

HOSEA P. ALBRITTON

Funeral services for Hosea P. Albritton were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Donald Baldwin of Somers, who also sang two solo selections. There were many beautiful flowers banked about the casket and friends filled the chapel and adjoining rooms nearly to capacity. Those acting as pall-bearers were C. D. Keeling, Charles Flock, Peter Myre, Arthur Kirk, Charles DeVoe and Charles Kettlehorn. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Hosea P. Albritton was born at Clear Creek, Arkansas, November 4, 1875. When he was 15 years of age he came with his family to the Flathead. He served for a time on the Kallispell police force and later moved to Somers where he has had charge of the Somers Lumber company barn for the past 23 years. He was married to Miss Ella Eulberg in 1903. Mr. Albritton passed away at Somers, Thursday, July 1.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ella Albritton, and their three children, Mrs. Lucille Boyce, Virgil Albritton and John Albritton, all of Somers, and five grandchildren.

There are also three sisters, Mrs. Martha A. Yonney, and Mrs. Sarah F. King, of Kallispell, and Mrs. Elzada Hughes of Lincoln, Neb.

SAMUEL ALLAN

Funeral services for Samuel Allan were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Harold C. Stark of the Presbyterian church. During the service Mrs. George Glendon sang two solo selections, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. D. C. Nixon. Friends acting as pall-bearers were Walter Best, Melvin Crawford, Fred Purvis, Lee Kimmel, Chris Evenson and William Weirmler. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Samuel Allan was born at Shigawanke, Quebec Province, Canada, February 3, 1885, and passed away at Kallispell June 26, 1937. He came to Havre, Montana in 1916, where he homesteaded with his mother, who died in 1920. Mr. Allan then made his home with his aunt, Miss Sarah Sullivan of Chiswick, with whom, in 1930, he moved to the Flathead. Here he purchased a small place on the east shore of Flathead lake, where he had lived since. In 1933 Miss Sullivan died, and as Mr. Allan had never married, he was left alone, without family or relatives.

WILLIAM P. AMBROSE

Funeral services for William P. Ambrose were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in St. Matthew's church, Rev. Father O'Farrell officiating with requiem high mass. The local post of the American Legion and the ladies auxiliary attended the services in a body and paid full military respects. The pall bearers were Emil Anderson, Otha Isaacs, James Duffy, Roger Sullivan, Samuel Parker, and Robert Galiss. Interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of the Kallispell Funeral Home.

Obituary

William Patrick Ambrose was born August 26, 1897 at Creston, Montana where he spent his boyhood. He enlisted in the United States Navy July 9, 1918 at Salt Lake City and served until Sept. 24, 1919 when he received his honorable discharge. After the war he made his home at Butte, until 1923 when he returned to the Flathead. On December 27, 1925 he was united in marriage to Ann Cleary at the Church of the Holy Rosary at Vancouver, B. C. Until two years ago he had been an employee of the State Forestry department. He left Kallispell for Portland last August because of ill health and was much benefited. He contracted pneumonia while driving here from the coast about two weeks ago and passed away at the Kallispell General hospital May 7, aged 39 years. He is survived by his wife, Ann Ambrose, and two sons, William and Thomas of Creston; six sisters, Miss Winifred Ambrose and Mrs. Ann Murphy of Creston, Mrs. Harry Hanley of Rexford, Kate McCafferey of Rexford, Jane Haines of Creston, Mary Haverty of Boston, Mass., and one brother, Thomas Ambrose of Creston.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation to all who assisted us in our bereavement. The Sisters and nurses at the hospital, the Legion and Auxiliary, Father O'Farrell for his comforting words and those who furnished cars and flowers.

Signed: Mrs. William Ambrose and family.
