TWO CORAM MEN KILLED IN GRADE
CROSSING MISHAP

Two Coram residents met death Friday as a result of a railroad crossing accident which occurred about three-quarters of a mile east of Coram. Richard Ramont, 63, and J. H. Neiswender, 61, were riding in the truck which was hit by Section No. 2 of the westbound Empire Builder about 3:20 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Mr. Ramont died almost instantly, but Mr. Neiswender lived for a few hours, passing away about 7 o'clock at the Whitefish hospital, where he had been taken.

Both men are survived by their widows.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete but will be announced later by the Waggener & Campbell Funeral Home.
