13 Dec 1945 pg 8- marriage

Wilke-Brooner Nuptials

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place Saturday evening, December 8, when Miss Carlene Wilke and Ernest G. Brooner were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, with the Rev. Russell Prentice of the Presbyterian Church reading the single ring service in the presence of about 25 relatives and intimate friends.

The ceremony took place at 8:36 o'clock before an improvised altar where tall candelabras with lighted white tapers were flanked with baskets of pink and white pom-poms.

Miss Louise Hanger played Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus."

The bride was beautiful in her white wedding gown with train, made with sweetheart neckline and long-fitted sleeves. The finger-tip veil was held in place by a coronet studded with seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white gardenias and pink rose buds.

For her attendants the bride chose her sister, Miss Louise Wilke as maid of honor and Mrs. Arnold Johnson as matron of honor.

The groom chose for his best man his father, Ernest D. Brooner. Arnold Johnson acted as usher.

Miss Hanger interspersed the service with appropriate music and played the recessional march at the close of the ceremony.

A reception was held immediately following the wedding. Refreshments were served from a long table centered with a lovely bridal cake.

Mrs. Brooner is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wilke of the Lower Valley. She attended and graduated from the Flathead county high school with the class of 1941, and later attended the North Montana college at Havre. She has been engaged as a teacher in the Somers school for the last two and one-half years.

The groom is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Brooner of Kalispell, and was born and reared in this city, graduating from the county high school in 1941. He enlisted the same year and served in the submarine service of the U. S. Navy in the Pacific, and recently received his honorable discharge.

Lindsay-Corbett

The marriage of Patricia Marie Lindsay, daughter of Judge and Mrs. William H. Lindsay of Glacier Park Headquarters at Belton, to Lieut. Thomas J. Corbett, formerly of Coram, was solemnized Friday evening at 5 o'clock at the Lindsay home.

The Rev. Frank D. Hillis of Kalispell officiated at the beautiful and impressive ring ceremony, which was witnessed by a small group of relatives and close friends. The bride was given away by her father. Miss Nancy Powell was bridesmaid and Compton Corbett, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Little Denn Crumley was ring bearer.

The bridal party stood before the fireplace which was beautifully banked with green with a large fan-shaped decoration of white chrysanthemums above the mantel, while on the mantel tall tapering candles rose from among living greenery, making an improvised altar.

The bride was lovely in a moss-green suit with a corsage of pale pink rosebuds. Her bridesmaid wore a tan suit with a corsage of yellow mums and rosebuds. The bride's mother was attired in a gown of watermelon crepe and wore a corsage of white carnations.

Following the wedding a large informal reception was held at the Lindsay home when about 100 friends of the popular young couple called. Delicious refreshments were served with Mrs. Henry Rupp and Mrs. Darrell Crumley pouring. The bridal couple was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts.

Throughout the rooms tall candles and cut flowers, all in white, lent their grace and beauty to the happy scene.

Mrs. Corbett received her education in the Columbia Falls and Kalispell high school and was employed in a secretarial position in Great Falls until recently. Lieut. Corbett attended the Columbia Falls high school, the Northern Montana College at Havre, and taught school before his induction into the army. He is a first lieutenant in the air corps and is stationed at Phoenix, Arizona, at present.

The young couple left by automobile Saturday for Phoenix.
