PETER CALDER

It is with deep regret that the many old-time friends and neighbors of Peter Calder heard of his very sad and sudden passing in Kalispell a few days ago.

Mr. Calder or Little Pete as he was always called, was a rancher in the Pleasant Valley country for the past 25 years—having been a next-door neighbor to the late Peter Coniff, who died two years ago this next month. And like Mr. Coniff,

Mr. Calder was a bachelor who always had the latch string hanging out and a neighbor or visitor was always most welcome—"the real old western hospitality."

The past several years Mr. Calder had worked for the Northern Montana Forestry association. He had been in ill health the past two years and last summer collapsed on look-out duty and had to be brought out on a stretcher. It is understood Mr. Calder knew he was suffering from cancer of the stomach and this knowledge with his suffering led to his sad end, in Kalispell.

A sister, living in Ontario was the only known relative. He was a native of Ontario.

Of Scotch-Irish descent, Mr. Calder had a keen sense of humor. He was a great reader and enjoyed community affairs. His place was the site chosen for the community picnic for Fourth of July for many years and he always gave kindly and liberally of all he had. He was proud of always having a most immaculate house and yard.

"Little Pete" will be missed with deep regret by all the old timers.

AN OLD NEIGHBOR.
