EMIL L. WARING

Emil L. Waring, aged 65, passed away at his home in Bigfork Saturday about noon. Mr. Waring was building a stone fence in the yard at his home when death overtook him. Mrs. Waring was visiting neighbors and he was not missed until her return about 6 o'clock in the evening. Death was evidently due to cerebral hemorrhage. Funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the Methodist church in Bigfork by Rev. Albert Hill of Somers, followed by interment in the Lone Pine cemetery at Holt under the direction of Waggener & Campbell.

The sudden death of E. L. Waring Saturday afternoon, November 5, came as a shock to his family and friends. He fell over in his back yard, where he was building a rock wall, and passed away without a sign of pain or struggle from a cerebral hemorrhage. Mr. Waring was a man highly esteemed for his sterling qualities. Always a good friend and neighbor and devoted to his home and family. Great sympathy is extended to his widow, two daughters and three sons and their families. The funeral service was held at the Bigfork Methodist Episcopal church of which he was a member. Rev. Hill officiated. He was laid to rest in the "Lone Pine" cemetery, the place of his choice. Bigfork has lost another good citizen.
