Shannon Edward F Brooner Jewell 2 Jan 1943 pg 8- marriage

Brooner-Shannon

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Jewell Brooner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brooner of Kalispell, to Edward F. Shannon, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Paul Shannon of Jeffers, Minn.

The ceremony was performed Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 30, at 4 o'clock in the beautiful wedding chapel of the Westminster Presbyterian church in Minneapolis. Guests were college friends of the couple. The only decorations in the chapel were the lighted white tapers in candelabra at the altar.

Rupert Sircorn, formerly organist at Carleton College, when both bride and groom were students there, furnished organ music. Preceding the ceremony he played "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, and as the couple entered the chapel the wedding hymn, "O Perfect Love."

The single ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Mearl P. Culver, friend of the couple, and they left the chapel to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

The bride wore a soft white wool dress, trimmed with rhinestones with matching beret worn in halo effect. Her corsage was of red rose buds and gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon returned to Kalispell New Year's Day, and were entertained at a family dinner at the Temple Tea Room.

During the evening, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, when about forty friends called to extend congratulations and best wishes. A lighted Christmas tree and other holiday greens formed the decorations.

Refreshments were served from a lace covered table, centered with a bouquet of white mums and pink snapdragons, surrounded by four lighted ivory tapers. After the bride cut her wedding cake, Miss Eulice Nelson served the guests and Mrs. E. A. Nelson presided at the coffee urn. Also assisting were Mrs. M. H. Nolan, Mrs. Emil Anderson and the Misses Louise Anderson, Nancy Nolan, Ruth Anderson and Jean Brooner.

The bride attended local schools and graduated from Flathead County High School, with the class of 1934, and from Carleton College in Northfield, Minnesota in 1941. She was a major in Public School Music, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic society. Since graduation from Carleton she has been supervisor of music in Kalispell Public Schools and will continue.

The groom graduated from Winona, Minnesota high school, in 1935 and from Carleton College in 1939 with a major in history and political science, and honors in international relations. He was elected to An Die Musik, honorary music society and Pie Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity. Following graduation at Carleton Mr. Shannon attended Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Medford, Mass., where he received his Masters of Art's degree in 1940. Since then he has been employed in Brazil by the Johnson and Johnson Surgical Supply company, with headquarters at their factory at Sao Paulo, and returned last week via the Pacific coast route of the Pan American Airways. He is on leave from his work in Brazil to enter the service.

Lynch-Skiften
The Eldsvold Lutheran church at Semers was the scene of a very impressive wedding ceremony on Sunday evening, October 3, at 7 o'clock, when Louise Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch became the bride of Norman Skiften, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Skiften.

The marriage service was read in a beautiful candle-lit setting of garden flowers by Rev. John Alver. The single ring ceremony was used and the attendants of the bride and groom were Shirley Olson, maid of honor; Lillie Skiften, bridesmaid; Orville Ramsfield, best man; Don Broston, usher; and Jo Ann Lynch, flower girl.

The Lohengrin wedding march and recessional was played by Jean Hoppe. Miss Lillian Risdal sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Because," accompanied by Miss Hoppe.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white orange floor length gown, finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of white gladiolas and pink roses. The maid of honor wore a pale blue formal with a shoulder length veil and a corsage of pink asters. The bridesmaid wore a pink formal with shoulder-length veil and a corsage of orchid asters. Jo Ann was beautifully dressed in a yellow organdy formal and carried a basket of sweet peas.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The rooms were attractively decorated with fall flowers in a pink and yellow color scheme. A beautiful three-tiered wedding cake centered the smartly arranged table from which dainty refreshments were served to about 80 guests with Mrs. Clara Olson, Ida Parker and Mrs. Sadie Fuller presiding.

Toasts were offered the happy couple by the maid of honor and the best man.

Soft music was rendered throughout the evening by Jean Hoppe. Vocal numbers were also given by Lillian Risdal and the Skiften trio. Many beautiful and useful gifts were displayed.

For her going away outfit the bride wore a tan suit with green accessories. Both bride and groom are graduates of Flathead high school. After a short wedding trip they will make their home on the groom's farm near Echo Lake.

Black-Watters

The many friends of Glenn Watters of Somers were happy to hear of his marriage to Miss Mary Frances Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Black of Toppenish, Wash., which was solemnized at a lovely ceremony held at the home of the bride's aunts, Miss Leota and Miss Carol Trimble in Toppenish Tuesday, April 20, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The home, which has become traditional for its family reunions, was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion, and the vows were spoken before an improvised altar banked with baskets of white lilies, calla lilies and snapdragons, and illuminated by two candelabra. The Rev. V. Spiker officiated.

For her wedding gown, the bride chose an aqua green afternoon frock with which she wore a corsage of green orchids. There were no attendants. Miss Shirley Watters of Seattle, sister of the groom, was among the out-of-town guests present.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for intimate friends and relatives. The refreshment table was beautifully appointed in the bridal theme with a lovely floral wedding cake used as centerpiece and with small nosegay bouquets of yellow roses and lilies placed at either end of the table.

The young couple have made their home in Seattle where Mr. Watters is employed by the Wash. Inston Laboratories as an industrial chemist. Mr. Watters is a graduate of the Somers schools and Plattehead County High school. He is a graduate of Bozeman State college and received his master's degree at Washington State college at Pullman in chemistry. It was while he was assistant instructor there that the couple met. Mr. Watters is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity. After leaving college, he spent two years at Ketchikan, Alaska, in the employ of the Salmon By-Products company as a chemist.

Mrs. Watters graduated from the Toppenish high school and attended Washington State college where she was a senior student with a major in horticulture.

The couple have spent the past week visiting Mr. Watters' mother, Mrs. Fred Watters, in Somers. They received the congratulations of their many Somers and Kallispell friends.

Clerk of Court Oliver F. Vose has issued a marriage license to Frank J. Werner and Pearl L. Gates, both of Cut Bank, Montana.
