Croskroy-Albrecht
The marriage of Miss Florence Croskroy of Seeley lake and William Albrecht of Bigfork was solemnized at the home of the bride's uncle, Robert L. Croskroy, Jr., in Kalispell Friday, March 11, at 7 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles Durston. The bride wore a two-piece dress of black and white tulle with harmonizing accessories and her bouquet was of roses. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served to the immediate family. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Croskroy of Seeley lake and since finishing school has been employed at Missoula and Kalispell. The groom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Carl Albrecht of Phillipsburg, Germany, and has been employed in Butte. The couple will be at home to their many friends at Ferndale, where Mr. Albrecht has built and furnished a home.

Mrs. E. W. Kalner received word from her nephew, Robert Aley, of his marriage to Miss Ethel Dyer of Kalispell which took place in Los Angeles, Nov. 6. They will reside in Los Angeles. Dick Wells, with whom Robert went to California, will make his home with them.

Marriage licenses have been issued to George M. Allen and Bernice G. Kind, both of Kalispell; Peter H. Sterner, Kalispell, and Marie M. Colby, Kila; and to Claude L. Hoffman, Mullan, Idaho, and Annette M. Harvey, Eureka.

Marriage licenses were issued this afternoon to Arnold L. Anderson and Dorothy Boets, both of Polson, and to Wallace N. Betsnow, Clarkston, Washington, and Edna C. Howell, Lewiston, Idaho.

A marriage license was issued this morning to Edward R. Appelt and Lillian M. Boertsch, both of Polson.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to Stanley J. Armstrong and Evelyn Hunsberger, both of Browning.

Marriage licenses have been issued by Clerk of Court Oliver F. Vose to Rudolph W. Arvidson, Somers, and Eva Mae Koppang, Bigfork, and to Mathias J. Struck and Marcella Duffy, both of Kalispell.

All extend congratulations to the new bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Arvidson, who were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Koppang, at Holt last Friday, August 26. Saturday night the young people gave them a lively charivari followed by a dance at the town hall. The following Wednesday night they gave them a miscellaneous shower at the Koppang home. After a short wedding trip they will reside in their new home at Whitefish.

Hoylman-Birky

One of the outstanding events of the week-end was the double wedding ceremony which united Margaret Marie and Naomi Pauline, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hoylman of this city, to Roy E. and Harry K. Birky, sons of J. N. Birky of Creston.

The ceremony took place at 11 o'clock Sunday morning, May 29, at the Mountain View church at Creston and was performed by Rev. Glenn Whitaker of Portland, Oregon, a cousin of the brides' mother, in the presence of many friends and relatives.

The brides wore gowns of white lace over satin and veils of white silk bobinet and carried bouquets of pink roses and pink and white sweet peas. Four bridesmaids attended them, Miss Mary Ann Birky, sister of the grooms, Miss Esther Lapp, and Miss Dorothy Hoylman and Miss Bernice Kauffman, cousins of the brides. The bridesmaids wore gowns of yellow and orchid organdy and carried bouquets of white and lavender lilies.

A quartet composed of Mrs. John Salla, Mrs. John Bachman, George Hoylman and Roy Kauffman sang "Lead Us, O Father," as the bridal party entered the church, and as a recessional, "I Would be True." The ushers were Jonas Birky, Reuben Kauffman, Arthur Hoylman and Ezra Birky.

A wedding dinner was served at 3:30 at the Temple Tea room for the bridal party and immediate relatives, where pink and white colors were effectively carried out in the appointments. Two lovely wedding cakes graced the table. In the evening a reception was held at the Hoylman home which was attended by many friends. Light refreshments were served and musical numbers were given by Miss Mariel Chapman, Howard Hoylman, the Slater brothers and Miss Esther Lapp. Miss Mary Hoylman, a cousin of the brides, received the guests. Each guest was presented with a piece of wedding cake, wrapped in tissue and tied with ribbon.

Following a short wedding trip the young couples will be at the Hoylman home in Kalispell for a short time.

Bryan Frank R Mills Dorothy marriage 27 Jun 1938 pg 8

Mills-Bryan
One of the attractive weddings of the late spring season was solemnized Sunday afternoon, June 26, at 1 o'clock in the Baptist church of this city when Miss Dorothy Mills, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Mills, became the bride of Frank R. Bryan, son of Mrs. John Bryan of Missoula. About 100 relatives and friends of the couple were present.
The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of flowers and a bower of roses and peonies formed an improvised arch at the altar before which the rites were read by the Rev. Mills.
Just before the ceremony Rev. S. Carlson sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Laura Knott, who also played the wedding march. The bride was given in marriage by David Hope, a friend of the family, and she was preceded to the altar by her bridesmaid, Miss June Armstrong, and Noel Koford, her nephew, a ringbearer, and Joyce Hope, niece of the bridegroom, gowning in pink who as flower girl scattered rose petals along the aisle. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Ned Opp. James Conner and Lloyd Day were ushers.
The bride was attired in a gown of white silk net over satin and her finger tip veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her white gloves came from Paris, a gift from Mrs. Sara Baldwin and her bouquet was of pink roses and sweet peas. Miss Armstrong wore Nile green georgette and carried a bouquet of pink roses.
A reception was held in the church following the wedding. A lovely wedding cake, made by the bride's sister, Mrs. Oscar Koford, adorned the lace covered table where covers were placed for the wedding party. Over 100 guests were served at small tables placed about the room, which was decorated with spring flowers. Rev. Carlson sang two vocal selections, "Because" and "You Alone."
The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school of the class of '37 and the bridegroom graduated from the Missoula high school in 1935. After spending their honeymoon at the Koford summer home at Ashley Lake the couple will make their home in Missoula.
Out-of-town guests present at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. DeCoursey, Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin, Polson; Mr. and Mrs. David Hope and Barbara and Betty Hope, Hamilton; and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. 				marriage	27 Jun 1938 pg 5

Marriage licenses have been issued to Eugene Shea and Reva C. Johnson, both of Eureka; Howard W. Elliott, Billings, and Esther H. Munter, Kalispell; and to Hjalmar B. Landal, Rozoman and Helen M. Wermager, Whitefish.

Munter-Elliott

The Bethlehem Lutheran church was the setting Saturday afternoon for the small wedding of Miss Esther Harriet Munter, daughter of David I. Munter, to Howard William Elliott, son of William C. Elliott.

Before and during the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Lawrence N. Field, there was a program of organ music, played by Mrs. M. Carlson. Gerald Schnell sang "Until" preceding the procession of the bridal party and after the nuptial vows had been spoken, "O Perfect Love."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a bouffant gown of blush pink marquisette. Satin petals were applied on the bodice which had a sweetheart neck and short full puffed sleeves. The long circular train was also applied with satin petals. A matching finger-tip bluish veil of tulle fell from a scalloped halo cap. She carried a bouquet of butterfly roses, swansonias and maidenhair fern.

The maid of honor, Miss Helen Elliott, the bridegroom's sister, wore a deep pink picture hat and embroidered marquisette gown and carried diphiniums and pink roses.

Mr. Elliott was best man for his son. Ushers were Henry Saling and Russell Hart of Billings.

A reception for the wedding guests was held at the Temple Tea Room. Pale pink and white peonies and chrysanthemums decorated the long table which was centered by an hexagonal wedding cake. Miss Mary Halpin and Miss Laura Knott played instrumental music and Miss Betty Saling sang "Because," "Ich Liebe Dich" and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Miss Nancy Elliott.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Flathead county high school. The bride is a graduate nurse from Lutheran Memorial hospital in Chicago, and for the past three years has been employed in Hammond, Indiana. Mr. Elliott was graduated in 1932 from Dartmouth college.

Leaving on a wedding trip by motor the bride wore a navy blue heavy sheer dress and coat with white embroidered organdy trim and pomegranate accessories. On their return the couple will reside in Billings, where Mr. Elliott manages the Home Furnishing Mart.
