Bolton-Robischon
 News of the wedding of Miss Helen Louise Bolton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Bolton of Lewistown, and Franz J. Robischon, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Robischon of Kalispell, is interesting to many Kalispell friends.
 The marriage took place in Lewistown Monday, June 17, at 10 o'clock at the Catholic parish house with the Rev. Father Rocque officiating in the presence of the immediate families and intimate friends of the couple.
 The bride wore an Alice blue ensemble with a white hat and white accessories and carried a bouquet of roses and baby's breath. She was attended by a sorority sister, Miss Jenn Gilmore, who was attired in a dusty pink ensemble with matching accessories and carried a bouquet of pink flowers. Dr. M. F. Keller of Great Falls, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the best man.
 Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Fergus hotel for the immediate families and the wedding party.
 Mrs. Robischon is a graduate from the Lewistown high school and the University of Montana. She is affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta, while Mr. Robischon graduated from Flathead county high school and attended Carroll college in Helena. They are spending their honeymoon on Flathead lake and will return to Lewistown the last of next week where the bridegroom is employed by the radio station.
 Among those attending the wedding were Lieut. Harold Barnes of Minneapolis, friends of the bridegroom, who flew to Lewistown to attend the wedding; Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Robischon and Jean, Gertrude, John and James Robischon, and Joe Koppang, Kalispell; Dr. and Mrs. M. F. Keller of Great Falls, and Miss Louise Remillard of Seattle.

Scott Joseph E Marsh Dorothy-Jane marriage 24 Jun 1940 pg 8

Marsh-Scott

Miss Dorothy-Jane Marsh, daughter of Mrs. Ida Marsh, and Joseph E. Scott, son of Charles E. Scott of Portland, were united in marriage Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the Epworth Methodist church at an impressive double ring ceremony, performed by the Rev. H. B. Ricketts, pastor of the church, in the presence of 200 guests.

The church was profusely decorated with white gladioli and lilies, with a touch of greenery accentuating the pure white color motif carried throughout. The aisle leading to the beautiful arch arranged at the altar was lined with flowers and streamers and many lighted candles and the lighted cross, completed the unusual effect.

Before the entrance of the bridal party Burnett Elliot sang "Ich Liebe Diche," accompanied by Mrs. Donald Nixon.

Little Harriet Macdonald in white silk marquisette with a Juliette cap of seed pearls, lighted the altar candles. Miss Laura Knott at the organ and Mrs. Ralph Brown, violin, played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridesmaids, Phyllis Swanson, Wilma Jordan, Geraldine Caswell, and Sylvia Brasset, entered. They wore floor-length gowns of white silk marquisette, with long bishop sleeves and lace insets in the net skirts and bodices. White Juliette caps of seed pearls, gifts from the bride, were worn by the attendants. A touch of color was added to the white ensemble by old fashioned nosegays with streamers of pastel colors.

Miss Elizabeth Waller of New York City, the maid of honor, attired the same as the bridesmaids, carried a sheaf of yellow gladioli.

Marilyn Moore and Roxann Rockwood, dainty in floor-length Alice-in-Wonderland gowns and carrying white baskets of flower petals, preceded the bride, who entered on the arm of their uncle, Otto Marsh. Her princess gown of white satin, fashioned with sweetheart neckline, fitted sleeves and a long train, was completed with a queen's crown halo and veil and she carried a sheaf of calla lilies. She was met at the altar by the bridegroom, who was attended by his father.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Marsh wore a floor-length gown of heaven blue with matching hat and a corsage of orchids. She was escorted by her nephew, Leonard Marsh, who acted as head usher. Lawrence O'Neil, Charles O'Neil and John O'Neil, cousins of the bride, were also ushers.

After the exchange of vows, Burnett Elliot sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Temple Tea Room for the wedding guests. Mrs. L. L. Marsh and Mrs. Otto Marsh, aunts of the bride, presided at the bride's table. The Misses Rosaloe Brinkman, Dorothy Dunn, Lois Vese and Mrs. Thomas Lacher and Mrs. Larry Waring assisted in serving. Mrs. Harry Henrickson, Jr., had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Fred Brinkman decorated the tea room for the reception.

Jerry Schnell sang "Thine Alone" and "Love Me, the World is Mine," accompanied by Mrs. Nixon, and music was furnished throughout the evening by Maurice Driscoll and Bert Hamlin.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue ensemble with matching accessories, and as she left her bouquet was caught by Wilma Jordan.

Mrs. Scott attended local schools and is a graduate of Whitman college. She has been employed at the Portland Medical school for the past year. Mr. Scott is a medical student at the University of Oregon Medical School at Portland. Following a short wedding trip they will be at home at Marquim Manor in Portland.

Holman-Stoeve

Beauty and simplicity was the keynote of the impressive Lutheran wedding ceremony performed in Bethlehem church at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, August 31, uniting Miss Dorothy Holman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Holman of Kalispell, and Robert E. Stoeve of Seattle. Dr. David Stoeve of Fargo, North Dakota, father of the bridegroom, officiated in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple.

Tall baskets of coral dahlias and statice adorned the chancel and lighted tapers in branched candelabra and smaller baskets of gladioli and asters completed the lovely setting for the rites, which were by candlelight.

The bride entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. J. M. Carlson, escorted by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of imported silk lace and net over taffeta, fashioned princess style. Her only jewelry was a beautiful antique gold and crystal necklace and her finger-tip veil was caught in a tiara of gardenias. She carried a bouquet of swansonia and maiden-hair fern, tied with brocaded satin ribbon.

Miss Marian Schranz, as maid of honor, wore rose net with matching doll hat and Miss Jane Hillis, bridesmaid, was attired in blue with matching hat. Both carried old-fashioned nosegays of snap dragons and rosebuds in colors harmonizing with their gowns and tied with matching bows.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Holman wore embroidered navy sheer, with matching accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds.

J. Howard Miller of Seattle was the best man and Arnold Tjomsland of Deer Park, Wash., was usher.

A small reception for immediate relatives and close friends followed immediately at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. O. A. Knox of Polson poured and Miss Frankie Hillis served the wedding cake.

Following a wedding trip to Olympic Peninsula and Pacific coast points, the couple will be at home at 4522 Brooklyn avenue in Seattle. For traveling the bride chose a wine velvet costume suit, with wine and gold accessories.

Mrs. Stoeve is a talented violinist, and received outstanding recognition for her musical ability during her college years. She played for two years with the Fargo, North Dakota, Symphony orchestra and also with the university orchestra in Idaho, besides making many public appearances at formal functions. Born and reared in the Flathead, she graduated from local schools and later attended Concordia Conservatory of Music, Fargo, N. D., University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho, and Concordia College, Moorhead, Minn. She is affiliated with Mu Phi Epsilon and Lambda Delta Sigma, music and social sororities.

Mr. Stoeve is a graduate of Fargo schools and attended Concordia college, Moorhead, and the University of Minnesota and is now attending law school at the University of Washington in Seattle. He is affiliated with Alpha Epsilon Sigma, the Commons club national fraternity of Delta Theta Phi, legal fraternity and he is now a law clerk with Palmer, Askren and Brothoist in Seattle.

Bride-Elect

Miss Idamarie Lorang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lorang, whose marriage to John Tangen, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Tangen, will be solemnized Monday, September 2, in St. Matthew's church. The bride-to-be has been much feted by her many friends and her wedding will be one of the nicest of early fall events.

Lorang-Tangen

Simple dignity marked the wedding of Miss Idamarie Lorang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Lorang, to John A. Tangen, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. Tangen, which took place Monday, September 2, 1940. The nuptial service was performed by the Rev. Father Francis O'Farrel of St. Matthew's church at 9 a. m.

The bride, who entered on the arms of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Walter LaBonte, was attired in a dressy black wool suit, trimmed with silver fox and featuring the new long-torso silhouette. With it she wore a white satin blouse and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, wedding gift from the bridegroom. Her corsage was of gardenias and stephanotis and she carried a rosepoint lace handkerchief, a family heirloom which had been given to her great-grandmother on her 25th wedding anniversary in 1890.

Miss Bette Lorang was her sister's only attendant. She wore a black crepe dress with full bishop sleeves, trimmed in red velvet braid, and her flowers were red gladioli fashioned in a lei.

George Wayo of Missoula was best man and the ushers were Fredric Lorang of Seattle, brother of the bride, and Thomas O'Connell.

For the wedding Mrs. Lorang, mother of the bride, chose a black novelty crepe dress, with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias, and Mrs. Tangen, the bridegroom's mother, wore black velvet with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage. Mrs. Ida A. Donovan, grandmother of the bride, wore a crepe frock in Indian Earth shade and a corsage of talisman roses.

The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of red and white asters and dahlias. Immediately following the ceremony the couple greeted their friends at the church and at 10 o'clock there was a wedding breakfast at the Lorang home for the immediate families and bridal party.

The table was centered with a tiered wedding cake and lighted white tapers, with all appointments in gold and white.

Mrs. Tangen attended the University of Colorado and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Mr. Tangen was graduated from the University of Montana in 1935, receiving his B.S. and Ph.C. degrees. He is employed at the Main Drug company in Butte. After a two weeks' wedding trip to the coast the couple will be at home in the Bannenstein apartments in Butte.

For her going-away outfit Mrs. Tangen wore a red and black frock, fashioned along military lines, with a double breasted blouse, fastened with brass buttons, and a black turban.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Fredric Lorang of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. George Kaye, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hebert of Missoula.

Tucker Orville Wheeler Nora marriage 14 Nov 1940 pg 8

Wheeler-Tucker

Miss Nora Wheeler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wheeler of Great Falls, became the bride of Orville Tucker, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Milan J. Tucker of this city, at an impressive but simple ceremony performed at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, November 9, in St. Matthew's church by the Rev. Father O'Farrell.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Oscar Brust. She wore a soldier blue suit with matching hat and a corsage of gardenias. She was attended by her sister, Lois Wheeler, who was attired in a beige dress, trimmed in brown, and wore a corsage of bronze pom-poms. Maynard Weed was the best man.

Following a short wedding trip to Missoula and Spokane the couple will be at home to their friends next week at the Jaqueth Apartments. Mrs. Tucker, who formerly resided in Great Falls, is a graduate of the grade and high schools of that place and Mr. Tucker graduated from St. Matthew's high school in Kalspell.

Out-of-town relatives who came to attend the wedding were Mrs. D. W. Wheeler of Great Falls and Mrs. Cyril Coulston of Bozeman, mother and sister of the bride.

Rolie-Turner

In a setting of floral beauty, Miss Helen Rolie, daughter of Mrs. A. E. Rolie of this city, became the bride of Earl J. Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Turner of Walla Walla, Washington, August 2 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keller, E. 3109 Fourteenth, Spokane.

The Rev. Henry A. Van Winkle read the nuptial service at 5 o'clock in the presence of immediate relatives of the two families and a few close friends.

The ceremony took place before the fireplace in the living room, the mantle of which was decorated with pale pink roses and lighted tapers, while on each side were tall wicker baskets filled with pink and white gladioli.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Lloyd Rolie. She wore a two-piece dress made with a light blue jersey top and navy blue sheer wool skirt, which had a sash of rose jersey; the short fitted jacket was trimmed with pleating. She had navy blue accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias and rose buds. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Melenda Rolie, who wore a two-piece afternoon dress of tulle blue crepe. Her accessories were rose and navy and she wore a corsage of pink rose buds.

Fenton Sherwood of Tacoma attended Mr. Turner as best man.

An informal reception followed the service. The bride's table in the dining room was decorated in pink and white with a tiered wedding cake, roses and ivory tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner left on a wedding trip to the coast and Canada and en route home will visit Glacier Park and Kalispell. They will make their home at the Dresden Apartments in Spokane.

The bride was reared in Kalispell and graduated from Flathead county high school. For the past several years she has made her home in Spokane. Mr. Turner is a graduate of Lewis and Clark high school in Spokane and attended Washington State college, where he became affiliated with Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He is employed by the Hartford Insurance company in Spokane.

12 Nov 1940 pg 8

Marriage licenses have been issued to Max R. Tyler of Moore, and Ruth C. Kraft, Kaitispell, and to Walter S. Peterson and Hazel T. Halvorson, both of Bigfork.

Kraft-Tyler.
Miss Ruth Kraft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Kraft, became the bride of Max R.R. Taylor of Moore, Montana, in a simple but impressive church service at Trinity Lutheran church Saturday morning. The Rev. A. Jordan, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony and also briefly addressed the bride and groom on the words of the Old Testament blessing, "The Lord bless you and keep you."
To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march by Wagner, played by Mrs. Henry Schoknecht, the bride entered on the arm of her father. She was preceded by her maid of honor, Miss Elfrieda Franz. Herbert Kraft was Mr. Tyler's best man.
The bride wore her mother's wedding gown of white brocaded satin with finger tip veil which was held in place by a coronet of white pom pons and roses. Miss Kraft carried a shower bouquet of white pom pons, sweetheart roses, and maiden hair fern tied with white satin streamers.
The maid of honor wore blue tulle with which she wore a corsage of white pom pons and pink roses.
The bride's mother chose soldier blue for her dress with which she wore a corsage of talisman roses and bronze pom pons.
The chancel of the church was decorated with baskets of white pom pons and pink snap dragons tied with rose ribbons and jardiniere in ferns. White chrysanthemums adorned the altar before which the couple exchanged the marriage vows.
Mrs. Henry Schoknecht played the Mendelssohn wedding march for the recessional.
After the ceremony a reception and luncheon was given by the bride's parents at their home for 40 relatives and friends. The luncheon was served buffet style from a beautifully appointed table covered with lace cloth and centered with a bowl of white chrysanthemums. A lovely three-tiered white wedding cake, which was baked and decorated by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Paul Nommensen, was cut by the bride at a side table.
Mrs. Tyler was graduated from Flathead county high school with the class of 1939. Mr. Tyler is a graduate of the Moore high school. He is in the employ of the Montana State Forest service.

Poole-Wheeler-
Pleasing simplicity characterized the pretty cadelight wedding uniting Miss Emmajane Poole and Franklin P. Wheeler, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Poole Saturday evening, October 12, at 6 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. N. Field of Bethlehem Lutheran church in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.
The bride descended the stairway on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. She wore her mother's wedding gown, made 29 years ago, of ivory satin, fashioned on princess lines, floor length and with lace bolero. Her long veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried an old fashioned bouquet.
A profusion of autumn flowers and foliage, artistically arranged in the living room by Miss Corinne Wheeler of Whitefish, sister of the bridegroom, made a lovely background for the exchange of vows. Lighted tapers completed the pleasing effect.
Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served for clever guests at Listle's. The table was adorned with flowers and centered with a wedding cake. The young couple left immediately after the dinner for a short wedding trip. For going-away Mrs. Wheeler chose a brown ensemble, with matching accessories. They will be at home at 353 Second avenue east north.

Whitney Arthur Bally Maude marriage 9 Nov 1940 pg 8

Bally-Whitney

Maude Bally, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bally, was married at candlelight ceremony to Arthur Whitney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Was Whitney of Bigfork, Thursday evening, November 7, in Epworth Methodist church, with Dr. C. I. Clifford officiating.

The bride was attended by Jull Whitney, sister of the bridegroom and the best man was Jack Whitney, brother of the bridegroom. The ushers were Ralph Barrett and Homer Normann.

The traditional wedding march and recessional were played on the organ by Mrs. Raymond West of Missoula. She also accompanied two vocal solos, "O Promise Me," and "Because," sung by Miss Lilla Peterson.

The bride wore an ivory lace and net gown, fashioned from her mother's wedding dress with floor-length illusion veil, and her maternal grandmother's gold chain and sash. She carried a sheaf of white pom poms and snapdragons, tied with white satin ribbon and moline.

The maid of honor wore a peach chiffon gown and a taffeta poke bonnet of a darker shade. She carried a nosegay of talsman roses and bronze pom poms.

Mrs. Bally, mother of the bride, wore a navy blue dress with solid blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias, statice and hollyhock. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Whitney, chose a rose colored dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas.

The church was decorated with large baskets of bronze mums, white pom poms and ivory tapers.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the bridal party and relatives. A Haviland china tea service which had belonged to the bride's maternal grandmother, graced the table and the white bride's cake was of modernistic design. The table decorations were white pom poms, snap dragons and ivory tapers.

For going away, the bride chose a sport tweed skirt, red jacket with black accessories. They will be at home at 236 Fourth avenue east after December 1.
