Obituary

George Walter Hyde was born in Birmingham, England, July 22, 1856 and passed away March 4, 1941, at Waterloo, Iowa. At the age of four he came to the United States. His childhood home was in Illinois.

When a young man, Mr. Hyde went to Kansas by covered wagon and engaged in farming, then for eleven years he was a prospector in the mountains of Colorado.

In 1893 he was united in marriage to Sarah Emma Trainor of Baltimore, Maryland. To this union were born two daughters, Mrs. Charles (Nellie) Mitichka of Salmon, Idaho, and Marguerite, a member of the Iowa State Teachers' college faculty at Waterloo, Iowa.

Three grandchildren also survive, Mrs. George Calwell of Salmon, Idaho, Blanche Motichka, a junior at Washington State college in Pullman, Washington, and Ray Motichka, a freshman at the University of Idaho at Moscow.

Mr. Hyde farmed for ten years in South Dakota previous to his locating in the Flathead valley on a farm one mile north of Kalispell in 1902.

After his wife's death in 1926, Mr. Hyde traveled to various parts of the United States with his daughter Marguerite going wherever her studies and teaching called her. Summers were usually spent in the Flathead valley which was always home.

Mr. Hyde became a member of the Methodist church of Kalispell in about 1924. He was always interested in those things which made for the finer life and was a devoted husband and father.
