Obituary

Reuben S. Johnston, son of Samuel and Pauline Johnston, was born at Fayette, Pennsylvania, June 15, 1865, and emigrated to Prairie City, Ill., with his parents in 1865 and from Illinois to McDonough county, Nebraska, in 1874, where his father died, leaving his mother with eight small children. The family resided in Nebraska until 1879, when his mother brought the family by ox team across the plains to the East Gallatin, near Bozeman, arriving there July 26.

Six years later, at the age of 19, Reuben Johnston, with his older brother, LeRoy Johnston, emigrated by team to the Flathead valley and located on homesteads in 1884 about eight miles northwest of what is now Kalispell.

Two years later he returned to the Gallatin and was married to Miss Floy Thompson, and together they returned to their homestead and had lived in this vicinity until about four years ago when ill health forced him to retire from farming and they moved to Columbia Falls, where he passed away Sunday, December 31, 1929, at the age of 74 years.

He leaves his widow, Floy Johnston; seven children: Roy R. of Kalispell; Minnie Howell, Columbia Falls; Verna Pembie, Columbia Falls; Bea Martin, Coram; Jack S., Columbia Falls; Clair, Kalamath Falls, Ore.; and Martha Opalka, Columbia Falls. The oldest daughter, Charlotte, passed away at the age of eight years. Mr. Johnston also leaves 26 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren; one brother, Preston Johnson of Columbia Falls, and a sister, Mrs. Arvela McDonald, of Livingston.

THOMAS E. JONES

Funeral services for Thomas E. Jones were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Owen-Elliott chapel with the Rev. Father O'Farrell officiating. During the service Burnett C. Elliot sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. Mabelle Nixon. Friends serving as pall bearers were Adolph Peterson, Edwin Peterson, Henry W. Smith, Dan Korn, Jr., S. Bernard, and Frank Dore. Interment was made in Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Thomas E. Jones was born in Wisconsin, on March 25, 1866 and passed away suddenly at his home in Kalispell on May 13, 1940.

His family moved to Iowa, from where, at the age of 14, he again moved with his parents to the prairie lands of South Dakota near Roswell. Here, as a sturdy pioneer, he grew to manhood. In 1897, he was married to Nell Kuinlan of Roswell. In 1909, he again moved west to the Flathead Valley where he located on a farm near Creston. He maintained his ranches and was actively engaged in farming until the time of his death, although he had resided at his home in Kalispell most of the time since 1916.

The Valley has lost a neighbor, citizen and friend who stood for all that is good and true. Mr. Jones leaves to mourn his passing, his widow and one sister, Charlotte Jones of Los Angeles.
