

Approaching Marriage Announced

Complimenting Miss Mary Robischon, who will wed Dr. Millett Keller on Thursday, September 29, Mrs. F. H. Keller entertained at her home with a delightful 7 o'clock dinner last evening.

At tables daintily appointed with an orchid and pink color combination, the guests found their places marked with tiny umbrellas. Both the honor guest and her mother were presented with corsages.

The evening was spent playing auction bridge, for which Lois Vose received high score favor. In writing advice to the bride, Melinda Rolie was awarded the prize. Miss Robischon was presented with a lovely gift of glassware by Mrs. Keller.

Covers were laid for Mesdames F. J. Robischon, Thomas Lacher, Thomas Robert and the Misses Jean Robischon, Irene Evenson, Wilma Jordan, Lois Vose, Geraldine Caswell, Margaret Rueggsegger, Margie McDevitt, Astrid Prestbye, Melinda Rolie, Willie and Wilma Caldwell, Idamarie Lornng and the guest of honor.

Robischon-Keller

St. Matthew's church was the scene of a wedding of exquisite simplicity, Thursday morning, September 29 at 9 o'clock, when Miss Mary Antoinette Robischon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Robischon, became the bride of Dr. Millett F. Keller, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Keller.

Before the main altar, flanked with pink and white dahlias and lighted tapers, the Rev. Father Francis X. O'Farrell performed the single ring service, followed by a nuptial mass. He was assisted by the bride's brothers, Tommy and Jimmy Robischon.

Lovely in a white silk lace gown, the bride was given away by her father. Cut on Princess lines, her dress had long tight-fitting sleeves, extending in points over her hands. She wore a Juliet veil, featuring a pin-tucked tulle cap, banded with seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book, from which fell a shower of gardenias, pink rose buds and swansonia.

To the "March Pontifical" by Gounod, played by Mrs. Walter LaBonte, the bridal party entered the church. Thomas O'Connell, Hugh Houston and Winston Howard, ushers, led the procession, followed by Miss Margaret Rueggsegger, as the maid-of-honor. Fuschia-colored moire, cut on Empire lines, with short puffed sleeves, fashioned her gown, and she wore a quaint seed-pearl Juliet cap over white tulle. Pink rosebuds and maldenhair fern, tied with tulle and satin, formed her shower bouquet.

The bride's mother, wore a wine-colored silk ensemble, with black accessories and a corsage of scabiosa and swansonia. Mrs. F. H. Keller's suit was of brown crepe and velvet, with which she wore Talsman roses.

Earl Fenton was Dr. Keller's best man.

During the services Jerry Schnell, accompanied by Mrs. LaBonte, sang "Ave Maria" by Rosewig, "Just for Today" by Seaver, and "On This Day" by Lambillotte.

Following an informal reception at the church, the immediate families and attendants enjoyed a delicious breakfast at the Temple Tea room. Pink and white dahlias and white tapers were used to complement the wedding cake, which centered the long table.

Mrs. Keller's going-away outfit was a black and white pin-striped suit, on which she wore gardenias, and a black and white topper.

A graduate of Flathead county high school, Mrs. Keller has been employed for the past three years in the accounting department of the Kalispell Mercantile company. Dr. Keller is a graduate of the Libby high school and also attended Montana State college at Bozeman, Eastern Washington Teachers' college, and was graduated from the University of California.

Dr. and Mrs. Keller will be at home in Great Falls at 619 Fifth street north.

A wedding of interest was solemnized Sunday noon, June 12, in the First Methodist church in Missoula when the Rev. Martin E. Van de Mark read the vows uniting Mrs. Ida Frances Clarke, of Deer Lodge, and Helmer Kirkelie, of Kallispell, using the single ring ceremony.
As guests entered the church Mrs. Angus Doney played a program of organ music, during which Jack Haines, of Missoula, sang "O Promise Me," and "When I'm With You." The couple stood unattended before the altar banked with garden flowers, and decorated with a tall candelabra holding seven white tapers. Mr. and Mrs. Kirkelie received congratulations in the front of the church, after which Mr. and Mrs. Clifford J. Haines, cousins of the bride, entertained 18 guests at the bungalow, near Bonner, at a beautifully appointed luncheon.
The bride wore a black and white knitted ensemble, with white accessories, and carried a colonial bouquet.
Mrs. Kirkelie is a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Sies, of Oxford, Iowa. She is an alumnus of the Moline high school, of Moline, Illinois, and the Iowa Methodist Hospital Training School for Nurses, of Des Moines, Iowa. She was associated with the Iowa State Sanatorium for Tuberculosis at Oakdale, Iowa, for ten years as matron-dietitian, previous to her residence in Montana, at the Galien State Sanatorium at Deer Lodge, where she took the position as dietitian just a year ago.

Mr. Kirkelie is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kirkelie, of Bowbells, North Dakota, coming to Kallispell 20 years ago, and has lived in northwestern Montana ever since. He has always been associated with ranching, and the cattle and meat industry both in North Dakota and Montana, and will continue in that business.
Mr. and Mrs. Kirkelie left late in the afternoon for an extended trip. They will be at home in Kallispell later in the summer.

Claypool-Leach

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Claypool was the scene of a beautiful wedding Sunday afternoon, when Miss Araminta Claypool and Donald D. Leach were united in marriage in the presence of a group of relatives and friends.

Previous to the reading of the impressive ceremony by Rev. H. B. Ricketts, Gene Saunders, a cousin of the bride, sang "Because" by Guy d' Hardelot. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin" played by Miss Louise Hanger. She was preceded by Mrs. Chester Johnson, who wore a gown of yellow organdy, and Mrs. Lester Shryock, attired in green organdy. Each carried a lovely bouquet of roses. She was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Lester Shryock. Miss Hanger played "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" softly during the reading of the ceremony.

The bride was finely in a white silk organdy gown. She wore a finger length veil of silk tulle fashioned with a cap held in place by lilies-of-the-valley. Her arm bouquet was of Talsman roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Mrs. J. E. Claypool, mother of the bride, wore a dark blue silk dress with a shoulder bouquet of pink roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Nellie Leach, also wore dark blue.

The room had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. A mass of pink Tartarian had been woven into a white trellis and arch, at either side of which stood tall candelabra. Baskets of Tartarian and pink gladioli intermingled with white stock formed a lovely background.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Claypool of Kalispell. She is a graduate of Flathead county high school and Washington State Normal and has for the past four years been a teacher in the public school system of the city.

The groom is the son of Mrs. Nellie Leach, of Kalispell. He is a graduate of Flathead county high school and is now manager of the Libby Furniture Exchange at Libby, Montana.

Mrs. Leach's going-away costume was of luggage tan with accessories to match.

Following the reception, the happy young couple left by car for Calgary for a short wedding trip, after which they will make their home at Libby.

About 80 relatives and friends were present for the occasion. The bride descended the open stairway on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Helen Pettit. She was met at the altar in the living room by the bridegroom and his attendant, Neil Hollister, brother of the bride. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Prestbye and Miss Helen Marie Zeller, and little Harriet Jean Trippet was flower girl. The vows of the impressive ring service were exchanged before a white lattice work arch which was bedecked with clusters of petunias in varying shades of pink and flanked with candelabra containing lighted white tapers. Baskets of gladioli and other flowers completed the altar decorations. Proceeding the ceremony Miss Astrid Prestbye sang "O Promise Me" and at the close of the service she and her sister, Margaret, sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by	Mrs. Pettit. The ushers were Milton Hollister, Buster Foy, Barton Pettit and Charles Lykins. The bride wore her mother's wedding gown fashioned of white lace over satin of floor length and full length sleeves and her bouquet was of swansonia, pink rose buds and maiden hair fern, tied with satin and embroidered net. A finger-tip veil of white lace held in place with a coronet of pink rose buds completed her ensemble. Miss Prestbye wore rust colored satin, floor length, with gold accessories and a wrist corsage of Tallman rosebuds, and Miss Zeller was attired in peach colored satin trimmed in blue velvet with which she wore silver slippers and a wrist corsage of pink rosebuds intermingled with tiny blue flowers. Little Miss Trippet wore blue taffeta trimmed with pink rosebuds and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. Mrs. M. E. Hollister, mother of the bride, wore a black velvet gown and a shoulder corsage of gardenias, and Mrs. Wm. Cusick, grandmother of the groom, wore black crepe with a corsage of orchid gladioli. During the informal reception which followed the wedding the guests viewed the many beautiful wedding gifts which were displayed. A buffet luncheon was served during the evening from a lace-covered table beautifully appointed with crystal and silver service. White tapers and bouquets of flowers completed the setting. The lovely wedding cake was cut by the bride and was served by her attendants. Others who assisted with serving were Mrs. Sidney Whilborg and the Misses Helen Reed, Helen Fry, and Elaine McPheeters. Madames W. R. Martin, Fred Pettit, Olav Prestbye, W.
