

Disbrow Dallas G Riley Genevieve Hutchinson 10 Jan 1945 pg 8- marriage

Riley-Disbrow
Announcement of the wedding of Mrs. Genevieve Hutchinson Riley to Dallas G. Disbrow in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cornack at their CX ranch near Sheridan, Wyo., has been received here. The candle-light ceremony was performed before an altar covered with golden embroidered Chinese silks. The altar was flanked with American Beauty and Johanna Hill roses before a background of Christmas holly and candles. The Rev. Harry B. Gordon of Sheridan officiated. Bill Eaton gave the bride in marriage and Ralph Cunningham of Billings attended the bridegroom. Guests were relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was served 24 guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornack. An old traditional touch greeted the guests on the approach to the ranch house. Flower-garlanded Herefords were tethered on the wide lawn, an old Acanthian custom indicating that a marriage is about to take place in the home of their owner.

Mrs. Disbrow is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and has made her home in Rockford, Ill. She has been a guest at the Eaton ranch the past four seasons. Mr. Disbrow, a former Kalspell resident, has lived at the CX ranch for a number of years where he raises Hereford cattle and Palomino horses. The newlyweds have left for a short wedding trip and will be at home at the CX ranch after January 15.

9 Jan 1945 pg 6- marriage

Hewitson-Knobel

Miss Ella Mae Hewitson became the bride of Harvey L. Knobel at a candle-light ceremony in the Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

The bride, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hewitson, entered the church on the arm of her father who gave her in marriage. She selected a gown of white slipper satin with a net yoke encircled with hardanger lace and fashioned with a long fitted bodice and full skirt that formed a graceful train. Her finger-length veil of crisp net was fashioned in a coronet held on by a band of seed pearl flowers. She carried a white satin covered Bible with orchids.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Edmond Furlong of Alameda, California. Mrs. Furlong wore a dress of shell pink satin with sweetheart neckline and bracelet length sleeves.

Miss Marlon Hewitson, also sister of the bride, was bride's maid. Her dress was of Alice blue satin with full floor length skirt and long fitted bodice with a pleated neckline.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of wine with matching accessories and a gardenia corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. Leroy Knobel, wore a dress of navy blue with gardenias for her corsage.

The groom was attended by Ra-dolph Correll, a college friend. Eugene Frost and Frank Morrison acted as ushers.

Rev. Russel J. Prentice read the evange ring ceremony before the altar which was flanked by rows of white candles and tall wicker baskets filled with white and orchid mums.

Before the wedding Miss Louise Hanger played a group of organ pieces including many of the most loved nuptial tones. Just before the bride entered Mrs. Harold G. Wilson sang "Sweetest Story Ever Told" and at the close of the ceremony she sang "I Love You Truly."

The wedding party stood at the rear of the church to receive the best wishes of the many friends who attended the ceremony. Later a reception was held in the fireplace room in the church, at which time the bride cut her tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Knobel was born in Havre, Montana, but came to Kalspell soon afterwards with her parents. She is a graduate of Flathead County High school and for the past two years has been employed by the Armstrong Insurance agency.

Mr. Knobel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Knobel of Glendive, Montana. He is a graduate in civil engineering from Montana State College where he was a member of Tau Beta Phi, honorary engineering fraternity and Eta Sigma Phi, honorary freshman fraternity. He is now employed by Pan American Airways as engineering officer out of San Francisco.

The young couple selected for their wedding date the day of the twenty-eighth wedding anniversary of the groom's parents.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Knobel of Glendive, Mrs. Edwin Perlberg of Alameda, Calif., Miss Marlon Hewitson of Oakland, California, Willard Duruh, Bolton and Louis Fournier, Spokane.

For her going-away outfit Mrs. Knobel selected a gold wool dress with brown accessories. After a wedding trip and visit with friends in Montana the young couple will make their home in San Francisco.
