Mildred Stebbins and Capt. O'Neil Married in Washington, D. C.

Wearing candlelight tulle, Miss Mildred Catherine Stebbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Stebbins of Crasin, Mont., became the bride of Captain Bernard O'Neil, U. S. M. C., son of James G. O. O'Neil of Annapolis, Md., at 8 p. m. Saturday in St. Mary's church.

The Rev. John McCory of Washington officiated at the altar which was beautifully decorated with pink dahlias.

The bride's gown was made with puffed sleeves, a square neckline, held by pearl clips, and a long train. Her tulle veil fell from a Mary Stuart heart-shaped head-dress. Her old-fashioned nosegay of white roses and baby's breath was edged with lace. Colonel Louis Marle, a friend of the couple, gave her in marriage.

Miss Patricia Thompson of Washington, the maid of honor, wore lavender lace and a matching flower wreath in her hair. Her nosegay similar to that of the bride, was of pink roses. Colonel John Davis was the best man. The ushers were Ensign Robert Jones and Ensign Nathaniel Valardy.

A small reception for members of the families and the wedding party was held at the home of the bridegroom's father after the ceremony.

Mrs. O'Neil cut her wedding cake with her husband's sword.

Mrs. Stebbins, mother of the bride, wore a frock of purple crepe with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage.

After a short wedding trip, Captain and Mrs. O'Neil will make their home at Ku-De-So on Chesapeake Bay.
