TWINS ARE BORN TO MRS. CAROL McCAULEY

For the sixth time in the last six months twins were born in Kalspell when the stork delivered a boy and a girl to Mrs. Carol McCauley late yesterday afternoon at the Sisters' hospital.

The pathetic part of the story, however, is that the father of the twins was killed last summer while at work on the railroad and the happiness of the mother is somewhat dimmed because the little mites of humanity have no father living to rejoice with her over their arrival.
