J. McIntire, D. S. Cameron, J. M. Montgomery, and James K. Lang. Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial cemetery under the direction of the Elliot Mortuary.

Obituary

Mrs. Catherine Prindville was born in Whithy, Ontario, Canada October 14, 1877. When 15 years of age she came to the Flathead to make her home and was united in marriage in 1897 to William Prindville. Mrs. Prindville was an old timer of this community and one of Kalispell's best loved personalities. Her many friends will regret the passing of a devoted citizen, having borne and raised nine children, three of whom are now members of the U. S. armed forces.

Afflicted with an illness that proved to be very trying in the last few years of a splendid and generous life, she seldom complained and offered her prayers for all who were sick or in trouble, considering her own illness secondary. Approaching her 66th birthday, Mrs. Prindville was unable to enjoy the fall season to which she was so attached.

She passed away during her favorite season, an easy and beautiful death, being favored with full Catholic rites and most of her children at her bedside.

She is survived by her husband, William Prindville of Kalispell, three daughters: Mrs. John O'Brien of Everett, Washington, Mrs. Donald Ryon of Spokane, Washington, Mrs. Manuel Luna, of Berkeley, California, and four sons: William Jr. in the U. S. Navy, Cpl. David C. in the U. S. Army, Thomas P. also in the U. S. Army and Casey P. Prindville of Whitefish, Montana. She is also survived by a brother-in-law, David Prindville of Kalispell and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Joseph Briggeman of Gold Creek, Montana and 12 grandchildren.
