THEODORE TORBENSON

Theodore Torbenson, former Kallispell resident and one time president of the Bank of Commerce, died Monday morning at a Minneapolis hospital, according to word received by Mrs. Iver Iverson, his niece.

Although ill for some time, physicians had been unable to completely diagnose his illness and immediate cause of death was not announced.

Mr. Torbenson had been engaged in the brokerage business in Minneapolis since 1936. He had been in brokerage activities in Seattle since leaving here in 1926 and for a time maintained offices in both Seattle and Minneapolis.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Raymond, an attorney in Seattle, and Sherman, manager of the Western Pine association at Eugene, Oregon. All were with him at the time of his death.
