E. Dickerman of Lewiston, Idaho.

The fireplace, banked with a profusion of pink pink asters, with tall baskets of gladiolas on either side and a basket of roses and softly lighted formed a beautiful altar as a background for the impressive ring ceremony which was performed by the bride's father, the Rev. L. M. Darnell.

As the bridal party proceeded down the flower petaled stairway, Miss Arodyns Day played "Recessional Wedding March" by Mendelssohn, "In the Garden of Tomorrow" by Liedstrum, and "Bridal Chorus," Lohengrin. The Rev. Darnell preceded the bride and groom, who were attended by Mrs. Bertha J. Dickerman and Miss Gertrude Dickerman, mother and sister of the groom, Mrs. Darnell and Donald Darnell.

The bride was attired in a royal blue lace dress over blue silk and her corsage was of yellow and white rose buds. The groom wore conventional black.

About 75 guests attended the ceremony and the wedding dinner which followed. Lighted pink tapers fringed the table, which was centered with a wedding cake.

The bride attended high school in Salt Lake City and the groom the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. He is now employed by the J. C. Penney company at Lewiston, Idaho.

The couple left yesterday for their new home in Clarkston, Washington. For traveling Mrs. Dickerman wore black velvet with matching accessories.

Duff Kenneth C Busey Phyllis marriage 11 Oct 1937 pg 8

Busey-Duff

Of exceptional interest to Kalispell friends was the marriage of Miss Phyllis Busey, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Busey of Missoula, and Kenneth C. Duff, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Duff of Butte, which was solemnized at a beautiful home ceremony Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of the parents of the bride. Pleasing simplicity characterized the service, which was witnessed by about 40 relatives of the bridal couple and a few close friends of the families.

The nuptial vows were taken before an improvised altar banked with white asters and lighted by tall white tapers in two candelabra placed before a large window draped with velvet hangings and banked with white lotions, with Rev. Father Dennis Meade, pastor of St. Anthony's parish, reading the marriage service.

Just before the wedding march from the opera, "Lohengrin," which was played by Mrs. Clarence J. Forbis for the entrance of the bridal party from the stairway, Miss Helen Chester sang softly, "Were my Song With Wings, Provided."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was preceded to the altar by her matron of honor and only attendant, Mrs. Leland Kennedy of Deer Lodge. The groom was attended by his brother, Thomas Duff of Butte.

The bride was attired in a long period gown of white chiffon velvet trimmed with a pearl collar, with which she wore a fingertip veil held in place upon her head by a Juliette ring of pearls. In her arms she carried a clever bouquet of bride's own. The groom wore the valley and maiden hair fern.

Mrs. Kennedy wore a tea rose moire frock trimmed in deep rose velvet with which she carried a Colonial bouquet of roses and gladioli of colors matching her frock.

The bride's mother was dressed in a gown of burgandy silk lace, with which she wore a corsage of deep cream roses.

Mrs. Duff, mother of the groom, was dressed in a dark blue velvet gown and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception honoring the bride couple was given immediately after the ceremony for about 150 guests. This affair, too, was kept pleasingly informal. Refreshments were served in the dining room during the evening hours, 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. from a beautifully decorated table centered with white roses and lighted with white tapers, with a bride's cake a point of interest. Mrs. Nell Howe of Kalispell, an aunt of the bride, and Mrs. J. W. Walker of Bigfork, Mrs. Walter H. McLeod of Missoula and Mrs. Low Switzer of Kalispell took turns in presiding at the refreshment table.

White flowers were used to decorate the dining room in keeping with the decorations of the entire home.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Busey in welcoming the guests and in serving were Mrs. J. Monroe Wallace, Mrs. J. Hodgson of Great Falls, Mrs. Paul Ruchoff, Mrs. Roscoe Haines, Mrs. G. A. Ketcham, Mrs. LeRoy McKenzie, Mrs. A. J. G. McGee, Miss Helen Elliot, Miss Marian Callahan, Miss Josephine Marsh of Polson, Mrs. Leonard Marsh of Polson, Miss Ruth Polley, Miss Grace Johnson, Miss Helen Chester, Mrs. Roger Grattan of Kalispell and Miss Ellen McGee.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff left the city Thursday afternoon upon a wedding trip to the Pacific coast. They will be at home to their friends in Missoula at 807 Beckwith avenue after November 1. The bride wore a chic recent away costume of Windsor blue wool with gray accessories.

Mrs. Duff was graduated from the Missoula county high school and from the State University. Mrs. Duff took a post-graduate course at Western Reserve university at Cleveland following taking her degree in Missoula. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. For the past year, Mrs. Duff has been director of North hall, women's residence hall, upon the University campus.

Mr. Duff received his degree from the Montana State University with the class of '25. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity.

The groom is connected with the Metropolitan Life Insurance company in Missoula.

Elizabeth King, both of KallsPELL; Lawrence E. Borup, Gateway, and Wanda F. Fomeroy, Troso; and to Clifford A. Nordtong and Elizabeth A. Vogler, both of KallsPELL.

King-Hetzer

At a ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, Miss M. Elizabeth King became the bride of Charles H. Hetzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hetzer, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean King, 349 Fourth avenue east, yesterday at 1 o'clock. The marriage service was read by the Rev. Harold C. Stark of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of 30 relatives and intimate friends of the couple.

The bride, entering on the arm of her father to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Mrs. Stark, was preceded by her bridesmaid, Miss Helin Rizzo, to a beautifully wrought arch in the dining room, where they were met by the groom and his best man, Walter Everin of Columbia Falls. Tall baskets of yellow chrysanthemums were placed at each side of the arch, which was made from ropes of smilax on a background of Michaelmas daisies and ferns and many autumn leaves. Disposals of yellow and orange autumn flowers were used effectively about the rooms.

The bride was attired in rust colored taffeta and wore an old-fashioned gold bracelet. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums tied with a maline bow. Her bridesmaid wore blue crepe and her bouquet was of rust colored mums.

Mrs. Stark played softly at the piano while the bridal pair was being greeted.

A wedding dinner was served at 2 o'clock at small tables. Each table was centered with a bouquet of yellow and orange autumn flowers and a wedding cake and lighted white candles adorned the table at which the bride and groom were seated. Mrs. Lawrence Foy, sister of the groom, Mrs. Thomas Sanford, Mrs. James Sanford and Mrs. Robert King assisted with the serving.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hetzer, were born and reared in the Flathead and are graduates of Flathead county high school and are well-known and popular young people of the community.

For her going-away costume the bride wore a henna colored knitted suit and dark brown accessories. After a short western wedding trip the couple will be at home to their friends at 323 West Idaho street in this city.

Jones-Kelly
 One of the lovely fall weddings occurred Saturday at high noon when Miss Tynee S. Jones was married to Richard P. Kelly at the Central Christian church, Rev. W. H. Spady performing the ceremony with the impressive ring service.
 Preceding the service, Miss Patrick Mooney of Whitefish sang "I Love You Truly" accompanied by Mrs. McQuirk, pianist, and Miss Mary Halpin, violinist.
 To the soft strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the bride entered on the arm of her brother, Forrest Jones. Her gown was a beautiful floor length white starched lace creation with a Queen Anne jacket of matching lace and she carried a shower bouquet of pink roses. Mrs. LeRoy Kistwood, the bride's attendant, wore a floor length rose taffeta ensemble and carried pink sweetpeas. Edward Loverson attended the bridegroom. LeRoy and Eugene Jones, brothers of the bride, were ushers. The church was profusely decorated with late garden flowers.

Following the wedding services, an informal reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones for the bridal party, members of the family and a few close friends. After the bride had cut the beautifully ornamented wedding cake and numerous friends had extended congratulations, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left on a short wedding trip. Mrs. Kelly's going away outfit consisted of an autumn print ensemble in shades of red and black with smart black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of the local high school, class of 1933, and for the past three years has been employed at the Kalspell office of the National Reemployment Service. Mr. Kelly is associated with the O'Neil Lumber company of this city. Both young people have made Kalspell their home for a number of years and have a host of well wishing friends.
