Obituary

Eva Henrietta Bailey Farris was born in the Province of Québec, Canada, June 3, 1856, but moved with her parents to Minnesota when but an infant.

She grew to young womanhood in Minnesota, receiving religious instruction in her home, and early in life affiliated with the church, remaining a true member throughout her life.

On September 2, 1875, she was united in marriage to Luther Edgar Farris, who passed away on August 25, 1929. Five children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Farris, three sons and two daughters, whose names are John, Elwin, Clifford, Lillian and Margaret.

After her husband's death, Mrs. Farris came to Kalispell to make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lillian English, who is well known in this community, having been a teacher in the public schools here for several years before her mother's coming and having continued in that capacity to the present time.

She passed away late Saturday afternoon, June 26, 1943.

Those from outside the city who were present for the funeral are Mr. and Mrs. L. G. James, Mrs. Farris' daughter and son-in-law, whose home is in Waseca, Minnesota.

Obituary

Theresa Polley Foot was born January 21, 1862, the daughter of John C. Polley and Amanda Korn Polley, in Houston County, Minnesota, one of a family of 11 children. Except for a year spent in Oregon and on the west coast, she grew up and was educated in Minnesota, attending the St. Cloud Normal school and a business college in Minneapolis. After graduation from school she worked for a time as a stenographer in the law office of Taylor & Stewart in St. Cloud, Minnesota.

She was married April 28, 1890, to Charles Henry Foot, at St. Cloud, coming to Kalispell July 1, 1891, to join her husband who had come out the preceding spring. Here were born their six children, Dorothy, Eugene, Jessie, Katharine, Isabel and Helen. She lived the remaining 52 years of her life in and near Kalispell. She was a charter member of the Century Club and a member of the Yeoman Lodge and the Ladies of the Maccabees, now the Women's Benefit association, remaining active in these organizations until the family moved to the ranch home south of Kalispell, where she lived for 25 years. During the latter years of her life she took very little part in social activities, her life being wrapped up in her home and family.

She was always an ardent student and a great reader, her studies, which continued up to her last illness, including such varied interests as literature, botany, astronomy, and Latin. These pursuits and her home, particularly her garden and flowers with which she spent a great deal of her time even into her last year, gave her a full and complete life in which nothing was lacking for happiness and contentment.

Her husband preceded her in death on May 21, 1942. She is survived by her six children, Mrs. Guy K. Foot, of Kalispell; Eugene B. Foot, of Kalispell; Mrs. Vincent Carbonneau, of Rochester, Michigan; Katharine Foot, of Kalispell; Mrs. Emil Koski, of Ely, Minnesota; and Mrs. Murray Buell of Raleigh, North Carolina; thirteen grandchildren, a brother, Judge S. C. Polley of Pierre, South Dakota, and two sisters, Mrs. Alice A. Knox of San Diego, California, and Mrs. Arthur P. White of South Pasadena, California.
