

LULA M. LIVERMORE

Funeral services for Mrs. Lula M. Livermore were held Wednesday morning at 10:30 at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. R. F. Vick of the Methodist church. Members of the Royal Neighbors attended in a body and took part in the services. Clide Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pall-bearers were A. R. Clark, Jessie James, Archie Short, John Short, Lewis Sunde and M. M. Allen. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Lula Mae Friend was born August 19, 1881, at Fairchild, Wisconsin. She grew up in Wisconsin and on March 11, 1902, was married to Archie B. Livermore. They continued to make their home there until 1919 when they moved to Kalispell. Mrs. Livermore had been in failing health for some time and passed away February 28, 1943, at Ronan at the age of 61 years.

She was a member of the Order of Owls and of the Royal Neighbors.

Mrs. Livermore is survived by her husband Archie B. Livermore at home, and three sons, Charles Livermore of Ronan, Ralph Livermore of San Francisco, and Bruce Livermore of Los Angeles.

ERSUL E. LOVERING

Funeral services for Ersul E. Lovering were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by S. L. Rapson former reader of the Christian Science church. Clide Carr sang two solo selections during the services accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Members of the American Legion attended in a body and posted the colors and Commander Victor Croskrey opened the services. Legion members acting as pallbearers were J. A. Heller, Jack Berz, Roy O. Waller, F. C. Rockwood, Alben Hanson and William Hossock. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery concluding the services with the military salute and raps.

Obituary

Ersul E. Lovering was born at Newlon near Sidney, Montana, April 12, 1887. He grew up there and later moved to North Dakota. On May 25, 1918, he enlisted for service in the World War and was placed in the 89th Spruce squadron. He received his discharge on January 7, 1919. He was married May 19, 1918, to Miss Rose Shelley. Following the war, they made their home in North Dakota until 1925 when they came to Kalispell.

Mr. Lovering had been a steam engineer connected with construction work and at the time of his death was operating a jammer loading logs at Olney, Mont. He passed away suddenly Nov. 12, 1943, at the age of 56 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rose Lovering, of Kalispell; two sons, Forrest, a staff sergeant in the Aleutians, and Pvt. Harry Lovering of Camp Mackall, North Carolina, and two brothers, Leslie Lovering of Billings and Bert Lovering in Virginia.