

Priest Robert G Roche Eileen Kathryn marriage 29 Oct 1938 pg 8

Roche, Priest

In the presence of 40 relatives and friends one of the season's loveliest fall weddings was solemnized this morning at 10 o'clock at the Temple Tea room, when Miss Eileen Kathryn Roche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Roche, became the bride of Robert G. Priest, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Priest of St. James, Minnesota, the Rev. Father O'Farrell of St. Matthew's church officiating.

Preceded by her attendants, the bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Mary Halpin and Miss Laura Knott. The aisle to the altar, arranged with a profusion of chrysanthemums, and lilies, ferns and pom-poms in varying shades of bronze, was flanked with tall baskets of matching flowers and tall candelabras holding lighted ivory tapers.

The bride was attired in a gown of ivory satin, fashioned on empire lines with a long train and with shirring on the shoulders. The puffed sleeves were tight fitting from elbow to wrist. Her long veil was held high at the temples with pearls and fell to the hem of her long train. Her bouquet of Token roses, lilies-of-the-valley, orchids and ferns, was tied with a shower of lilies-of-the-valley and lace.

Miss Kathryn Harris of Chicago and Miss Joan Nelson of Masoula were bridesmaids and Miss Jean Margaret Roche, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Their Empire taffeta gowns were in bronze shades, fashioned with short puff sleeves, full skirts and short trains. Each wore a large picture hat of brown velvet and matching mits and sandals and each bouquet was of bronze chrysanthemums and gold lilies, tied with shaded ribbon to match the gowns.

Dr. John D. Roche, brother of the bride, was best man and Dale L. Huff of Palo Alto, Calif., cousin of the bride, and Robert Atherton were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a teal blue gown, floor length, with matching hat and gold accessories. Her corsage was of Tallman roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. The beautifully appointed table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, which was cut by the bride. Tallman roses and ivory candles in silver candelabras adorned the ends of the long table. Miss Halpin and Miss Knott played softly during the breakfast hour.

The bride is a graduate of the Williston, North Dakota high school and St. Catherine college of St. Paul, where she met the bridegroom while he was attending the University of Minnesota. Mr. Priest, who is associated in business with his father, is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Priest left this afternoon on a two-weeks' wedding trip and after Nov. 15 will be at home at 132 Seventh avenue south in St. James.

Pengelly-Shew

At a beautiful home wedding performed Friday evening, June 3, Miss Ruth Pengelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pengelly, was united in marriage to Wayne Shew, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Shew. The impressive ring ceremony was read by Rev. Emma M. Ness of the Church of the Nazarene in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

Cecil and Keith Shew sang "I Love You Truly," as the bridal party took its place before a white altar placed under a beautifully arranged arch made from bridal wreath and snapdragons and a background of many spring flowers.

The bride was attired in a light blue taffeta gown with which she wore white accessories and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and snapdragons. Her sisters, Thelma and Mable Pengelly, who attended her as bridesmaid and maid of honor, wore peach colored silk and yellow organdy dresses. Paul Ebert was best man.

Refreshments were served following the wedding and each guest received a piece of the wedding cake which was cut by the bride.

They were attended by Clem Swore and Homer Henricksen. To the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. J. M. Carlson, the wedding party was preceded down the aisle by little Patty Bolton as flower girl, where they were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Harry Henricksen. Mrs. Arthur Overby sang "Untill," just before the ceremony, and Mrs. Carlson played softly at the organ during the service. Following the wedding a reception was held at the Henricksen home where about 80 guests were served refreshments. Mrs. H. E. Robbin and Mrs. Oscar Moon poured at a beautifully appointed table which was centered with sweet peas and baby's breath. Mrs. D. C. Nixon favored the group with a number of piano selections and Miss Leona Henricksen sang a solo, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," accompanied by Mrs. Nixon. The bride was born and reared in Kalispell and attended the city schools graduating from Flathead county high school. She attended St. Olaf's college in Minnesota and later taught near Kalispell for three years before leaving for California. Dr. Shuster recently graduated from a chiropractic school in California and following a short wedding trip in the park they will leave for San Jose where he will engage in his profession. |

Wood-Thorvilson
 A marriage of beauty and charm took place at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, October 9, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Wood, 294 Fifth avenue east north, when Miss Emily Lorinda Wood and Cecil A. Thorvilson said marriage vows before the Rev. H. B. Ricketts of the Methodist church in the ring service, which was read in the presence of 60 relatives and friends.
 Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a long-sleeved floor-length gown of white satin and English lace, made with a neck and fashioned on Princess lines. Her finger-tip veil of tulle was held in place with a halo of swansonla and shell pink rose buds. She carried an arm bouquet of Brier Cliff roses, swansonla and maiden hair fern, tied with an embroidered scarf of white lace and satin ribbon.
 The service was read by soft candle light in front of an arch, lovely with evergreens and flowers, flanked on each side with tall white tapers and tall baskets of pink dahlias.
 Miss Dorothy Thorvilson, sister of the bridegroom, sang "Oh, Promise Me," accompanied by Miss Marian Schranz, who also played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party advanced to the altar, led by the bride's two little nieces, Betty Millhouse, in peach taffeta, and Rita Mae Campbell, in blue silk, each carrying a basket from which they scattered sweet peas and sweet allysum.
 Mrs. Ed Rose, sister of the bride, groom, as matron of honor, wore a floor-length gown of turquoise blue taffeta and a wrist corsage of Butterfly roses and maiden hair fern.

 George Wood, brother of the bride, was best man, and M. Dale Gorton was usher. The Misses Margaret and Astrid Prestbye sang "I Love You Truly."
 The bride's mother, Mrs. M. R. Wood, wore navy blue silk with a corsage of Hollywood roses and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. A. O. Thorvilson, was attired in black silk and her flowers were Talisman roses.
 The Thorvilson home, where a reception was held immediately after the wedding, was softly lighted and was a bower of lovely fall flowers and foliage. The bridal party was seated at a long table, set with crystal and silver and centered with a crystal bowl of pink dahlias and white clematis, and flanked with white tapers in crystal holders.
 The guests were served from a table attractive with centerpieces of flowers, candles and silver, where Mrs. G. E. Millhouse poured and was assisted in serving by Misses Margaret and Astrid Prestbye, Marian Schranz and Dorothy Thorvilson. The artistic wedding cake was served by Mrs. M. Dale Gorton after the bride had cut the first piece and served the mothers.
 For her wedding trip the bride wore a black silk print dress with black wool coat and matching hat and accessories. After a two weeks trip to points in Washington the couple will be at home at 196 Sixth avenue east north.
 Both young people are graduates from Flathead county high school and have a large circle of friends here.
 Out-of-town guests included Charles Wood, Milwaukee, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Thorvilson, Asa-wam, Mont., and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Falkner Libby.

11 Jul 1938 pg 4

Winkler-Weyl
At a charming wedding at the summer home of her parents at Point Caroline, Miss Audrey Winkler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Winkler, became the bride this morning of Kenneth C. Weyl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Weyl of St. Paul. The rites were read by the Rev. M. A. Cookson of Christ Episcopal church at 11 o'clock in the presence of about 20 relatives and friends of the couple.
Given in marriage by her father the bride was attired in a floor length gown of white organza over ivory satin with lace bolero. She wore a short veil and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses, swansonia and maiden hair ferns with tulle and satin streamers. Miss Elsa Winkler was her sister's bridesmaid and she wore a white organza gown, floor length, and carried a bouquet of pale blue delphinium and Johanna Hill roses. Robert Kilen of St. Paul, a friend of the groom, was best man.
Following the wedding a breakfast was served from a beautifully appointed table centered with a long, low basket of pale pink roses, white bells and baby's breath.
Both young people attended the University of Minnesota and are sorority and fraternity members. Following a wedding trip they will make their home in St. Paul.
Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Weyl and daughters, Mayran and Virginia of St. Paul, parents and sisters of the bridegroom; Mrs. Ricka Mead and daughter, Kathryn, of Missoula; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nelson and son, George, of Aberdeen, Wash.; Bruce Brink of St. Paul.

Adams-White

The G. H. Adams home at Lakeside was the scene of a lovely out-of-door wedding Wednesday afternoon, June 15, when Miss Luella Adams, daughter of Mrs. G. H. Adams, became the bride of Thain White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White of Kalispell. The rites were read by the Rev. Harold C. Stark, of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of about 40 relatives and friends of the couple before a beautifully arranged arbor which was a bower of spring flowers, flanked by spruce bushes at either side.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. Ben McKinley sang "I Will Be True." Mrs. McKinley also played the wedding march.

The bride wore a white satin gown fashioned on princess lines. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of pink rose buds and swansonia.

Mrs. Phil Johnson, as maid of honor, wore peach organza and a coronet of Taltzman roses and yellow pansies. Miss Sue deYong and Miss Brosia White, sister of the groom, as bridesmaids wore yellow organza and pale green chiffon and identical coronets of yellow rosebuds and lavender sweetpeas.

Glenn Cox was best man and Wayne Bull and Lloyd White, cousin of the groom, were ushers.

Mrs. Adams was attired in a white afternoon dress and wore a corsage of gardenias and Mrs. White wore a suit of natural tropical sportsweat and a corsage of rosebuds and veronica.

Following the wedding a luncheon was served by Mrs. Adams, mother of the bride. A lovely wedding cake centered the table where favors were placed for the wedding party. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of spring flowers.

For her going-away outfit the bride wore a gray tailored suit with black accessories. Following a short wedding trip the couple will make their home on the groom's ranch at Dayton.

Mrs. White is a graduate of Flathead County high school and the University of Montana and for several years has taught school in western Montana. The groom is also a graduate of Flathead County high school and is engaged in farming.

Out-of-town guests included Dr. James Hunter of Seattle, brother of the bride; Ernest Lotz of Seattle, and Miss Elizabeth Hughes and Lloyd White, cousins of the groom from Illinois.

Willis                      Willard Jr                      Price                      Frances                      marriage                      27 Dec 1837 pg 8

Price-Willis

Miss Frances Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Price of Kallispell, became the bride of Willard Willis, Jr., of Bozeman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Willis of Plains at a pretty home wedding Monday December 26, at 10 o'clock, at the Price home, 27 Sixth street west.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold C. Stark of the First Presbyterian church before immediate friends and relatives. Cantabrias holding cathedral candles and baskets of white chrysanthemums and ferns formed the background where the vows were taken. Miss Louise Hanger played "I Love You Truly" just before the Lohengrin wedding march.

The bride came down the stairs on the arm of her father, preceded by the maid of honor, Miss Helen Jorgensen. She was dressed in an afternoon dress of boy blue with insets of adenon lace, with which she wore dubonnet accessories and carried a bouquet of roses, chrysanthemums, snapdragons and sweet alyssum with white streamers.

The maid of honor was dressed in a plum afternoon dress with matching accessories and carried a nosegay bouquet of roses, snapdragons, and chrysanthemums with pale green streamers.

Herbert Thompson of Bozeman, a fraternity brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

Mrs. Price, mother of the bride, wore wine crepe with black accessories. Mrs. Willis, mother of the bridegroom, also wore a wine crepe dress with brown accessories. Each wore a corsage of gardenias.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the Blue Moon Tea room. The table was set for the wedding party, the bride's parents, the bridegroom's parents and sister, and Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Stark. The table was decorated with chrysanthemums and white candles, and a lovely wedding cake which was cut by the bride and maid of honor.

Mrs. Willis, who has been attending the University of Montana for the past two years, is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and Spur national honorary. The bridegroom is a graduate of Montana State college and is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity and Alpha Chi Sigma, and is assistant chemist at the government experiment station at Bozeman.

They will be at home to their friends after a wedding trip, at 614 South-Seventh, Bozeman.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Willard Willis and daughter, Iris Jean of Plains, Montana.
