Thornby-Evenson

The following account of the marriage of Private Neal Evenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Evenson of Kalspell, is from a Longview, Wash., newspaper:

The informal and pretty wedding ceremony for Miss Wanda Thornbury, daughter of Mrs. H. K. Howland of Longview, and Private First Class C. E. Evenson of Kalspell, Mont., was performed Sunday at 1 p. m. in the First Christian church of Longview. Rev. Ray E. Dew officiated. Immediate relatives and a few close friends attended.

The bride, an attractive brunette, was married in a powder blue pin tucked afternoon dress with lace trim. Her accessories and crown straw hat were dark brown and Talisman roses and white Freesias were combined in her corsage.

Miss Mary Ellen Oyster of Longview, a close friend of the bride's, was maid of honor. She wore a rose crepe frock and navy blue accessories and hat. Her flowers were gardenias.

Pvt. Leonard Bastin of Chico, Calif., was best man for his friend.

The wedding party, relatives and friends gathered in the apartment of the bride's mother for a buffet luncheon and reception after the wedding. Daffodils and white Freesias centered the bride's table.

Pvt. Evenson left Monday evening for Chico, where he is stationed in the army air forces, and his bride will leave Longview in about three weeks to join her husband.

The bride was graduated from R. A. Long high school and attended Lower Columbia Junior college. Her husband attended the University of Idaho and was employed in the local office of the Bonneville Power administration before entering the service.

Klette, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hunt and the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold R. Johnson.

Johnson Robert D Brown Verla B

17 Jul 1943 pg 5- license and marriage

Clerk of Court Oliver P. Vose issued a marriage license Friday afternoon to Robert D. Johnson of Molese and Verla B. Brown, of Great Falls. They were married that evening by Justice of the Peace H. L. Lokensgard at the city hall.

Clerk of Court Oliver F. Vose has issued marriage licenses to Lieut. Paul A. Jordan of Kalispell and Elfriede Zeek of Somers, and to Leo F. Gane of Kila and Eleanor L. Day of Yakt.

Zeek-Jordan

Trinity Lutheran church was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 2 o'clock Sunday, January 17, when Miss Elfrieda Zeek, daughter of William Zeek of Somers, became the bride of Lieut. Paul Jordan, son of the pastor, Rev. A. Jordan, in a lovely double ring ceremony at which the groom's father officiated in the presence of relatives and members of the congregation.

The setting was one of charm and beauty with ferns forming a background for the lovely white pedataled flower baskets holding white and yellow 'mums which were placed in a half circle at the altar. Four tall standing candelabra holding lighted white tapers cast a soft glow for the exchange of vows.

Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Henry Schoknecht at the organ, and Miss Betty Wright of Missoula sang

"The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte after the entrance of the bridal party.

For his wedding address, Rev. Jordan chose the text taken from the Old Testament blessing, Num. 6 vs. 24-26.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a wedding gown of white brocaded taffeta which was fashioned with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, and bouffant skirt. Her finger-tip length veil was caught in a tiara of lily-of-the-valley and she carried a bouquet of red roses. She was attended by Miss Evelyn Heald of Missoula as maid of honor, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Dorothea Jordan, as bridesmaid. Miss Heald wore a gown of deep pink moire made with short sleeves and resembled the bride's gown. Miss Jordan chose white flowered taffeta with blue ribbon trim for her gown which was made along the same lines. Both wore matching coronets of mouline and carried bouquets of pink roses.

The bridegroom wore his officer's uniform and his best man was the Rev. J. L. Bunschuh of Pablo. Ushers were Albert Kraft and Robert Evans, cousins of the groom.

Mrs. Zeek wore a crepe dress of fashionable grape shade and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony, members of the wedding party and relatives of the young couple enjoyed a 3 o'clock wedding dinner at the Temple Tea room. The tables were decorative with bouquets of smilax, white and yellow 'mums and many tapers in silver candelabra. A lovely tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table, and both bride and groom presided at cutting the first piece. Miss Wright sang "O Promise Me," during the dinner hour.

Lieut. and Mrs. Jordan left for a wedding trip to Missoula before their departure Thursday for Birmingham, Alabama, where the groom is stationed in the army chemical warfare base, and where the young couple will make their home. For going away, the bride wore a suit of pale green wool, black hat and black accessories. The day was bright and sunny for their trip, though the thermometer registered 25 below zero.

Both Lieut. and Mrs. Jordan are graduates of Flathead high school and the University of Montana at Missoula. Before her marriage, Mrs. Jordan held a clerical position at the university.

The young couple received the good wishes of their many friends and members of the Trinity Lutheran congregation.

Wollin-Jorgenson

A quiet wedding was solemnized in Bozeman at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Butler, Saturday, November 20, when Private First Class Wilbur Jorgenson of Billings and Joyce Wollin of Kalispell were married by the Rev. P. H. Pollock of the First Presbyterian church.

Attendants were Mrs. Elmer Butler as matron of honor, Mary Gray as bridesmaid and Private First Class Elmer Butler as best man. Also present were the bride's mother of Kalispell and brother Richard, a freshman at the college and Mrs. E. J. Butler and two daughters.

"I Love You Truly" and "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" were sung by Barbara Judd, accompanied by Susan Smith, both Chi Omega sisters of Joyce.

The bride is a junior at Montana State College and youngest daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. R. H. Wollin of Kalispell.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jorgenson of Billings and is completing the engineering course at Bozeman college under the army training program for reserve officer candidates.

They will be at home at 516 S. 7th Street in Bozeman.
