Jenken Roy H Waggener Stella Ann marriage 2 Jan 1941 pg 8
 picture 11 Jan 1941 pg 8

Waggener-Jenkin
 A New Year's wedding of interest was solemnized at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Waggener when their daughter, Stella Ann, became the bride of Roy H. Jenkin, son of Harold Jenkin of this city. The Rev. Bert Powell of Epworth Methodist church officiated in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the couple.
 A background of greenery with tall baskets of white mums and lighted tapers in tall candelabra arranged at either side, formed a pretty setting for the exchange of vows, which were by candlelight.
 The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of eggshell satin, fastened on princess lines and with long sleeves. Pearls trimmed the sweet heart neckline and formed a train from which fell her finger-tip veil and she carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias, narcissus and adiantum ferns. She was attended by Miss Starling Stotts, who wore a peach net gown and carried a bouquet of Tallman roses and violets.
 Milton Hollister was best man.
 For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Waggener chose a gown of aqua with which she wore a corsage of pink roses.
 Just before the ceremony Miss Mary Esther Montgomery sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told," accompanied by Miss Rosalie Brinkman.
 A reception for 100 guests was held from 11 to 1. Mrs. Titus Kurdichanov and Mrs. Walter LaBonte poured the first hour and Mrs. T. E. Perry and Mrs. O. E. Wendt the second. Mrs. Lloyd Pettit served the bride's cake. The beautifully appointed refreshment table was centered with a bouquet of calla lilies and narcissus and an arch of greenery and white mums and lighted tapers corresponding with the wedding arch in the living room, was arranged back of the table.
 Following a short wedding trip the couple will be at home to their many friends at 463 North Main. Both young people are natives of the Flathead and are graduates of Flathead County high school.
 Numbered among guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fuller, great-grandparents of the bride.

Marrriage licenses have been issued to Choteau L. Gibson and Cecily M. Junger, both of Kalispell, and to Elmer S. Johnson, Somers, and Irene M. Gardiner, Kalispell.

Gardiner-Johnson

Miss Irene Marie Gardiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Gardiner of Kalispell, became the bride of Elmore Johnson, son of Mrs. Emil DuFour of Somers, at a quiet wedding solemnized at the Presbyterian manse in Kalispell Saturday afternoon with the Rev. Thomas Allen officiating. Attending the young couple were Axel Stenswick, Joyce Schultz, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Gardiner. For her wedding, the bride was attired in a rust afternoon dress with which she wore brown accessories. Immediately after the wedding, the couple left on a trip to Missoula. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their home in Somers where Mr. Johnson is employed at the Somers garage.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Gay Christensen who were recently married, members of the Sons of Norway lodge entertained at a delightful party at Nordkap hall Saturday evening, Nov. 22, and a large number of guests were present. Numbers on a pleasing program planned by Mrs. H. Molver, Harold Hatlen, and Roy Hanson and introduced by the latter, included a reading by Mrs. H. Hatlen; reading, Amy Jean Maldrum; solo, Lenore Molver; girls' trio, Lilian Risdal, Lilly Skiffen, and Louise Lynch, accompanied by Mrs. W. Nels Borch took the part of the bride, William Brevig, the groom, Ole Lec, bridesmaid, Henry Gilbertson, best man, Peter Peterson, flower girl, Donald Breimo, ring bearer, and Hjalmer Radvold, minister.

The young couple was presented with a lovely chest of silver as a gift from the lodge.

Following the program, a delicious buffet supper was served and the bride and groom cut the first piece of the tiered wedding cake which centered a table beautifully decorated with pink streamers and silver bells and illuminated with white tapers. The young received the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends.

Normann Homer Bernhard Peterson Clara Lillian marriage 17 Jun 1941 pg 8

Peterson-Normann

The marriage of Miss Clara Lillian Peterson, daughter of Mrs. Lillian L. Peterson, to Homer Bernhard Normann, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin B. Normann, took place Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Waller at Goose Bay on Flathead lake before a candle-light altar banked with spring flowers. The Rev. Laurence N. Field read the marriage service in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends.

The wedding march was played by the groom's mother, Mrs. Martin B. Normann, and Mrs. Philip Peterson sang.

The bride entered the living room on the arm of her brother, Philip, who gave her in marriage. She was lovely in a gown of white chiffon and a long flowing veil of tulle fastened with a Juliet cap of Belgian lace embellished with a coronet of wood violets. She carried a bouquet of jabsies, pansies and forget-me-nots. Miss Frances Peterson, her sister's maid of honor and only attendant, wore a blue organza gown and carried a nosegay of shades and blue forget-me-nots. Theodore F. Normann of Seattle, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Ushers were James and Richard Waller.

Following the service an informal reception was held. Mrs. Roy Waller and Mrs. Theodore Normann presided at the bride's table which was beautifully appointed with ivory tapers, crystal and a large center bouquet of wild flowers carrying out the blue and white motif. The bride and groom cut the first slice of wedding cake and Mrs. Philip Peterson continued serving. Miss Frances Peterson and Miss Sally Waller assisted.

The bride was graduated from Eastern Montana State Normal college at Billings and attended the University of Montana. For the last four years she has been a teacher in the Kalispell city schools. Mr. Normann attended Macalester College, St. Paul, Minnesota, and the University of Missouri.

Mrs. Normann's traveling costume was a powder blue sabardine suit with navy accessories. Following a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Normann will be at home on the west shore of Flathead lake after July 1.

Marriage licenses have been issued to Courtland C. Cottle and Alyce M. Kelly, both of Kalispell; Forest Clemons, Roxford, and Lillida Blader, Laak; and to Dr. W. M. Smith of Kalispell and Viola McDevitt, Somers.

McDevitt-Smith

Marriage rites uniting Miss Viola Catherine McDevitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDevitt of Somers, and Dr. William Melbourne Smith, son of Mrs. Julia Smith of Helena, were celebrated at a very pretty service conducted at St. Anne's Catholic church in Somers at 8 o'clock Saturday morning with the Rev. Francis Whalen officiating in the presence of relatives and close friends.

The church was a setting of beauty for the occasion with yellow and purple fall flowers banked in profusion at the altar and with lighted tapers casting a soft glow.

The bride was attired in an early fall afternoon dress of black and gold with which she wore black accessories. Her sister, Mrs. Francis O'Connell as matron of honor, chose a black afternoon dress and black accessories for her ensemble. Sidney Smith of Helena, brother of the groom, attended the couple as best man.

Following the nuptials, a lovely wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McDevitt at 9:30 o'clock. Flowers decorated the rooms of the home, and the bridal table was beautiful with a tiered wedding cake flanked by yellow tapers in crystal holders, and bouquets of yellow flowers used in decoration. Places were marked for 23 guests. Seated with the bride and groom were Mrs. Julia Smith, Miss Audrey Smith and Sidney Smith of Helena, Rev. Father Francis Whalen, Mr. and Mrs. T. McDevitt, Mr. and Mrs. Francis O'Connell, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Amundson, Archie McDevitt, Ralph Drew, Tom Kennedy, Edward Sharn, Joe Kennedy, Ambrose Measure, Matt Kennedy and Andrew Thompson.

After the breakfast, the couple left for a week's wedding trip to Banff and Lake Louise, Canada, after which they will be at home in Kalispell where they are building a new home at 520 Fifth avenue west.

Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Flathead county high school and the Sisters' of Mercy Nurses Training school. She took post graduate work at St. Patrick's hospital in Missoula.

Mr. Smith is a graduate of Carroll college, Helena, and he received his D. D. degree at Marquette university in Milwaukee. He has been practicing dentistry in Kalispell for the past six years.

Turner Horace V Jorgensen Helen license marriage 26 Dec 1941 pg 5 29 Dec 1941 pg 6

A marriage license has been issued to Horace V. Turner, Seattle, and Helen T. Jorgensen, Kallispell.

Jorgensen-Turner

The marriage of Miss Helen Jorgensen, daughter of Mrs. James Jorgensen, to Horace V. Turner of Seattle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Turner of Puyallup, Wash., took place Saturday, December 27, at Christ Episcopal church at 7:30 o'clock. Many friends attended the wedding.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Betty Selvig sang, "O, Promise Me," and "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Roy Cross at the organ. Mrs. Cross also played the wedding music for the processional and recessional.

The service was by candlelight and began when the four bridesmaids, Miss Rose Tropea, Miss Maryviolet Fraser, Miss Ramona Marcoe and Miss Helen Taylor, and the sister of the bride, Mrs. Clarence Hays, as matron-of-honor, entered. The little flower girl was the bride's niece, Janey Jorgensen. Douglas Payne was best man, and the ushers were Clarence Hays, Ward Buckingham, Jr., Franklin Mills and Kenneth Madsen. The bride entered the church on the arm of her brother, James, who gave her in marriage. The Rev. M. A. Cookson officiated at the double-ring ceremony of the Episcopal marriage service.

The bride's gown was blush satin with long train and sweeping white tulle veil. Her bouquet was pink roses. The attendants wore floor-length gowns with cream taffeta skirts and velvet bodices, three in rose velvet and three in turquoise velvet, and wore Juliet caps with short white tulle veils and carried old-fashioned nosegays.

The bride's mother wore a floor-length blue gown with silver trim and a corsage of talisman roses and gardenias. Mrs. James Jorgensen, Jr. also wore a floor-length gown of cream taffeta and black velvet bodice and Juliet cap.

Many candelabra with white candles, baskets of white chrysanthemums and ferns and greenery formed the decorative background for the wedding.

After the ceremony, a reception for 100 friends and relatives was given at the Temple Tea Room. At the bride's table was a tiered blush wedding cake, which was cut by Mrs. James Jorgensen, Jr., and refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Henriksen, Jr., Mrs. Ward Buckingham, Jr., Mrs. Edwin Proser and Mrs. Kenneth Madsen. The wedding guest book was in charge of Miss Wilma Jordan. Dancing was enjoyed during the evening hours.

Out-of-town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. F. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rajée, all of Spokane, and Mrs. Marie Mosby and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Riley of Eureka.

The bride's going away outfit was a sand-colored costume suit, with fox-trimmed coat, with black accessories and deep red rose corsage. The young couple left for Seattle where they will make their home, and where Mr. Turner is engaged in business. Mrs. Turner was a senior student at the University of Washington, and was a member of Kappa Delta sorority, as were all her bridesmaids.
