MRS. WM. IRVINE

Mrs. William Irvine, aged 87, one of the best-known of the early pioneers of the reservation country passed away in Polson Wednesday.

Mrs. Irvine was well-known throughout western Montana. In the early days she operated a freight line between Walla Walla, Wash., and Missoula. After her marriage to Mr. Irvine she resided in Irvine Flats, west of Polson.

She is survived by a son, Arthur Larrivee, and two granddaughters, Mrs. Tom Browne and Mrs. Hans Jorgenson of Polson.
