Forhan William Kendall Kathleen marriage 16 Jul 1938 pg 8

Kendall-Forhan

At a lovely wedding ceremony uniting two pioneer Flathead families, Miss Kathleen Kendall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kendall, became the bride of William Forhan, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Forhan, this morning at 8 o'clock at St. Matthew's church. The Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell celebrated the nuptial mass in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the couple.

Tall bunches of pink and white sweet peas, daisies and regal lilies graced the altar and sanctuary and many lighted white tapers completed the setting.

A program of nuptial organ music was played by Mrs. F. J. Robischon. She played from the "March Pontifical," by Gounod, and also accompanied Mrs. Gregory Hebert, who sang "Ave Maria," by Rosewig, and "Pans Angelicus."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in a white satin wedding gown, fashioned with short train and a bolero. A narrow pleating of matching satin used at the neck and at the bottoms of the long fitted sleeves was the only trimming. Her finger tip veil was attached to a halo cap and orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of butterfly roses, swansonias and baby's breath.

lined with streamers of tulle and satin.

Miss Laura Jo Forhan, sister of the bridegroom, as the bride's only attendant, wore a gown of mousseline de soie and a pink picture hat. Her accessories were of white and she carried a bouquet of Briar Cliff roses and baby's breath, tied with a pink moline ribbon.

Mrs. Kendall and Mrs. Forhan, mothers of the couple, wore corsages of pink roses and baby's breath.

Ambrose Measure, a friend of both families, was best man. The ushers were Charles White and Thomas O'Connell.

Following the wedding a breakfast was served at the Temple Tea room, where covers were laid at a table beautifully decorated in pink and white centered with a bride's cake, for the wedding party and immediate relatives, numbering 20. Mrs. Hebert sang, "Because," accompanied by Mrs. Robischon, during the breakfast hour.

Both young people were born and reared here and have a large circle of friends. The bride attended St. Matthew's grade school and graduated from Flathead county high school. She later attended normal school at Bellingham, Washington. The bridegroom also graduated from Flathead and attended Montana State college at Bozeman. He was employed for two years with Fred Brinkman of this city and now is associated with J. Van Teyling.

an architect in Great Falls. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Forhan will be at home at 811 Fourth avenue south in Great Falls.

Clerk of Court Oliver F. Voss issued a marriage license this afternoon to Theodore A. Homann and Verona L. Agather, both of Kalispell.

Agather-Homann

One of the most beautiful weddings of the early summer season was solemnized at Trinity Lutheran church Saturday at five o'clock when Miss Verona Agather, daughter of Mrs. Martha Agather, became the bride of Theodore August Homann, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Homann of St. Paul.

The impressive service was in charge of the Rev. A. Jordan. Candle light from six tall candelabra which were lighted by Max Agather, and grouped about the church altar, and a profusion of white gladioli, white daisies and blue delphinium banked on either side of the altar, made a lovely setting for the couple as they knelt to exchange their vows.

George Neils of Libby played the wedding march from the opera, "Lohengrin," for the entrance of the charming bridal procession. The ushers, Arthur Neils of Portland and Howard Sugden of this city, led the march. They were followed by Mrs. Everett Silter, twin sister of the bride as the matron of honor and Miss Sylvia Brassett as bridesmaid. Little Shirley Homann of Libby, niece of the groom, as flower girl, and Neils Silter, nephew of the bride, as ring bearer, preceded Miss Verona Agather who entered upon the arm of her brother Victor Agather.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, was joined at the altar by the groom and his brother, Leonard Homann of Libby, who was his best man.

Preceding a brief address by the pastor, Mrs. Walter Neils of Libby sang "For You." Later she sang, "Still Wie Die Nacht, Soll Deine Liebe Sein", and then brought the marriage rites to a beautiful close with her song, "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied at the organ by George Neils. The Mendelssohn "Wedding March" was then played for the bridal party.

The bride was beautiful in a gown formerly worn by her twin sister, which was of white mousseline de soi made on Princess lines with a long train and pleated trim. A pleated ribbon in halo effect and clusters of orange blossoms held her veil in place. Her bouquet was of Humboldt Hobardia and Maiden Hair fern.

The matron of honor wore a pink georgette gown with blue ribbon trim. The bridesmaid was attired in a mousseline gown in a lighter shade of pink. Both attendants wore French chapeau hats of pink mullins and pink flower trim. Their bouquets were of deep pink roses and blue delphinium.

The little flower girl wore a pink bouffant lace frock with blue ribbon trim and carried a basket of flowers. The ringbearer carried a calling.

Mrs. Agather, mother of the bride, was charming in a gown of ashes of roses lace with a corsage of pink roses and delphinium. Mrs. Homann, mother of the groom wore a lovely gown of blue lace and a corsage of gardenias. Both wore picture hats.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother for about 150 guests. The rooms were decorated with peonies and garden flowers. Wedding gifts were on display in one of the rooms. Refreshments were served in the dining room from a beautifully appointed table laid with a lace cloth and centered with candelabra. Mrs. Henry Schokenecht of Portland presided at the table. At another table, Miss Patricia Lindsay of Belton served the wedding cake.

Later a wedding dinner was held at the Temple Tea room for 40 relatives who were present for the wedding. Two long tables extended from a large, round center table and they were beautifully appointed with bowls of flowers and candles. After dinner toasts were given by various members of the family and special honors were bestowed upon Mrs. Mary Neils of Portland, grandmother of the bride.

The bride and groom left in the evening for a honeymoon trip to Waterton Lakes. They will return to Kalispell to make their home, where Mr. Homann is interested in the Mission Motor Inn garage.

The bride has been reared in Kalispell and is a graduate of the city schools. She attended Valparaiso University, Valparaiso, Ind., and then became a graduate nurse. She took her training at Lutheran Memorial, Cooke County, and Lying-In hospitals in Chicago.

The groom was born in New London, Minn., and received his grade school and high school education in Spooner, Wis., later graduating from Spooner Business college in 1930.

Out-of-town guests present included Mrs. Mary Neils, Miss Anne Neils, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neils and family of Portland; Henry Neils of Minneapolis; Victor Agather of New York City; Mr. and Mrs. George Neils and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Neils and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Agather and baby, Miss Jean Klenitz, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wichman, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Homann and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Badt, all of Libby, and Mrs. A. Homann of St. Paul.

Mrs. Theodore A. Homann, who before her marriage Saturday afternoon, July 9, was Miss Verona Agather, a popular young woman of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Homann will reside in Kalispell.

29 Nov 1938 pg 6

Marriage licenses were issued Saturday afternoon to Alvin Naccarato, Whitefish, and Lucille Burdington, Essexford, and to Victor P. Hundahl and Gladys Marie Evans, both of Kallispell.

In the account of the Evans-Hundahl wedding appearing in Tuesday's Inter Lake the names of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Evans, of Whitefish, grandparents of the bride were intentionally omitted.

Evans-Hundahl

Miss Gladys Evans and Victor Hundahl, both of Kallispell, were united in marriage at the country home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stewart, Sunday afternoon, November 27. The rites were read before the fireplace by the Rev. Walter H. Sandy of Central Christian church. Miss Marjory Evans of Whitefish and Maurice Hundahl were the attendants.

After the ceremony Mrs. Stuart served a delightful luncheon to those present.

The bride was formerly of Whitefish where she graduated from high school and the bridegroom was graduated from Flathead county high school. They will make their home in Kallispell, where Mr. Hundahl is associated with his father in business.

Those present at the wedding included Mrs. Henrietta Evans, mother of the bride, and the Misses Marjory and Hazel Evans, all of Whitefish; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hundahl, parents of the bridegroom, Mrs. Doyle Sampson, and son, Andy Sampson, Maurice Hundahl and Andy Mills of Kallispell and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Stuart of Columbia Falls.

9 MARRIAGE LICENSES
ISSUED HERE SATURDAY

That June is the month of weddings is somewhat confirmed in the fact that Clerk of Court Oliver P. Vore Saturday issued nine marriage licenses, which is a record for this year so far for daily applications to obtain permits to wed.

They were issued to Bruce A. Davis, Colarabin Falls, and Ma Mae Doyle, Whitefish; Geoffrey Lyons, Kellogg, Idaho, and Barbara L. Deaton, Whitefish; Reynolds Hungerford, Rockford, Ill. and Mary Zoe Stech, Chariton, Neb.; Thomas P. Gase, Niarada, and Florence M. Tiegen, Kalispell; William C. Rhodes, Flathead Mine, and Marie K. Margen, Hot Springs; Donald M. Prossell and Muriel W. Brown, both of Olney; Alvin F. Gerke and Ada Jay Best, Taylor, both of Whitefish; Merritt S. James and Bernice G. Brekhus, both of Kalispell; and to Francis H. Robby and Barbara D. Fogarty, both of Kalispell.

Stech-Hungerford

Surrounded by lovely June flowers and in the presence of many friends, Miss M. Zoe Stech, on Sunday, June 19, became the bride of Roy Hungerford. The informal wedding took place at 12:30 o'clock at the Methodist Episcopal church.

An unusual and delightful feature of the occasion was the music, performed for the most part by youthful artists. Donald Huck, boy soprano and a pupil of Mrs. Hungerford's at Central Junior high school, sang "Because." The accompaniment was played by Dale Cutler, also one of Mrs. Hungerford's pupils.

As the strains of the song ended, another youthful musician, Arden Stech, brother of the bride began playing the wedding march from Lohengrin, and the bridal party entered the church. The bride was attended by Mrs. K. Friedley and the groom by Jack Stech.

The bride was charmingly attired in a tailored costume of white sheer veel, accented by a navy beloro embroidered in white. Accessories were white and included a hand lace handkerchief which her mother also carried at her wedding. Her bouquet was of Butterfly roses and Swansonia.

Mrs. Friedley wore a cream sharkskin suit with rust-colored accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses.

Rev. Eickerts officiated them at the altar and performed the impressive ceremony, during which Verne Stech, on the violin accompanied by Dale Cutler on the piano, softly played "O Promise Me."

Congratulations and good wishes were showered upon the happy pair.

The wedding party went from the church to the home of Mrs. A. E. Mattsson where at tables beautiful with forget-me-nots and English daisies, they enjoyed a delicious luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hungerford left by car for Glacier park and plan to tour the west and south. They will return in late August to Rockford, Illinois, where Mr. Hungerford teaches science in the high school.

During her three years of teaching in Kalispell, Mrs. Hungerford has won a host of friends who regret her departure, but rejoice in her happiness and unite in wishing her the greatest possible measure of joy and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Faye Stech, parents of the bride with their sons, Jack and Arden, came from Chadron, Nebraska to be present at the wedding. With them also came Mrs. Ella Stech, the bride's great aunt, and Mr. Hungerford's mother, Mrs. Helen Hungerford of Macomb, Illinois.

Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Friedley, formerly Miss Lee Luckett, and Mr. Friedley; Miss Ionna Hanson and Lewis Bates, all of Missoula.
