CARD OF THANKS

We take this means to express our sincere appreciation to the neighbors and friends who assisted us in any way during our recent bereavement. We especially thank Rev. W. H. Sandy for his comforting words, those who furnished music, furnished cars or sent floral offerings.

Signed: Adolph Lauman and family.

MRS. SIDNEY M. LOGAN, JR.

Funeral services for Mrs. Sidney M. Logan, Jr., who passed away suddenly Saturday, December 4, were held yesterday. Early mass was conducted by Father O'Farrell of St. Matthew's church in the morning, and public services were held at 2 p. m. The funeral was regally attended, and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. The pallbearers were George Robbin, Howard Hines, A. R. Johnson, Mahlon Hall, C. S. Baldwin and M. H. Nolin.

Obituary

The many friends of Mrs. Sidney M. Logan, Jr., were shocked and grieved to learn of her sudden death on Saturday, December 4, 1937. Agnes Tranberg was born July 17, 1902, at Brooklyn, New York. Her father was Edward Tranberg, born in the Virgin Islands, and her mother was Mamie Monahan Tranberg, born in Dublin, Ireland. She is survived by her husband, Sidney M. Logan, Jr., her father and mother, two brothers, Edward and Howard Tranberg, one sister, Olive, now Mrs. Armstrong, besides other relatives in New York and Connecticut.

Agnes Tranberg attended the parochial schools of Brooklyn, graduating with high honors. She had unusual histrionic ability and often took part in school plays. She was highly appreciative of artistic work in any form, but particularly in music and painting. Whatever was beautiful or that which aroused a feeling for the higher or better things of life made a strong appeal to her.

MRS. E. N. LIPPENCOTT

Mrs. Chester Johnson recently returned from Seattle where she was enticed by the illness and death of her mother, Mrs. E. N. Lippencott, former resident of Kalspell.

Mrs. Lippencott passed away in Seattle May 30, and funeral services were held in the Christian church here and burial made in the Waschelli cemetery on June 2.

Obituary

Marcella E. Webber was born in Maine September 5, 1868, and died in Seattle May 30, 1937, at the age of 69 years. She was married to Mr. Lippencott in Helena in 1889 and they came to Kalspell to make their home in 1905. Their six children were reared here.

Mrs. Lippencott was a member of Central Christian church in Kalspell and was also active in lodge affairs, having served as Noble Grand in Crescent Rebekah lodge and in an active capacity in the Royal Neighbors.

They left here in 1920 for Seattle but she spent much of her time here with her children and among her many old friends.

She is survived by her husband and two sons, Edward L. and Warren Lippencott of Seattle, and her daughter, Mrs. Chester Johnson of Kalspell. Also by five grandchildren.

Mr. Lippencott will come to Kalspell later in the summer to spend some time with his daughter. He will divide his time between Kalspell and Seattle.

After finishing school, she held several clerical positions in New York. At the time of her marriage to Sidney M. Logan, Jr., at Brooklyn, New York, on July 24, 1929, she was employed in the office of the Brooklyn - Edison company, where she had held a responsible position for several years.

Agnes Logan was endowed with a lovable disposition, she liked and was interested in people and made friends easily. She had a charming personality and a most gracious and friendly manner, always taking a genuine interest in others. She enjoyed travel and made several trips with her husband to Kalspell and California and grew to love the Western country, although she ever remained loyal to her native state of New York.

She was buried in Conrad Memorial cemetery beside her infant son, Robert Bruce, who died at birth, June 29, 1937. During her sojourn in Kalspell she had made many friends and had especially endeared herself to the members of her husband's family.

Sweeney; one brother, Roy Sweeney, and one sister, Mrs. Fred Luke, all of Kallispell.

Wax candles are probably of Phoenician origin. The composite candle of today is made of stearin and paraffin.

CHRISTIAN J. LUND

Funeral services for Christian J. Lund were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. L. N. Field of Bethlehem Lutheran church. Beautiful flowers were banded in abundance about the casket and many friends attended the service. Don Shephard sang two solo selections during the service, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pallbearers were Peter Weberg, George Moe, A. Brassett, Otto Marken, E. G. Hjorneby and A. E. Rupsvold. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Christian J. Lund was born March 10, 1858, in Lillehammer, Norway, and was left an orphan at the age of 10 years. He made his home with strangers and attended night school for several years, learning the English, German and French languages. He then went to Christiansa, Norway, and became an apprentice in a grocery store. At the age of 19 he sailed for America and went to Chicago and obtained employment. After a time he answered to the lure of the west and moved to Fargo, North Dakota, where he met Miss Clara Maltrud and they were married in 1882 and moved to Kindred to make their home and establish a business. In 1912 they visited Kallispell and being attracted by its beauty and the Flathead's resemblance to his boyhood home, he sold his Dakota interests at once and established a grocery and fruit store here. He remained active until about four years ago when his advancing age demanded a less active life. He passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Bruckhauser, in Kallispell September 7, 1937, at the age of 84 years.

He is survived by his four children, Mrs. Lillian Peterson, Mrs. J. P. Bruckhauser, Irwin Lund, of Kallispell, and Conrad Lund of Oakland, California; also his deceased sister's children who were cared for with his own family, Miss Dugney Reistad of Bigfork, Eugene Reistad of Kindred, North Dakota, and Mrs. Clara MacDonald of Batavia, North Dakota.

MRS. NANCY LYGHT

Funeral services for Mrs. Nancy Lyght were held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the Waggoner & Campbell chapel by Rev. L. G. Nees, assisted by Rev. G. S. Koontz.

During the service R. S. Snyder and Guy Nees sang two hymns, accompanied at the piano by Miss Mildred Nees, and Mrs. Carl Boline and Mrs. P. M. Pederson sang a hymn, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. H. B. Henriksen. Friends acting as pall-bearers were B. L. Tilton, W. H. Caudell, H. D. Lee, J. M. Lassater, C. E. Skogen and C. H. Rasmussen. Interment was made in the family lot in Demersville cemetery.

Obituary

Nancy Ellis-Lyght was born July 17, 1857, at Chesterville, Illinois, and passed away August 8, 1937, at Kalispell at the age of 80 years. She was married to Caleb Lyght April 15, 1874 and Mr. Lyght passed away two years ago. They moved to North Dakota in 1907 and homesteaded there. In 1923 they came to Kalispell to make their home. Mrs. Lyght was a member of the Nazarene church in Kalispell. She is survived by four sons, Charles Edward of Kalispell; W. Harry, of Arnegard, North Dakota; John Delmer of Kalispell; and Henry Wiley of Sawyer, North Dakota; two daughters, Mrs. Herman Lukenbill and Mrs. Henry G. Thompson of Kalispell; 27 grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild; also one brother at Chesterville, Illinois.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our heartfelt gratitude to our many friends who so kindly helped us during the illness and death of our beloved mother. We especially wish to thank those who sang, those who furnished music, those who sent the beautiful flowers, also Rev. Nees and Rev. Koontz for their comforting words, those who furnished cars, and the pall-bearers.

Signed: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lukenbill, C. E. Lyght, J. D. Lyght, Harry Lyght, H. W. Lyght and the grandchildren.
