Double Wedding
A very pretty double wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, September 17, at the S. S. Cornelison home, 522 Fifth avenue west, Kalispell, when Miss Helen Cornelison and Wilfred C. LaMontagne and Miss Jean Cornelison and Marshall M. Miller were united in marriage. The Rev. L. M. Darnell of the First Baptist church officiated in the presence of immediate relatives and Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Cornelison were witnesses.
The service was performed before an archway, beautifully decorated with baskets of pink and white asters and dahlias, wedding bells and streamers. Standards of candles in matching colors completed the attractive arrangement.
The brides wore matching dresses of soldier blue with black accessories and strands of pearls. Their corsages were of pink rose buds. After they had opened their wedding gifts a breakfast was served by Mrs. Cornelison to 23 guests and the wedding party. The brides' table was decorated with an arrangement of pink and white wedding bells and pink candles.
The young couples left immediately after breakfast for Spokane where they will reside. Mrs. LaMontagne was born and reared here and graduated from Flathead county high school. She has been employed at The Flathead for several years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cornelison. Mr. LaMontagne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. LaMontagne of Missoula and graduated from the Missoula schools.
Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Quintin Cornelison of Spokane and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cornelison. She attended school in Somers and Spokane. Mr. Miller attended Spokane schools.
Mrs. Archie Burroll of Smelterville, Idaho, sister and aunt of the brides, was an out-of-town guest for the wedding.

Forhan-Measure

A nuptial mass was celebrated at St. Matthew's church Monday morning, August 12, at 8 o'clock by the Rev. Father O'Farrell uniting Miss Laura Jo Forhan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Forhan, and Ambrose G. Measure, son of Mrs. J. H. Measure. About 40 relatives and friends of the couple witnessed the marriage.

The church was beautifully decorated with pink and white dahlias and lighted candles adorned the altar. Arthur Smith, brother-in-law of the bride, sang "Ave Maria," accompanied by Miss Lucile Davis at the organ. Miss Davis also played the wedding march and recessional.

The bride wore a princess gown of old duchess satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and a train. Her long veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms from Czechoslovakia and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli, pink rose buds and swansonia. She was attended by her sister, Nell Forhan, who was attired in a floor-length dress of pink taffeta, a pink moiré turban and carried white gladioli, roses and sweet peas.

Luke Measure of Half Moon, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man.

Mrs. Forhan wore a dusty pink dress with grey redingote and a rose hat and Mrs. Measure chose a maroon dress with navy accessories.

Following a reception at the Forhans a wedding breakfast was served at the Temple Tea room. During the breakfast Arthur Smith sang "At Dawn;" and "Believe Me All Those Endearing Young Charms," accompanied by Miss Davis.

Following a two weeks' wedding trip in Canada the couple will be at home at 1124 First avenue west. For going away Mrs. Measure wore a white sharkskin tailored suit with white accessories.

Both young people are graduates of Flathead county high school. Mrs. Measure received her Master's Degree from the University of Montana and also attended the Marine Biological Laboratory at Woods Hole School in Massachusetts. She has been employed by the local welfare department here for some time. Mr. Measure attended Carroll College in Helena and received his law degree from the University of Montana in Missoula. He has been engaged in the practice of his profession here for several years.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stocomb and Mr. and Mrs. William Forhan, Great Falls; Mrs. Paul Hobe, Alliance, Ohio; Mrs. Al Seeley, Fort Peck, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Fritch, Ural.

Double Wedding

A very pretty double wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, September 17, at the S. S. Cornelison home, 322 Fifth avenue west, Kalispell, when Miss Helen Cornelison and Wilfred C. LaMontagne and Miss Jean Cornelison and Marshall M. Miller were united in marriage. The Rev. L. M. Darnell of the First Baptist church officiated in the presence of immediate relatives and Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Cornelison were witnesses.

The service was performed before an archway, beautifully decorated with baskets of pink and white asters and dahlias, wedding bells and streamers. Standards of candles in matching colors completed the attractive arrangement.

The brides wore matching dresses of soldier blue with black accessories and strands of pearls. Their corsages were of pink rose buds. After they had opened their wedding gifts a breakfast was served by Mrs. Cornelison to 23 guests and the wedding party. The brides' table was decorated with an arrangement of pink and white wedding bells and pink candles.

The young couples left immediately after breakfast for Spokane where they will reside. Mrs. LaMontagne was born and reared here and graduated from Flathead county high school. She has been employed at The Flathead for several years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cornelison. Mr. LaMontagne is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. LaMontagne of Missoula and graduated from the Missoula schools.

Mrs. Miller is the daughter of Quintin Cornelison of Spokane and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Cornelison. She attended school in Somers and Spokane. Mr. Miller attended Spokane schools.

Mrs. Archie Burrell of Smeethville, Idaho, sister and aunt of the brides, was an out-of-town guest for the wedding.

Koppang-Odenwald
A lovely candlelight wedding was performed in Bethlehem Lutheran church at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening, August 20, uniting Miss Esther Koppang, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Koppang-Rodal, and Charles Odenwald, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Odenwald of Somers. The Rev. L. N. Field officiated in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.
A profusion of peach colored gladioli arranged before the altar made a beautiful setting for the exchange of vows. Mrs. J. M. Carlson presided at the organ and Rev. Rodal sang two vocal selections.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Jerry Koppang, wore a wedding gown of white lace and net and a long bridal veil and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and pink rose buds, tied with satin ribbon. She was attended by Mrs. Jerry Koppang as matron of honor, who was attired in a light blue floor-length gown and Miss Janice Moe, as bridesmaid, who wore a peach chiffon gown. Both wore corsages of gladioli and rose buds.
Gay Christianson of Somers was best man.
A reception for about 60 guests followed the service in the church parlors. Light refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table. Mrs. Albert Koppang and Mrs. Orion Koppang poured and Mrs. Jerry Koppang, Celia Keefe and Fern Switzer served the wedding cake. Lucille Moe entertained with a piano selection during the reception hour.
Both young people attended local schools and are graduates of Flathead county high school. Following a wedding trip to the coast they will be at home at 412 First avenue west in Kalspell.

MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED
A marriage license was issued today to Lawrence E. O'Neil and Helen E. Mills, both of Kalispell.

MILLS-O'NEIL
Miss Helen Mills became the bride of Lawrence O'Neil at a simple wedding Monday evening at 8:30 at the Methodist church, with the Rev. Ricketts reading the single ring ceremony.
The bride, in a dusty pink lace dress and carrying an arm bouquet of white gladioli, entered the church on the arm of her father, Andrew Mills. She was attended by Miss Frances Emeiser, who wore powder blue with a shoulder corsage of pink gladioli. They were met at the altar by the groom and his brother, John, who acted as his best man. Charles O'Neil and Andrew Mills, Jr., acted as ushers.
Before the ceremony Miss Agnes Emeiser sang "Do You Love Me," accompanied by Miss Mary Ricketts. Miss Ricketts also played the Wedding March from Lohengr n.
Mrs. O'Neil is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mills of Lakeside, and the granddaughter of Mrs. J. N. Noble. She was born and reared in the Flathead and is a graduate of Flathead county high school. She has been employed by the Mountain States Power company.
Mr. O'Neil is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. O'Neil of Pomona, Calif. He was born in Kalispell and later moved to California, where he was graduated from Pomona College at Carlmount, Calif. He is the manager of the Forest Products here in Kalispell. Both young people are serving as members of the Methodist church.
The altar of the church was decorated for the simple ceremony with pink and white peonies and pink roses. It was lighted by pink candles in tall candle standards.
The ceremony was attended by members of the two families and close friends of the couple. Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mills and daughter, Miss Shirley, Mrs. Noble and Miss Florence Noble of Lakeside; Mr. and Mrs. C. I. O'Neil, Mrs. Harvey Ziegler, Miss Sylvia Marie and Neal Ziegler of Pomona, California.
After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. O'Neil will be at home to their many friends in a home they have prepared in Kalispell.

Kalispell Newlyweds

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Peterson, whose marriage was an event of Friday, August 9, in Bethlehem Lutheran church with Rev. L. N. Field officiating. Mrs. Peterson was the former Miss Marcella Engebretson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Engebretson. (Photo by Stearns.)

Engebretson-Peterson
 Miss Marcella Engebretson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Engebretson, and Philip Peterson, son of Mr. Lillian Peterson, were married at an impressive ceremony solemnized at Bethlehem Lutheran church at 8 o'clock Friday evening, August 9. The Rev. L. N. Field, pastor of the church gave the scriptural reading and the Rev. Ruben Mostrom, brother-in-law of the bride, performed the nuptial rites, using the ring ceremony. The date was also the bride's birthday.

The church was decorated with tall baskets of gladioli and lighted candles in candelabra. Before the ceremony Mrs. J. M. Carlson played softly at the organ and Miss Leona Henriksen sang, "I Love You Truly." The wedding march from Lehengrill was used.

The bride was given away by her father. She was attired in white satin and cream lace, her sister's wedding gown, and she wore a finger-tip veil in halo effect and carried a showy bouquet of white gladioli, pink roses and swansonias.

Mrs. Ruben Mostrom, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Francis Peterson, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Marion Johnson of Ogden, Utah; Miss Hazel Stroeter of Spokane and Miss Kathryn Fall of Malta. Little Patty Bolton was the flower girl. The attendants wore identical colonial gowns of white dotted swiss, trimmed with ribbon and matching champagne designed by Kay Kennedy of Minneapolis, and they carried old-fashioned nosegays.

The bridegroom was attended by Lorraine Waring and Orin Koppang; Aell McCown, Merrill Warden and Alex McLain were the ushers.

As the bridal couple knelt at the altar Miss Henriksen sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Mrs. Carlson as the recessional.

Mrs. Engebretson wore green and white printed sheer for her daughter's wedding and her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Peterson, the bridegroom's mother, was attired in white and also wore a gardenia corsage.

A reception for 100 invited guests was held in the church parlors after the wedding. Mrs. Larry Waring and Mrs. Glen Evans of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, poured. Mrs. Orin Koppang, Miss Lillian Peterson and Miss Sylvia Runsvold of Moorehead, Minn., served the white wedding cake and Miss Marion Schranz the groom's cake. Wedding gifts were displayed at the Engebretson home.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Peterson are well known young people here and attended local schools. Mrs. Peterson is a graduate of the Deaconess hospital school of nursing in Spokane and has been employed at the Veterans' Hospital at Fort Harrison. Mr. Peterson attended the University of Montana and is affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

For going away the bride wore navy blue with white accessories.

Marriage licenses were issued today to John D. Roche and Marguerite H. Hershman, both of Kalispell, and John A. Pennoyer and Arthella S. Gose, also of Kalispell.

Hershman-Roche
Beauty and distinction marked the candlelight wedding solemnized at 7 o'clock Saturday evening, February 3, at the B. C. Roche home uniting Miss Marguerite H. Hershman and Dr. John D. Roche. The Rev. Father Francis O'Farrell of St. Matthew's church officiated in the presence of 40 guests.
Pink and silver was the theme of the decorative appointments throughout and an improvised altar, arranged before the fireplace with floor baskets of snap dragons in two shades of pink and pink tapers in silver candelabra, made a lovely setting for the exchange of vows.
The bride's gown was of blush taffeta, fashioned with long sleeve basque jacket and a short train and her pink tulle veil fell from a coronet. She was attended by Miss Joan Roche, sister of the bridegroom, whose gown of blossom taffeta was also in basque style with short sleeves and matching coronet. Both carried bouquets of roses in harmonizing shades of pink and tied with silver and pink tulle.
Robert Bussey was the bridegroom's attendant and Hugh Houston assisted as usher. Miss Mary Halpin and Miss Laura Knott played a program of nuptial music for the wedding and also throughout the evening.
A buffet dinner was served the wedding party and guests immediately following the ceremony. The guests were seated at a long table, beautifully decorated with pink roses and snap dragons and matching tapers. A tiered wedding cake also adorned the table. Dancing followed in the recreation room during the evening.
Mrs. Gaylord Priest of Minnesota, sister of the bridegroom, was an out-of-town guest.
The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Hershman of Mitchell, South Dakota, is a graduate of the Mitchell high school and also of the Ashbury Hospital School of Nursing in Minneapolis. She has been employed in this city for the past three years.
Dr. Roche is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Roche and is a graduate of Notre Dame university and also of Loyola School of Dental Surgery in Chicago. He is now practicing in the new Ross clinic building.
The young couple are at home to their friends at the Brice apartments.
