

FREMONT N. HAINES

Funeral services for Fremont N. Haines were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Harold C. Stark of the Presbyterian church. The services of the Odd Fellow Lodge were also conducted at the chapel by William Auman, Past Grand. During the service Lyle Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Carr. The chapel was filled by the many friends and beautiful flowers were banked in abundance across the entire front of the chapel. Friends acting as pall bearers were Lew Switzer, J. E. Rockwood, W. J. Linstead, Frank Liebig, A. S. Howard and W. F. Rueggger. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Fremont N. Haines was born at Upland, Indiana, on October 10th, 1856. There he attended the public schools and later engaged in the mercantile business. On July 27th, 1782, he was married to Doshie C. Smith. Six children were born to this marriage.

In the year 1901, he moved with his family to Kalispell, and entered upon his duties as Supervisor of the Flathead National Forest, to which position he was appointed by Gifford Pinchot, the then newly constituted Chief Forester of the United States. At that time and for many years thereafter the Flathead Forest included what is now Glacier National Park, as well as all of Northwestern Montana to the Idaho line. To Mr. Haines fell the opportunity to initiate and organize the activities of the federal service for this forest, and he continued in this work for many years. Thereafter he engaged in the mercantile business at Kila where he continued to reside until recently, when he moved to Kalispell.

Mr. Haines passed away at Kalispell, Montana, July 5th, 1938, at the age of 81 years. His wife and two of his children, Laura and Charles, preceded him in death. He is survived by two sons, Roscoe Haines of Bonner, Montana, and Fred S. Haines, of San Marino, California, and two daughters, Blanche Walchli of Kalispell, and Leta Wells, of Whitefish, and several grandchildren; also by a brother, Morton Haines, of Canby, Oregon, and a sister Mrs. Sidney Nottingham, of Hartford City, Indiana.

He held continuous membership in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for the past 53 years, affiliating with Lake Lodge No. 50 of Kalispell on April 5, 1904.

It may be said of him that no matter how busy he was, he always found time to visit with his friends, and that among the things he cherished most were the many warm and enduring friendships which he enjoyed.

OSCAR G. HAINES

Funeral services for Oscar G. Haines were held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Masonic Temple in Whitefish with Rev. Harold C. Stark reading the services. Before and after the service solo selections were sung by Clide Carr with Mrs. Carr accompanying him at the piano. The casket was placed in the center of the hall and banked with many beautiful floral offerings. The hall was filled to capacity by his many friends from Whitefish and Kalispell. Those acting as pall bearers were David Stimpson, Jas. R. Wilson, A. A. O'Claire, Marion Wilson, Eric Walters and Urban Holter. Interment was in the Whitefish city cemetery under direction of Waggener & Campbell.

Obituary

Oscar G. Haines was born February 14, 1901 at Columbia Falls, Mont., the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haines, and passed away Friday Sept. 16, 1938 at the Sisters' hospital in Kalispell.

In 1902 he moved with his parents from Columbia Falls to Whitefish lake where they resided for many years before moving to the city of Whitefish. With the exception of several years when he worked in the Texas oil fields Mr. Haines lived his entire life in and near Whitefish. In 1934 Mr. Haines was united in marriage to Miss Jessie Dewar of Whitefish and from this union one child, a daughter, Alice Kay, was born in September, 1937.

Although crippled for a number of years Mr. Haines was always active outdoors in both work and his hobbies. He was an enthusiastic sportsman at all times and was well known among many friends as an excellent angler and hunter. For the past number of years he owned and operated a ranch at Star Meadows.

Those surviving him are his mother, Mrs. Dora Haines, his wife, Jessie; daughter, Alice Kay; and sister, Helen, all of Whitefish and his father Frank of Alaska and grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Haines of Flathead lake. In addition to a large number of close relations his passing will be mourned by a host of friends.

FUNERAL SERVICES THIS MORNING FOR MRS. T. C. HAND

A multitude of friends gathered this morning at the Kalispell Funeral Home for the funeral of Mrs. Sarah M. Hand, wife of T. C. Hand, whose death occurred at Los Angeles last Wednesday. Services were by Rev. Father O'Farrell of St. Matthew's church, and interment was in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Mrs. Hand had been in failing health for the past two years, and last December, with her husband, went to California, following their usual custom, to spend the winter with their son and daughter. Her health gradually failed, and she passed away on April 6. Present with her at the time of her death were Mr. Hand; her daughter, Mrs. Helena Whitehead, and her son, Roger Hand.

Mrs. Hand was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Masterson, pioneer residents of LaCrosse, Wisconsin, and was born April 1, 1868. She came to Kalispell in 1894 to visit her sister, Mrs. J. P. Rogers, and became acquainted with Mr. Hand to whom she was married at Seattle in July, 1901. They have made their home in Kalispell ever since.

Besides her husband she is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Whitehead; two sons, Roger Hand of Los Angeles, and Thomas Hand, Jr., of Salt Lake City; a granddaughter, Mrs. Kathleen Whitehead of Los Angeles; her sister, Mrs. J. P. Rogers, and her niece, Mrs. Florence Cassil, both of Seattle.

Mrs. Hand was greatly beloved by the many friends she had made during her long residence here, and who deeply regret her passing. She was very active in charitable and church work, and was a member of St. Matthew's Church and Altar society.

Prior to the service at the funeral home at 10 a. m., mass was said at St. Matthew's chapel.

The active pall bearers were: Gregory Duffy, C. A. Hummer, A. R. Johnson, A. J. Braunberger, T. C. Elliot and W. H. Young.

Honorary bearers were: Don Barry, A. L. Hackett, Jas. MacLean, L. P. Nichols, Howard King, J. L. Erickson and C. B. Anderson, all of Great Falls; Robert H. Spoer, M. J. Tucker, James Picha, Lew Switzer, George H. Grubb, H. C. Karow, Leland Tansel, Hans Walch, C. O. Conrad, John Uehlinger, L. C. O'Connell, J. B. McCarthy, Maurice Driscoll, Dr. W. Q. Conway and Leon B. Allen, all of Kalispell, and Fred Emmett of Butte.

Dr. John Hand of Portland, a nephew, and other relatives from Spokane were here for the funeral.

Great masses of flowers banked the altar and gave evidence of the high esteem in which Mrs. Hand was held by all who knew her.
