Obituary

Anna Mjolsness was born at Finnno, Norway, on May 29, 1867, and passed away at a Seattle hospital August 19, 1937, after several months' illness.

Coming to the United States in 1889, she first settled at Webster, South Dakota, later moving to Pierpont, South Dakota, where she married Elias Fagerland. Together they endured the hardships of pioneer life on the prairie. Eight children were born to this union, two of whom preceded them in death.

In 1902 the family moved to the Flathead valley and located on a farm near Creston, where Mr. Fagerland passed away the following spring. Mrs. Fagerland divided her time between Kallispell, Seattle and Everett the past 15 years. Both were charter members of the Zion Lutheran church at Pierpont, and also were members of the Swan River Lutheran church.

She is survived by four sons, Ernest of Bigfork, Kornell and Bennie of Creston, and Elmer of Kallispell; two daughters, Mrs. Eric Hagerman and Mrs. Fred Peterson, of Seattle; also eight grandchildren.

MRS. AMELIA FAIGNAN

Funeral services for Mrs. Amelia K. Faigan were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggenor & Campbell chapel. Mrs. John Sherman read the service of the Christian Science church. During the service Mrs. L. Green sang two appropriate solo selections accompanied at the piano by Miss Laura Knott. The chapel was filled by the many friends attending and many beautiful flowers were banked about the casket.

Those acting as pall-bearers were Sidney Read, Gus Bischoff, E. Street, Anton Fox, Albert Dreessen and S. I. Rapson. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Mary Elizabeth Swaney Fisher was born January 26, 1862 in Allegheny City, Pennsylvania. In 1882 she moved west with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Swaney, to Missoula, Montana. There she met and married Rev. George McVey Fisher, who was at that time Presbyterian home missionary in Missoula.

In 1887 they moved to the Flathead and purchased the land where Kalispell is now located. Mrs. Fisher had studied piano and voice in Pittsburgh under Professor Adolph Foerster and used her talents both in Missoula and the Flathead to help her husband in his ministry. She sang and played the little portable organ at all the services in the churches where Mr. Fisher preached as well as in the church in town. In 1892 they built the home at 441 West Second street, and lived there continuously since then.

Mrs. Fisher is survived by four daughters and two sons, a brother and sister and four grandchildren. Her life was one of devotion to her family and real sympathy and help to all those in need.

The motto on the shield of her mother's family was, "Lux in Tenebris"—"Light in Darkness" and she truly loved that motto.

FRED C. FOSTER

Funeral services for Fred Charles Foster were held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Walter H. Sandy of Central Christian church. During the service Mrs. W. H. Sandy and Mrs. M. A. Tiffany sang two hymn selections, accompanied at the piano by Miss Muriel Chapman. Those acting as pallbearers were William Cowgill, Floyd Hyatt, Andy Hait, A. E. Hurst, Albert Dreesen and L. G. Redfern. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Fred Charles Foster was born April 10, 1879, at Deer Lodge, Montana, where he grew to manhood and received his education. He was a graduate of the school of chiropractic under Dr. Palmer at Davenport, Iowa, and had been practicing his profession at Hot Springs, where he had made his home the past three years. He was married Nov. 1, 1934, to Densa Marco Jensen at Polson, Montana. Last October he suffered a stroke of paralysis and had not been able to return to his regular practice. He passed away early Sunday morning at his home in Hot Springs. He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Kalispell and a member of the Presbyterian church. Those surviving are his wife at home in Hot Springs, a brother and sister at Deer Lodge, and a sister in Tacoma, Washington.
