Copley-Absolonson

Miss Nadine Copley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Copley, and Elmer Absolonson, son of Mrs. Charles Sherman, were married Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Presbyterian manse. The Rev. T. B. W. Allen performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and friends of the couple. They were attended by Miss Ella Mae Hewitson and Owen Nordtome.

The bride was charming in a gown of navy blue chiffon with white accessories and her corsage was of pink roses and swansonia. Miss Hewitson wore navy blue with white accessories and a corsage of pink delphinium and white rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. A tiered wedding cake centered the attractively appointed table and the rooms were pleasingly decorated with baskets of flowers.

The young couple left immediately after the breakfast on a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will reside at Essex where Mr. Absolonson is employed. Both Mr. and Mrs. Absolonson are graduates of Flathead county high school.

Richard-Ambrose

Simple impressiveness marked the exchange of marriage vows of Miss Dorothy Ann Richard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Richard, and Lewis K. Ambrose, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Ambrose of Missoula, on Saturday, August 23, at Christ Episcopal church. The nuptial ceremony was performed at 10 o'clock by the Rev. M. A. Cookson in the presence of 75 guests.

The setting for the ceremony was a bower of green cedar, and pink and white gladioli and the altar was decorated with pink and white dahlias and white candles. A recital of nuptial music was played by Mrs. W. L. Dickinson before the ceremony, and the wedding march from Lehengrin, for the processional, Mrs. Leiland Koyker sang, "Beloved, It Is Morn" just before the bride entered the church, and "Ich Liebe Die" previous to the pronouncement of the vows.

The bride wore an early fall costume suit of black wool styled with Persian lamb trim. Her hat was in the off-the-face mode in grosgrain with a sweetheart brim. A white orchid and white gloves completed her ensemble. Her bridesmaid, Miss Sylvia Brasco, wore a black wool costume dress and black accessories, with a corsage of pink roses. Walter O. Davis of Bozeman, a brother-in-law of the groom, was best man, and Ray Then and Leiland Koyker were ushers.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and

Mrs. Richard entertained relatives and members of the wedding party at a breakfast at the Temple Tea Room.

After a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose will make their home at 1134 South Grand avenue, in Lansing, Michigan, where he is a government engineer.

Mrs. Ambrose graduated from the city schools of Miles City and attended St. Catherine's College in St. Paul. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi and is affiliated with an honorary writing society. Mr. Ambrose graduated from the State University at Missoula, Montana, and is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Out-of-town guests who were here for the wedding are: Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Ambrose, Missoula; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis of Bozeman; and Miss Catherine Ambrose, Miss Ruth Kellogg, Mrs. I. Q. Roberts, Mrs. Lillian Ferguson, Mrs. Pershina and Miss Mary Jo Pershina, all of Missoula.

Hanson-Boorman One of the lovely weddings of the Yuletide season was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Boorman, Sunday at 1 o'clock when Miss Ona Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hanson of Winnett, Montana, became the bride of Merle Boorman of Somers. The impressive single ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. A. Jordan of Kalispell. A candlelit altar with a canopy of wedding bells and pink streamers provided a lovely setting for the exchange of vows, and the bride was given in marriage by James Kanneloy. Attending the young couple were Miss Helen Drew and Earl Wilcox. At the entrance of the bridal party, Allan Milne sang, "I Love You Truly," and his beautiful solo, "Yours," accompanied by Mrs. A. Boorman, was sung at the conclusion of the ceremony. The bride was attractive in a modish suit of navy blue and blouse-trimmed with a cascade of lace, and she wore a corsage of white button mums. Her bridesmaid was attired in gold wool and her corsage was of bronze mums. Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding reception was held for the couple and the many gifts were opened for display. The refreshment table was centered with a tiered wedding cake flanked by pink tapers in crystal holders, and the bride and groom cut the first piece of the cake, as the guests were served. The bride has operated a beauty shop in Somers for the past year. Mr. Boorman is a graduate of Flathead high school and was in the employ of the Somers Lumber company until his enlistment in the coast artillery for which post he received his call and left Somers Saturday.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Glenn A. Johnston and Hazel M. Slancy, both of Fortine; Hugh Kirgan, Columbia Falls, and Hattie J. Fried, Long Island, New York; Charles C. Myers, Whitefish, and Vera M. Sullivan, Columbia Falls; and to Robert Bothwell and Helen Hoidel, both of Great Falls.

Hoidel-Bothwell

Miss Helen Marie Hoidel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoidel of this city, became the bride of Robert L. Bothwell of Great Falls at a simple and charming ceremony in the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, Sept. 30, at 8 o'clock. He is the son of Mrs. Catherine Bothwell of Pocatello, Idaho.

The church was beautifully decorated for the event. Branches of flat cedar trimmed the pews of the church and the entire front of the church and baskets of flowers in shades of pink, white and lavender and many white tapers in tall caudexes formed an improvised altar where the couple exchanged their vows. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Harry Gattis, and the soloist was Mrs. John Tombrick of Whitefish, her aunt, who sang "Oh promise Me." To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, the bride entered on the arm of her father, preceded by her bridesmaid, Miss Viola Wright of Great Falls. The best man was William Boyd of Great Falls. Rev. Thomas B. W. Allen performed the single ring ceremony.

Mrs. Bothwell had chosen her mother's wedding gown of 25 years ago. It was white satin with lace overtrim and with it she wore a shoulder length veil. The bride carried a Rainbow Girl's white Bible which was tied with white satin streamers and sweetheart roses. Miss

Wright also wore white, a modish floor-length gown of crepe and Juliet cap to match, and also had a corsage of sweetheart roses. Mrs. Hoidel and Mrs. C. N. Jaquette, aunt of the bride, both wore black full outfits and corsages of roses. Eugene Jaquette, a cousin of the bride, was usher.

A wedding reception was held afterwards at the C. N. Jaquette home near Creston for about 50 relatives and friends. Those who presided at the refreshment table were Mrs. W. M. Dodgson of Whitefish, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Jaquette. The couple left for Kamp Karett on Whitefish lake for their honeymoon, where they will be guests of her uncle, J. Monagan.

Mrs. Bothwell is a graduate of Great Falls high school and the Great Falls business college and has been employed at the Trimborg Hotel. Mr. Bothwell graduated from the Pocatello high school and the University of Idaho at Moscow. He is manager of a theater in Great Falls. They will make their home in this city at the Rowland Apts.

Mrs. Donald Darnell, who before her marriage on the evening of Aug. 27 at the Baptist church, was Miss Ruth Sparling, daughter of Mrs. O. E. Proud.

A marriage license has been issued to Donald Darnell and Ruth K. Sparling, both of Kalispell.

Sparling-Darnell

The First Baptist church was the scene of a lovely wedding on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Ruth Sparling, daughter of Mrs. O. E. Proud, became the bride of Donald Darnell, son of Rev. and Mrs. L. M. Darnell.

Before the wedding vows, Miss Patricia Barrow lighted the candles at the front of the church, which was artistically decorated with pink and white fall flowers, white tapers and silver bells. Preceding the vows, Mrs. Ruth Barrow sang "O Promise Me", with Mrs. Homer Dickson at the piano.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Homer Bowman, and the wedding party entered the church. Mrs. Warren Sparling, as matron-of-honor, wore a long yellow net gown and carried a nosegay bouquet in shades of yellow and lavender. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Dickerman, sister of the groom, who was attired in light blue crepe, and carried a pink and blue bouquet; and Mrs. Donald Adams, who wore a full-length gown of blue taffeta and carried a pink and blue nosegay. Mrs. Robert Putman, another bridesmaid, wore a gown of old rose net and carried a matching bouquet. The flower girl was little Miss Marilyn Walters, attired in a long white satin dress, with blue forget-me-nots in her hair, and she carried a basket of rose petals. She was accompanied by little Lester Harder, who was attired in a long white suit, white silk top hat and he carried a gold cane. Next came the ring-bearer, Robert Sparling, also attired in a white suit and carrying a white satin pillow with the wedding ring.

Jack Passy accompanied the groom as best man. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, Warren Sparling, who gave her in marriage. For her wedding, the bride wore a full length gown of white satin with long full sleeves and a train, and carried a shower bouquet of pink roses and white gladioli. She wore three strands of pearls, a gift of the groom. The bride's little train-bearer was Carlie Ridenour, who was dressed in pink satin.

The groom's father, the Rev. L. M. Darnell performed the single ring ceremony, at the conclusion of which, "I Love You Truly" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Ruth Barrow.

Ushers for the wedding were LeRoy Gray, Donald Adams, and Homer Bowman.

Following the marriage ceremony a reception was given in Judson hall for 175 guests. The hall had been tastefully decorated for the occasion with mixed fall garden flowers and soft lights. The refreshment table, at which Mrs. Gordon Newbee, sister of the groom, presided, was beautiful in its decorations of lace cover, pink and white tapers and roses. The bride cut the first piece of the wedding cake, and thereafter it was served by Miss Helen Cochran and Miss Betty Opp, and Mrs. Florin Harder and Mrs. Clifford Walters served refreshments.

For the happy affair, the bride's mother, Mrs. Proud, wore beige lace and a corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother, Mrs. Darnell, wore dusty rose satin eroge and a gardenia corsage, and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Hattie LaBus, wore navy blue with white, and gardenias.

The young couple received many attractive wedding gifts, which were on display at the bride's home.

For her goingaway-outfit, the bride wore a brown wool suit, with brown and tan accessories. The young couple left on a trip through Idaho where they will visit, and will also visit in Spokane. They will make their future home in Kalispell, where the groom is in business with Florin Harder, and they are co-partners of the former Hollingsworth Electric company.

Out-of-town guests who were in the city for the wedding were: the bride's sisters, Mrs. Gordon Newbee, and young son, Gordon D. of Salt Lake City; and Mrs. Charles Dickerman of Grangeville, Id.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Putman of Port Orchard, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Taylor of Richmond, Virginia. Mrs. Taylor was a girlhood chum of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Thomas of Davenport, Wash.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school and the groom graduated from Salt Lake high school and college.

Hanson-Forsyth

At 2:45 Saturday afternoon at the Bethlehem Lutheran church Miss Lorraine Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hanson of Bigfork, became the bride of William R. Forsyth of Bozeman. The marriage ceremony was read by the Rev. L. N. Field.

The bride wore a beige crepe street dress and a wool rose coat with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rose buds and white sweet peas.

The couple was attended by Miss Lorraine Forsyth, sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Hanson, parents of the bride. Miss Forsyth wore a green and white printed sheer dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink rose buds and sweet peas. Mrs. Hanson's dress was pink and white printed crepe with which she also wore a corsage of rose buds and sweet peas.

Mrs. Forsyth is a graduate of the Bigfork high school. Mr. Forsyth is a graduate of the Montana State college at Bozeman.

The young couple will make their home at Corvallis, at the state experiment station where Mr. Forsyth is an entomologist.

Two showers were given in honor of Mrs. Forsyth last week. Mrs. Christ Hanson her grandmother, gave a kitchen shower Wednesday afternoon. She was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Ben Keller and Mrs. William Mahoney. Mrs. Forsyth received many useful gifts. A lovely lunch was served. Those present were: Mesdames G. M. Hanson, Ernest Hanson, Glen Gunderson, Charles Shaw, Rode, E. Slethaug, Nick Hendrickson, the guest of honor, and the hostesses.

Friday evening Mrs. G. M. Hanson and Mrs. Nick Hendrickson gave a miscellaneous shower at the G. M. Hanson home with 54 guests present. The gifts were brought in in a decorated basket by little Diane Hendrickson. After the opening of the many lovely gifts, a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses.

Saturday evening at 8:30 wedding cake was served by the bride and groom at the G. M. Hanson home, after which a dance was given at the Swan River Community hall.

16 Dec 1941 pg 8

Marriage licenses have been issued to Alfred Torbergson and Beverly Hinman, both of Somers, and to D. M. Fraker and Dorothy E. Null, both of Kalspell.

Null-Fraker
 Simple and impressive was the beautiful wedding ceremony which united Dorothy Ellen Null and David M. Fraker in marriage at 10:30 Saturday morning at the Null home.
 The bride, escorted by her father, descended the stairway to the strains of Lohengrin wedding march. Attended by her sister, Georgia Null, and joined the groom and his best man, Warren Spurling, in front of an improvised altar of Yuletide greens, and yellow and white chrysanthemums.
 Rev. F. B. Hillis read the impressive ring service which was followed by two wedding songs, "Because" and "I Love You Truly," sung by Mrs. J. A. Gudsel, with Eunice Nelson accompanying at the piano.
 Guests included only a few close friends and the immediate family, two of the latter being Mrs. Stella MacDonald, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs. Ella Baker, the bride's great-grandmother, thus representing four generations.
 The bride was lovely in a blue crepe gown and carried a bouquet of tulle roses and maiden hair fern. Her maid of honor wore a green ribser wool gown enhanced by a beautiful bronze mim corsage.
 A delicious two-course luncheon was served immediately after the ceremony at tables beautifully decorated with gold and white bells. The tiered wedding cake was truly a work of art, the inspiration of the bride's very artistic mother.
 The bride, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Finley Null, was born and educated in Kalspell and graduated with the class of '38 from the Flathead county high school.
 The groom was born and educated in Arkansas and has been associated with the Yale Oil Co. in Kalspell during the past four years.
 They left by motor for Salt Lake City on their wedding trip and will return to make Kalspell their home. Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Frasher Lynn H Goldizen Geneva marriage 6 Jan 1941 pg 8

Goldizen-Frasher

A charming wedding was solemnized at midnight on New Year's eve in Christ Episcopal church uniting Miss Geneva Goldizen, and Lynn H. Frasher, son of Mrs. L. A. Orberg. The Rev. M. A. Cookson officiated in the presence of relatives and friends.

The bridal party entered the candlelit church to the strains of soft organ music. The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens and white chrysanthemums and the vows were exchanged before an arch, over which hung a lighted star.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, wore a white net and lace gown and a princess coat of silver satin, fashioned with long sleeves and a train. Her finger-tip veil, edged in lace, fell from a Juliet cap of braided satin and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of pink roses and gardenias.

Mrs. A. E. Gehrke of Spokane, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a light dusty rose gown of inserted silk filet lace and chiffon and a corsage of gardenias.

Miss Patricia Gentry of Spokane and Miss Agnes Torgerson, bridesmaids, wore pastel dresses of dusty rose and light green taffeta. Both had rhinestone accessories and Juliet caps and carried old-fashioned nosegays.

Howard Poe of Missoula and Carl Stemmer were the bridegroom's attendants and Kenneth Sexton and Harold Morrow, cousins of the bride, were ushers.

The service closed with the nuptial eucharist being celebrated, with Rev. Cookson officiating and Richard Riley as acolyte. Mrs. Titus Kurtichanov, soloist, and Mrs. Walter LaBonte, accompanist, also rendered "I Love Thee" before the ceremony.

A wedding supper followed at Listle's for 24 relatives and intimate friends of the couple. The lovely wedding cake which centered the table was cut by the bride's cousin, Mrs. Arthur Buck.

Both young people graduated from Flathead county high school in 1939. Mrs. Frasher is employed at the Imperial and Mr. Frasher, who was with the local J. C. Penney store, is now serving with the National Guard unit at Camp Murray. They plan to take their wedding trip upon his return and will then reside in Kalispell.

Peck-Grindley

Charming in every detail were the wedding rites solemnized at high noon Sunday, June 13, at the First Presbyterian church uniting Miss Ethel Mae Peck and Ernest C. Grindley of this city. The Rev. T. B. W. Allen officiated in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.

Baskets of yellow and orchid summer flowers and lighted white candles adorned the altar and made a lovely background for the impressive service.

Miss Muriel Nelson of Missoula presided at the organ during the wedding and played the wedding march and recessional. She also accompanied Jerry Schnell, who sang "I Love Thee," by Greig, just before the ceremony.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a gown of white Duchess satin fashioned with a train, fitted basque and long fitted sleeves and her illusion veil fell from a halo of veiling and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, yellow roses and orchid sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Elsi Winkler, as maid of honor, and the Misses Doris Monk and Dorothy Darlington of Butte were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of organdy, the maid of honor's in orchid and the bridesmaid's of yellow, and each wore a matching hat and carried an old-fashioned nosegay in harmonizing colors.

James Smith of Missoula, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Anne Lou Thomas of Butte and Lillian Hanson were flower girls and they wore dainty floor-length gowns of orchid organdy. The ushers were Jack Burg, Jr., and Jack Stanell, assisted by Gale Peck and Ernest Keiser and Joe Mudd of Missoula.

A reception was held from 2 to 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Peck, 436 Second avenue east, for a large number of relatives and friends. The rooms were profusely decorated with flowers in the chosen color scheme of yellow and orchid, and refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table in the dining room. Mrs. L. S. Bugbee, Mrs. J. J. Burg, Mrs. R. C. Everstin of Spokane and Mrs. E. R. Tuttle of Butte poured. Mrs. C. L. Thomas of Butte and Miss Fran- celine Rawlings assisted in serving. Miss Dorothy Danno served the wedding cake and Miss Rosalie Brankman kept the guest book. Mrs. Forrest Rockwood was in charge of the floral arrangements for the reception and also at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Grindley left immediately after the reception for a 10-day wedding trip and upon their return will be at home to their many friends at the Brice apartments. Mrs. Grindley came here about three three-years ago with her parents from Butte and graduated from Flathead county high school with the class of '39. Mr. Grindley attended Missoula schools.

Among the out-of-town relatives and friends present for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fitch, Arkansas City, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Grindley, Missoula; Mrs. Louz Centralia, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schwanz, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Amerman, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Tolo, Jack Newman, James Tiepfer, John Strong, William Bordner, all of Butte; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Everstin, Spokane and Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. Herzog of the east lake shore.

A Recent Drive

(Special by Thomas)
Mrs. Lynn Hatch was formerly Miss Thelma Moe of this city before her marriage on February 6 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moe, at a pretty ceremony performed by the Rev. C. P. Daane of Whitefish. The couple are at home at the Green Apartments in Kalspell temporarily. They will reside in Whitefish a little later, where Mr. Hatch is employed with the Great Northern.

Moe-Hatch
Thursday, February 6, Miss Thelma Moe became the bride of Lynn Hatch of Whitefish at a very pretty home wedding performed at 10 o'clock in the morning at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moe of Kalspell. The vows were exchanged before the fireplace banked with ferns and arranged with yellow anemone and jonquils, with lighted tapers in candelabra on the mantle. The Rev. C. P. Daane of Whitefish officiated in the presence of about 55 relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride descended the stairway to the strains of "O, Promise me," played on the organ by Mrs. Sues Howells. Beverly Moe, sister of the bride, sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" before the ceremony and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes" immediately after.

The bride, who was escorted by her father, was gowned in white lace over satin, fashioned in princess style with a train and she wore a finger-tip veil which fell from a crown of starched lace and pearls. She wore a string of baby pearls, the gift of the groom, and carried a bride's nosegay of gardenias and roses.

Preceding the bride were her two sisters as bridesmaids, Elaine Moe and Opal Moe. Little Janice Jorgensen, the bride's niece, was the flower girl.

Mark Parks of Whitefish attended the bridegroom.

A reception followed the wedding ceremony. Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table, centered with a tiered wedding cake covered with rose buds and surrounded with smilax. Mrs. Earl Smith served the wedding cake and Mrs. James Jorgensen, Jr., sister of the bride, assisted by Miss Arieta Huff, presided at the coffee table.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead county high school and for several years has been employed by the Mountain States telephone office. Mr. Hatch attended Whitefish high school and the University of Montana and is now employed in the accounting department of the Great Northern railway in Whitefish. Following a short wedding trip the couple will reside temporarily at the Brice, before going to Whitefish to make their home.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Miss Lucille Hatch, Seattle, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Robertson, Miss Naomi McGuire and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dunn of Whitefish.
