Wallace F. Anderson, Spokane, and Mildred G. Proctor, Kalispell, obtained a marriage license Friday from Clerk of the Court Oliver F. Vose.

Proctor-Anderson

At a formal ceremony held at 10:30 o'clock Saturday, June 10, in the First Presbyterian church, Miss Mildred Proctor, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Proctor of Kalispell, became the bride of Wallace Anderson of Spokane, son of Fred Anderson of that city. Rev. Russell Prentice officiated.

As guests were being seated, a program of favorite selections was played by the organist, Miss Louise Enger, and she played the Wedding March from Lohengrin for the entrance of the bridal party. The bride's brother, Stanley Proctor, escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride was becomingly gowned in a Grecian floor-length dress of white chiffon with white veil and carried pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Mrs. Charles Baldwin was matron of honor and wore a floor-length dress of ashes or roses. The little flower girls, daughters of the groom, Louise Ann and Ida Lee Anderson wore long pink dresses. Best man was Richard Scheffler of Spokane, and ushers included Charles Baldwin, T. W. Elliot, Valjean Riley and C. D. O'Neil. Soloist was Miss Jerry Caswell and she sang "Because" and "Still Is the Night." As the wedding party left the church, the organist played Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional.

Afterward a reception was held in the Pioneer room, where guests were greeted by Mrs. Anderson's mother, and the bride and groom received the best wishes of their friends. At the attractively appointed refreshment table Mrs. C. D. O'Neil, Mrs. T. W. Elliot and Miss Edith Dahl presided, and the wedding cake was served by Mrs. Arthur Lund and Mrs. Daniel Rising. Those serving punch were the Misses Jeanne Lewis and Jeanne Bennett, assisted by Mesdames Chester King, Fred Knoble, Harry Smith of Dayton, and Misses Kathryn O'Neil, Jerry Lee Phillips, Eva Jean Kirkpatrick, and James Lancaster.

The guest book was cared for by Mrs. Proctor, Mrs. Urban Sevall and Miss Edna Lake. Reception music was furnished by Joan Baldwin, Betty Knaus and Janet Gould. Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scheffler of Spokane, brother-in-law and sister of the groom, Mrs. E. E. Englehart of Spokane, Mr. and Mrs. Art Lund of Marion, and many friends and neighbors from Dayton and Proctor, Montana.

Mrs. Anderson is a graduate of Flathead County high school and the University of Montana at Missoula, where she was a member of Zephyr Delta Pi. The groom was educated in the Spokane schools and is employed with the Great Northern Railway company store department.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Flathead lake, following which they will be at home in Spokane.
