SPOKANE MAN IS FOUND DEAD IN WHITEFISH HOTEL

Roy E. Peterson, fuel inspector for the Great Northern, was found dead in a bathroom at the Cadillac Hotel in Whitefish this morning, according to Coroner Campbell who returned to Kalispell with the body about noon today. Heart failure was evidently the cause of his death, it was stated.

Mr. Peterson is a resident of Spokane and was 46 years of age. The management of the hotel broke down the bathroom door this morning when they found it locked and no one answered. Little information was learned about Mr. Peterson today but it is believed he has a wife at the home in Spokane. He was well known among the railroad men in Whitefish.

ROY E. PETERSON

The body of Roy E. Peterson, Great Northern fuel inspector will be sent to St. Paul Sunday by Waggener & Campbell. Mrs. Peterson of Spokane will accompany the body east where services will be held. Mr. Peterson lived at St. Paul until four years ago. He was a veteran of the World war and a member of Railroad Post No. 416 at St. Paul of the American Legion.
