

Bonde-Ackley

Sergeant Norman Blaine Ackley of Vancouver, Wash., son of Mrs. Blaine Ackley, also of that city, was united in marriage to Miss Corinne Elsenor Bonde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bonde of Kalispell, on Tuesday, December 15, at 4:30 p. m. The Rev. Wallace Smith of the Christian church performed the ceremony in the presence of about 20 invited friends and relatives. A program of nuptial music was played by Mrs. Wright McEwan and the bridal party assembled as strains of the Lohengrin Wedding march were heard. They took their places before the fireplace which was banked with Christmas greens and lighted tapers for the occasion. The attendants were Miss Jean Todd of Billings and Albert Duffield of Great Falls. An informal reception followed the ceremony, and Miss Bernice Carter assisted in serving collations at the buffet tea table.

Sergeant Ackley, in the weather service of the U. S. army, is now stationed in Lewiston, and is a graduate of the University of Washington. Mrs. Ackley is librarian of the Lewiston Carnegie library. She completed her education at the University of Montana. The out-of-town guests present for the wedding were the bride's mother and sister, Mrs. Carl Bonde of Kalispell and Mrs. Robert P. Struckman of Great Falls; and the bridesmaid, Miss Jean Todd of Billings, all of whom returned to their respective homes on Tuesday evening.

Johnson-Agather

Beautiful in its simplicity was the home wedding uniting Donna Frances Johnson of Tacoma, and Max Edward Agather, son of Mrs. Martha Agather of Kalispell, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother in Tacoma on Tuesday evening, December 1.

Candlelight and a lowering of white and yellow chrysanthemums at the end of the living room were a setting of charm and beauty for the exchange of vows spoken at 9:30 in the evening in the presence of 24 relatives and friends of the bridal couple. Officiating at the lovely double ring ceremony and chosen to speak the wedding address, was the Rev. D. A. Schroeder of the Zion Lutheran church in Tacoma.

The bride was attractive in a wool traveling suit of Hunter green and matching hat, and her corsage was of gardenias.

As matrons of honor, the bride's mother, Mrs. Johnson, chose a gown of pale green crepe Roman, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Agather, wore gold crepe Roman.

Following the ceremony dainty refreshments carrying out the wedding theme, were served to the wedding party and their guests.

The bride is a graduate of the Tacoma schools, and was a sophomore at Washington State college at Pullman, where she recently received the honor of being chosen princess of the Harvest festival and Sweetheart of Sigma Chi.

Mr. Agather is a graduate of Flathead high school and Washington State college at Pullman. His post-graduate work was taken at Harvard School of Business.

After a short wedding trip to Seattle, Mr. Agather will enter the service of his country at Ft. Lewis, Wash. The home address of the young couple will be Cambridge Apartments, Tacoma.

Clerk of Court Oliver Vase issued a marriage license Wednesday afternoon to Olan Fetveit and Lois M. Stewart, both of Kalkreuth.

Stewart-Fetveit

At a very impressive candlelight service Thursday evening, October 29, at the Bethlehem Lutheran church Miss Lois Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stewart, and Olan Fetveit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sara Fetveit, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The Rev. Arnon Johnson officiated at the altar which was beautifully decorated with ferns and 'mums. Before the service the candles were lighted by Miss Beverly Gebben.

The bride was beautiful in a floor length white satin gown, with a fingered veil, held in place by a coronet of pearls. She wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and forget-me-nots. The veil was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. Donald DeVoe, acting matron of honor wore a floor length gown of rose beige with matching hat, carrying a bouquet of 'mums and roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Harriet Jacobson, wearing a powder blue gown and Miss Agnes Fetveit, sister of the groom, wearing a fuchsia gown. Each carried a nosegay of roses and 'mums and wore flower wreaths in their hair.

Dale Gerton was best man. The ushers were Arthur Torgerson and Donald DeVoe.

Little Miss Luann Westerhaus and Miss Yvonne Geddes were the flower girls.

Before the ceremony Miss Louise Andersson sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and after the vows were exchanged she sang "Because" accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Carlson, who also played the wedding march.

A small reception for members of the families and the wedding party was held at the home of the bride's parents.

After a short wedding trip to Helena, where the groom was inducted into the navy, the couple will be at home in the Blue and White Auto Court.

The bride is a graduate of Flathead high school and has been employed at the Mountain States Power company.

The groom graduated from the Watford City high school in North Dakota. He is employed at the Kalkreuth Lumber company.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Miss Margaret Potrott of Spokane and Miss Agnes Fetveit of Seattle, sisters of the groom.

Thursday morning licenses were issued to Lawrence Schaefer of Chester, and Amelia Peters of Cut Bank, and to Jack D. Ford and Nancy L. Elliot, both of Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. Jack Ford
Formerly Miss Nancy Elliot daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Elliot, who was married recently at the home of her parents.

Elliot-Ford
At an impressive candle-light ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, Miss Nancy Elliot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Elliot, and Jack Ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ford of Elma, Wash., were united in marriage at the Elliot home at 8:30 last evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. T. B. W. Allen before the fireplace which was banked with bouganvillea and white gladioli, in tall white baskets with white tapers across the mantle and about the rooms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white embroidered organza with blouse of white taffeta, pearl trimming, and a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and calla lilies. Betty Salting, maid of honor, wore pale blue with a corsage of pink rose buds. Mrs. Elliot wore a flowered gown and corsage of lavender sweet peas and pansies. Mrs. Ford, the groom's mother, wore a black lace gown, and her bouquet was hibiscus in shades of lavender. Barry Brannberger acted as best man.

Before the ceremony Catherine Dieringer sang "Through the Years," by Youmans, and "When Within Thine Arms," by Denmore. During the ceremony she sang "The Wedding Hymn." During the evening Burnett Elliot sang "Ave Maria" and "Sylvia," accompanied by Mrs. Donald Nixon. Later in the evening Miss Dieringer sang "A Kiss in the Dark," by Victor Herbert, "Liebesträume," by Liszt, "L'Amour-Toujours," by Rudolph Friml, and "I'll See You Again," by Noel Coward.

Refreshments were served from a table beautifully appointed with lace cover, candles and centered with a large wedding cake, surrounded by lilies of the valley and white tulips.

Those assisting in the dining room were Mesdames Howard Stevens, E. J. Falkner, A. T. Munro, E. S. Dickey, F. G. Ellis, Miss Caroline Welch, Miss Salli Belle Woods, Miss Jewell Brooner and Miss Sydney Monroe. Those assisting with the decorations were Mesdames Hal Kelly, E. J. Falkner, and J. H. Droadwater.

The wedding of Miss Ann Pederson and Dr. J. Arthur Lamb was solemnized at the Bethlehem Lutheran church Sunday, May 24, at 1 o'clock in an impressive single ring ceremony in the presence of a congregation of friends and relatives. The Rev. Aron Johnson read the service.

Mrs. A. E. Bard and Miss Cora Pederson, sisters of the bride from Bremerton, Washington, served as matron of honor and brides' maid. Walter Lamb, Ottowa, Ontario, was best man. Also here for the occasion were the bride's mother, Mrs. Bertha Pederson of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and sisters, Mrs. James Smith, Bremerton, and Mrs. Bert Hagen of Spokane.

Miss Pederson came down the aisle on the arm of John Tanach. Ushers were Donald Huck, Robert Huck, Paul Voorhees and Bill Newell. Lohengrin's "Wedding March" was played by Dale Gutter at the organ and nuptial music was "Nocturn" sung by a girls' trio, Joyce Phillips, Janet Newell and Dorothy Ness, and "The Lord's Prayer" sung by Erwin Overby. The ushers and musicians were students of Miss Pederson in the music department at Flathead county high school.

The bride wore a white tailored suit of elusion silk with an orchid wore a white hat with a veil. The matron of honor chose a powder blue dress, and the bridesmaid, a light green suit, both with gardenia corsages.

The church was festive with white flowers and white lilacs, apple blossoms and pink tulips.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Paterson entertained the wedding party and friends at a tea from 2 until 4 o'clock. Gifts were displayed, and members of the Kalspell faculty and friends assisted at the beautifully appointed table.

Those who poured and assisted at the reception were the Misses Irene Berg, Geda Soren, Grace Daldwin and Agnes Field and the Mesdames Van Voorous and Mildred Grawe.

Dr. and Mrs. Lamb will make their home at 424 Fourth avenue East in Kalspell after a brief motor trip.
