

GEORGE A. WADE

George Arthur Wade was born in Nebraska and in 1907 came to Polson, Montana. There he was engaged as a clothing merchant until 1912 when he moved to California, where he was engaged in real estate. In 1929 Mr. Wade returned to Montana and for the past 10 months he had made his home in Helena, where he passed away October 22, 1944. Besides his wife and two children he is survived by his mother, two grandchildren, two brothers and three sisters.

WILLIAM J. WALLACE

Funeral services for William J. Wallace were held Monday afternoon at the Elliot chapel with Rev. Ralph Underwood of the Central Christian church officiating. During the services two selections were sung by Mrs. Mildred Vick with Miss Louise Hanger at the piano. Friends serving as casket-bearers were Peter Hoffman, B. F. Root, C. D. Carr, C. B. Cobb, Lewis Fry and W. E. Willey. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

William John Wallace was born at Millford, Iowa, November 27, 1864. When a young man he moved to the Flathead and farmed east of Kalispell for a number of years. Mr. Wallace passed away at his home at 297 Sixth avenue north west at the age of 79 and leaves to mourn his passing two daughters, Mrs. R. E. Oestreich of Ritzville, Wash., and Mrs. Mildred Hart of Indiana. Also two step-daughters, Mrs. E. McGee of Canada and Mrs. E. B. Knapp of Ritzville, Wash.

EARL T. WIDDOWSON

Funeral services for Earl T. Widdowson were held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener & Campbell chapel by Rev. Russell Prentice of the Presbyterian Church. During the services Don Shepard sang two solos and was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pallbearers were Fred M. Alton, Ray A. Smith, Parry Zobach, E. S. Baldwin, Paul Walchli and Roman Zeler.

Interment was made in the Conrad Memorial Cemetery.

Obituary

Earl Thomas Widdowson was born July 14, 1888 at Elkhorn, Montana. As a baby he came with his parents to the Flathead by covered wagon, he grew up on a farm southwest of Kalispell, and attended the grade and high school at Kalispell. He was a graduate of the Kalispell business college, and was employed for several years in the Conrad bank.

In 1910 he married Stella Moravetz and to this union one son was born. He worked for railroad companies at Spokane, Wash., Fresno, Cal., and Nashville, Tenn., before returning to Kalispell in 1932.

He was a lover of nature and was adept at sketching and painting outdoor scenes.

At the time of his death he was employed by J. E. Corette at Bigfork. He leaves to mourn his loss, his son Clifton of Newport, Wash., his brother Carl of Creston, four nieces, and a host of friends.

MRS. FRANCES WILSON

Frances Flemming was born to Johnathon and Mary Elizabeth Flemming at Metamore, Indiana, Feb. 11, 1859.

At the age of 10 years she moved with her family to Neasho Rapids, Kansas.

On July 1, 1877, she was married to Robert Wilson and 10 children were born to them. Mrs. Wilson was a member of the Methodist church in Kansas and took an active part in church and Sunday school work. In 1915 the family came to the Flathead and moved to a farm in the Echo Lake district. They remained there until 1930 when they came to Kalispell. Mr. Wilson passed away here in 1930. Mrs. Wilson became a member of the Presbyterian church in Kalispell in 1923. She had been an invalid for the past two and a half years and passed away at her home on Fifth avenue west north in Kalispell, August 6, 1944, at the age of 85 years.

She is survived by her eight children: Ellsworth Wilson of Kalispell, John C. Wilson of Reading, Kansas, James R. Wilson of Seattle, Wash., Ross C. Wilson of Kalispell, Rober Wilson of Kalispell, Mrs. Maude Chaffin of Spokane, Mrs. Sadie Fuller of Kalispell and Mrs. Jean Lynch of Kalispell. There are also 21 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren surviving.

MYRON WILSON

Myron Wilson was born in Blandville, Ill., in 1877, and passed away at Helena, Montana, March 10, 1944, at the age of 67 years. At the age of 16 he moved with his parents to Texas and in 1909 came to Montana to make his home at Culbertson. Four years later he moved to Tuttle, Oklahoma, and was married there in 1906 to Miss Elizabeth Bogart.

They came to Montana in 1910 and homesteaded near Culbertson, making their home there until 1923 when they moved to Kalispell. The family has lived here since that time except for the past year and a half which Mr. and Mrs. Wilson spent in Helena.

Mr. Wilson is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, at home, three daughters, Mrs. Otto Lich of Kalispell, Mrs. Dale Gosney of Deer Lodge and Mrs. Archie Christison of Helena and one son, Pvt. Louis C. Wilson of Douglas, Arizona. There are also two sisters, Mrs. Artie Graham of Manhattan, Mont., and Mrs. Ethel Jiter of Bridgeport, Texas.

WINIFRED H. WOODBRIDGE

Funeral services for Mrs. Winifred H. Woodbridge were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Waggener and Campbell chapel by Rev. Mrs. R. C. Treloar of the Somers Methodist church. Glide Carr sang two solo selections accompanied at the organ by Mrs. J. M. Carlson. Friends acting as pallbearers were Charles M. Narveson, Karl B. Sipe, Glide Ball, A. B. Gouhier, George C. Elsass and Frank Marco. Interment was in the Conrad Memorial cemetery.

Obituary

Winifred Helen Woodbridge was born at Arnold's Park, Iowa, in 1887. She grew up in Iowa and began teaching there in 1905. She attended the university at Des Moines. In 1913 she came to Montana and taught in the rural and grade schools until 1918. Then she went to the state of Washington to teach, where she was married to Harvey B. Woodbridge in 1923. Mr. Woodbridge died in 1932, and Mrs. Woodbridge worked for a time in the state offices in Washington. Later she returned to Montana and for one year was matron at the Soldiers' Home. Since 1940, she has been teaching in the schools in this part of the state. She was a teacher at Round Tuttle when she was taken sick and passed away April 18.

She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the Women's Auxiliary of the Spanish American War Veterans. She was also a member of the Lakeside Ladies' club. When she lived in Spokane she affiliated with the Congregational church there. She was interested in the welfare of the young folks of her community, and took an active part in advancing their interests. She had many friends and will be deeply missed.

She is survived by a son, Marshall Woodbridge; her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Alouzo A. Henderson of Lakeside; and two brothers, Gordon and Walter Henderson of Seattle, Wash.

SARAH E. WOODWORTH

Sarah Elizabeth Gilmour was born February 18, 1861, at Morristown, New York. When she was a small child the family moved to Algona, Iowa. There in 1884 she was united in marriage with Horace Woodworth. In August 1907, they came to the Flathead. Her husband preceded her in death in 1913. Mrs. Woodworth led a happy and useful life at Lakeside up to the time of her death on October 16, 1944. She is survived by two sons: Paul of San Pedro, California, and Lloyd of Kalispell. She leaves four grandchildren.