SARAH JENKINS WIGHTMAN

Harold Jenkins and his niece, Thelma Gorton, have just returned from Salt Lake City, having been called there by the death of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Jenkins Wightman. She will be remembered her as Sarah Jenkins. She was born in Austin, Nevada in 1872. Her father was Captain Jenkins in a Pennsylvania regiment in the Civil War. He married and came West in an early day to Butte, where he heard of the wonders of the Flathead. A little later the family settled at Lake Blaine, where Sarah grew to womanhood. After her sister's death, she assumed the duty of helping to rear her two nieces, Thelma Gorton of Kallispell, and Mary Coons of Westport, Washington, who, with a nephew, Ray Jenkins, now serving with the armed forces in England, are left with a host of loving friends to mourn her passing. The many beautiful floral offerings gave mute testimony of the esteem in which she was held. She could not do enough for a friend.
