Mongan-Cornelison
 Miss Ruth Mongan, daughter of L. O. Mongan, and Dillen Cornelison, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cornelison, were united in marriage at a pretty candlelight service performed Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Cornelison home. The Rev. L. N. Darnell officiated in the presence of 44 relatives and friends of the couple. Attractive decorations were carried out in blue and white.
 The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a light blue dress with which she wore a corsage of gardenias and pink roses. She was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Helen Jean Cornelison, who wore a powder blue dress and a corsage of gardenias. Seth Mongan, brother of the bride, was best man.
 During the reception which followed the couple opened many lovely wedding gifts. Light refreshments were served the guests. The bridal couple and their attendants and parents were seated at a table, decorated with lilies of the valley and lighted blue tapers. Individual packages of wedding cake were presented to each guest.
 Following a short wedding trip the couple will be at home at 822 Fifth avenue west.

Caldwell-Fry

Amid a setting of floral beauty and soft candle light in the Epworth Methodist church, Miss Willie Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElroy, became the bride of Fred M. Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fry Saturday morning, June 8, at 10 o'clock. The impressive rites were read by the Rev. H. B. Ricketts in the presence of many relatives and friends of the couple.

A profusion of palms and ferns and baskets of cut flowers decorated the altar and tall candelabra held lighted white tapers, white peonies in shades of pink and ribbon streamers lined the aisle. James Lavin sang "O, Promise Me" and "Believe Me All Those Endearing Young Charms," accompanied by Miss Lucille Moc, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Mr. McElroy, wore a lovely gown of white lace net over white taffeta, fashioned with a bouffant skirt and a long train. Her illusion veil was also long and fell from a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses, white sweet peas and adenium fern. She was attended by her sister, Wilma, whose floor-length gown was of pink net over taffeta and was also fashioned with a full skirt. She wore a blue wreath in her hair and carried a bouquet of Talisman roses, sweet peas and ferns.

Mrs. McElroy, mother of the bride, was attired in a navy blue dress with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Fry, chose a dress of royal blue and her accessories were white and her corsage was of white rose buds.

Robert Gorton was best man and Ray Chrisinger and Bud Mead were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the McElroy home for the wedding party and close friends and relatives. Light refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed buffet table, centered with a tiered wedding cake and adorned with flowers. Mrs. Fred Borgan, sister of the bride, and Miss Lucille Ecklund assisted with the serving. The bride's many lovely wedding gifts were displayed in the living room on a large table.

The young couple left following the reception for the coast and upon their return will be at home at 419 Second avenue west. Both are graduates of Flathead county high. Mrs. Fry attended the state normal school at Havre and Mr. Fry the State University at Missoula.

10 Sep 1940 pg 8

Marriage licenses have been issued to Edmond D. Furlong and Dorothy M. Hewitson and to Harry Lanegan and Veola McCully, all of Kalispell.

Hewitson-Furlong

Miss Dorothy Hewitson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hewitson, became the bride of Eddy Furlong, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Furlong of Chester, at a pretty candlelight wedding performed at the Hewitson home Saturday evening, September 7. The rites were read by the Rev. P. B. Hillis in the presence of immediate relatives of the couple.

Tall baskets of French merigolds and asters were used in the living room, and made a lovely background for the wedding group.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in rose-colored lace, fashioned with long fitted waist and sleeves and floor-length skirt. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli and swansonia, tied with white satin and wore a halo of swansonia. Her sister, Ella Mae Hewitson, as bridesmaid, wore an Alice blue organdie and net formal and carried peach colored gladioli. Gene Blott was best man.

Mrs. Hewitson, mother of the bride, wore wine lace and a corsage of white gladioli and Mrs. Furlong, the bridegroom's mother, blue green crepe and her corsage was also white gladioli.

Mrs. J. M. Carlson played the wedding march from Lohengrin and Don Shepard sang "I Love You Truly" just before the entrance of the bride.

A small reception for about 20 friends of the young couple was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Leonard Ehleng served at the beautifully appointed bride's table, which was arranged in the dining room and centered with a tiered wedding cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Furlong left on a wedding trip to Yellowstone park and California. For going-away the bride chose a black knitted suit, with black and white accessories.

The bride attended local schools and since her graduation from Flathead county high school has been employed in the office of the O'Neil Lumber company. The bridegroom received his education in Chester schools. He has been with the Sunset Auto company for the past five years.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mrs. E. R. Furlong and little son, David, of Chester, and Miss Marian Hewitson, sister of the bride, of Missoula.

Gaines John E Haderli Alice marriage 30 Dec 1940 pg 8

Haderli-Gaines

On Christmas eve a very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Gaines of the east lake shore, when Miss Altee Haderli of Helena became the bride of their son, John E. Gaines. The double ring ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. L. N. Field of Bethel Lutheran church of KallsPELL.

Carrying out the holiday decorative scheme, cedar boughs flanked the long stairway and formed the background for the white draped altar. Lighted tapers in silver candleabra and two decorated Christmas trees enhanced the pleasing effect.

Before the ceremony Lura Anne Gaines, sister of the bridegroom sang "At Dawning," and after the service, "Bacause." She was accompanied by Mrs. Hector Robbin, who also played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride wore a white floor length gown of nylon lace and a Juliet wedding veil. She carried a white prayer book with an orchid rosette and streamers. Miss Marjorie Gaines, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of peach colored lace and a corsage of violets. Cecil Smith of Helena was the best man.

An informal reception was held following the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haderli, formerly of Lewistown. She has been teaching in the Helena schools for the past several years. Mr. Gaines is a graduate of the University of Washington and is now teaching in Helena. Last year he taught in the KallsPELL schools. The couple will leave for Helena at the close of the holidays to make their home.

Jorgenson-Hays

Miss Margaret Jorgenson, daughter of Mrs. James Jorgenson of this city, became the bride of Clarence J. Hays, son of Mrs. J. A. Hays, of Ashton, Illinois, at an impressive double ring ceremony solemnized at Christ Episcopal Church at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, June 23. The Rev. Thomas Allen of the First Presbyterian church officiated in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the couple.

Baskets of white peonies and mock orange blossoms, intermingled with ferns, and lighted tapers in candle-labra, made a lovely setting for the wedding party.

Mrs. Donald Davis, accompanied by Mrs. W. L. Dickinson at the organ sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and "Because." Mrs. Dickinson played Lohengrin's wedding march for the entrance of the bridal party.

The bride, who entered on the arm of her cousin, Arthur Mosby, wore a princess gown of white silk lace over satin, fashioned with a high neckline, fitted sleeves and a long train. Her finger-tip veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley with pale pink sweet peas in the white shower streamers.

Miss Helen Jorgenson, sister of the bride, as maid of honor was attired in a floor-length gown of shaded hyacinth blue chiffon. She also wore a small hat of pink sweet peas and ribbon and carried a bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

Janice Jorgenson, the bride's niece, as the little flower girl, was daintily attired in a floor-length dress of peach net and a hat which corresponded with that of the maid of honor. She carried a nosegay of pink sweet peas and roses with baby blue streamers.

The bridegroom was attended by James Jorgenson, Jr., brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jorgenson wore a floor-length gown of wine lace and a corsage of tulleman roses and sweet peas. She was escorted by Franklin Mills, who acted as usher.

After the wedding a reception was held at the Jorgenson residence for the wedding guests. Mrs. I. L. Freudenthal, aunt of the bride, presided at the table with Mrs. James Jorgenson, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, cutting the tiered wedding cake, which was in the form of a cross.

Mrs. Hays attended local schools and graduated from Flathead County high school and from Bellingham Normal college. She has been teaching at Dayton, Wash., for several years. Mr. Hays attended Ashton, Ill., schools and is employed at Waitsburg, Wash., where they will reside following a wedding trip to the coast. For traveling the bride selected a print dress with navy coat and matching accessories and wore a corsage of white roses.

Riffo-Herbert

The First M. E. church of Missoula was the scene of a wedding ceremony, performed Sunday morning, June 16, by the Rev. M. E. Van de mark, in which Miss Helen Riffo of Missoula, daughter of Mrs. Lillian A. Simmonds of Los Angeles (formerly of Kalispell), became the bride of Hugh Herbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Herbert of Spokane. A profusion of spring flowers, softened by candlelight and the lighted cross, decorated the church.

As the guests assembled a program of organ music was given by Dr. Edward M. Little and Robert Herbert sang, accompanied by Miss Ruth Clough of Missoula.

Mrs. Charles Hetzer of Spokane, formerly Miss Betty King of Kalispell, was the matron of honor. She wore a floor length dress of yellow organdy and a small hat of matching color and carried a bouquet of yellow daisies. The bridesmaid was Miss Letitia Kleinhaus of Somers, who wore aqua organdy with matching hat and she carried pink daisies.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her brother, Raymond Riffo. She wore an old-fashioned gown of embroidered lace net, the wedding dress of her aunt, Mrs. C. W. Disbrow, and she carried a bouquet of orange blossoms.

Robert Herbert of Spokane, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

A wedding breakfast followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smart, for about 35 relatives and friends.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school and the University of Montana and for the past two years has been teaching in the Pony high school. Mr. Herbert is a graduate of the Lewis and Clark high in Spokane and will receive his B. A. degree from Montana State university next June. Himsl Matios A Wohlwend Lois license marriage 13 Jul 1940 pg 5 20 Jul 1940 pg 8

A marriage license has been issued to Mathios A. Himsl, Missoula, and Lois Wohlwend, Kalispell.

Wohlwend-Himsl

One of the season's most charming weddings was solemnized Thursday morning, July 18, when Lois Wohlwend, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wohlwend, 541 First avenue west, became the bride of Mathias Himsl of Missoula. The Rev. Father O'Farrell read the nuptial mass at 8:30 and witnessed the sacred rites to the accompaniment of soft organ music.

The beautiful rubrical altar, with its gold candelabras and many lighted candles, was flanked with a design of snow white flowers. Baskets of gladioli filled the apse and formed a white alcove in which the principals exchanged vows. With the introduction of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bride entered the chapel on her father's arm and proceeded to the foot of the altar, where they met the bridegroom, who entered from the sacristy.

The bride was attractive in her mother's wedding gown of liberty satin and lace. She wore a coronet of bovardia and a finger-tip veil of tulle and carried a lovely shower bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis, humboldtii and maiden hair ferns. With her bouquet she fingered a gold rosary, a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride was attended by Miss Lois Knauff, who was gowned in blue starched lace and carried a nosegay of pink roses and bovardia tied with pink ribbon and a shower of baby ribbon. W. L. Riddle of Pierna was best man.

Mrs. Wohlwend, mother of the bride, was dressed in dusty rose embroidered mesh and wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Himsl, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in navy and also wore a corsage of gardenias.

After the services a wedding breakfast was served at the Temple Tea room for the wedding party and immediate relatives. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Himsl, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wohlwend, Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Himsl and daughters, Rita, Leah and Bernadette, R. E. Hadwen, Miss Anna Engles of Baker, Walter Rowland of Missoula, Miss Lois Knauff of Missoula, W. L. Riddle of Pierna and Rev. Father O'Farrell.

Mrs. Himsl is a graduate of the Montana State University and is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Himsl is a graduate of St. John's University and this summer received his Master of Arts degree from the Montana State University. He has been superintendent of schools at Broadus for three years and is vice president of the Eastern Montana Education association.

Following several weeks' wedding trip to the west coast the couple will make their home at Broadus. For going away Mrs. Himsl wore a grey ensemble with red and navy accessories.

picture 30 Nov 1940 pg 3

A marriage license has been issued to Patrick C. Kelly and Marguerite F. Chittick, both of Vancouver, Washington.

Above is Mrs. Patrick C. Kelly of Vancouver, Washington, who was Miss Marguerite Chittick before her marriage at the home of her parents in Kalispell on November 19. Rev. C. S. Kleckner officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Chittick-Kelly

Miss Marguerite Chittick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Chittick, became the bride of Patrick C. Kelly, son of Mrs. P. T. Kelly of Vancouver, Washington, at a lovely candlelight ceremony solemnized at the home of her parents at 6:30 Tuesday evening, November 19. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. C. S. Kleckner of Central Christian church in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chittick, Jr., brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

A beautiful archway was arranged in the living room of amilax and ferns, with tall baskets of white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers in candelabra at each side.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. M. Spink sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. John Strosky, cousin of the bride, who also played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white brocaded satin. A hat of white velvet flowers and long white gloves completed her costume and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and sweet peas. A spray of white heather from Scotland for her bouquet was the gift of Mrs. Andrew Dunsire. Mrs. Herbert Chittick, Jr., was attired in a peach organdie crepe formal and carried a bouquet of pompons and tallman roses.

Marcia and Marilyn Chittick, nieces of the bride, dressed in pink and blue organdie, were the ring bearer and flower girl.

Mrs. H. Chittick, Sr., chose a dress of soldier blue crepe and wore a corsage of gardenias.

A reception for about 75 guests followed the ceremony. The refreshment table was arranged with a centerpiece of white pompons and amilax and lighted tapers in crystal holders. Mrs. Stella Bush, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. F. H. Keller poured. Mrs. Thomas Flynn cut the wedding cake, which was served from a side table, and Mrs. Elliot Chester, Mrs. Franklin Wheeler, Mrs. Delbert Fischer and Miss Carol McPheeters assisted in serving. Mrs. Ira Moore was in charge of the guest book.

Musical selections were presented during the reception by Dale Cutler who played piano numbers and also accompanied Mrs. Marion Ford, who sang "O, Promise Me" and "Because." Betty Hyde gave several violin numbers, accompanied by Norman Edmiston.

For going away the bride wore a green wool crepe dress with squirrel jacket and hat to match. Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will reside in Vancouver where Mr. Kelly is with the Northwestern Electric company. He is a graduate of the Vancouver high school. Mrs. Kelly graduated from Plymouth county high school and from the Eastern College of Education at Cheney. For the past five years she has taught in the grade schools at Vancouver.

Ross-Kidder

Miss Helen Virginia Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ross of Rexford was married to Sewell Kidde, son of Mrs. S. D. Kidder of Kalispell, on Saturday, April 6, at 4 p. m. The ceremony took place in the Epworth Methodist church with the Rev. H. B. Ricketts officiating. Pinks and floor baskets of pink snapdragons and white tulips, lighted softly by pink and white tapers in tall candelabra, formed the background. The long aisle was decorated with slender white pedestals topped with pink geraniums, bows and streamers of tulle and tapers in candelabra.

The bride, who entered with her father, wore a severely simple princess gown of ivory satin with long tightly fitted sleeves. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was caught to a frilled cap of the same material. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses in which puffs of tulle were mingled with the flowers.

Her only attendant was Miss Florence Bauer, who wore a princess gown of aqua chiffon with a short lace jacket of matching color. Her tiny hat was made entirely of pink sweetpeas, and her bouquet was a colonial arrangement of pink rosebuds, white allysium and blue forget-me-nots.

John Herbenson served as best man and Edward Freer and John Ladd were ushers.

Preceding the marriage service Mrs. Arthur Ovarby sang "Because" and "I Love you Truly," accompanied by Miss Laura Knott who also played the wedding marches.

A reception in the church followed the ceremony, after which the young couple departed on a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will make their home in Kalispell at 635 Second avenue east.

Robischon-Koppang

A beautiful autumnal wedding was solemnized at St. Matthew's church Monday, October 21, at 10 o'clock, when Miss Jean Robischon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robischon, became the bride of Joel Alvin Koppang, son of Mrs. Emma Koppang.

The beautiful church was flooded with sunshine, which poured through the stained glass windows. The altars were decorated with white dahlias and golden chrysanthemums.

Preceding the wedding an organ recital was given by Miss Gertrude Robischon, the bride's sister, and her brother, Franz, sang Rosewig's "Ave Maria" and Gounod's "Ave Maria."

The bridal party entered the church to the strains of Gounod's "March Pontifical" led by the ushers, Orion Koppang, brother of the groom, Albert Koppang, Ael McDown and Tom Robischon, the bride's brother.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Merth Fleming Thompson of Missoula, came next and was followed by the bride accompanied by her father. At the altar rail of the sanctuary they were met by the groom and his best man, LeRoy Seymour of Butte.

The impressive marriage service was read by the Rev. F. X. O'Farrell who was attended by two altar boys, Himmie and Johnny Robischon, the bride's younger brothers.

The bride was lovely in a white lace gown, floor length. She wore a finger-tip tulle veil, held in place with a Juliet cap. She carried a bouquet of deep red rose buds, which accentuated her dark eyes and hair.

The matron of honor wore a pleasing ensemble in teal blue with a small hat of pale gold ostrich plumes. Her bouquet was Talisman roses.

Mr. Koppang, after graduating from Flathead county high school attended Mayville Teachers' College in Mayville, N. D., and also a business college in Seattle. He is now associated with H. E. Richard in public accounting work. Mrs. Koppang graduated from Flathead county high school and attended the University of Montana at Missoula, and for the past two years has been employed in the office of the Garey Motor company.

After the wedding a delightful breakfast was served at the Temple Tea room with covers laid for 28.

The happy couple left for Spokane and Seattle on a short honeymoon and on their return will reside at the Agather apartments.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Severin Koppang, Polson; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Koppang, Holt; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Koppang, Bigfork; Mr. and Mrs. L. R. McKenzie, Missoula; Mr. and Mrs. Merth Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Herbert and Mrs. Ward Buckingham, Jr. of Missoula; Mr. and Mrs. Franz Robischon of Billings.
